MICKIE, THE PRINTER'S DEVIL

By Charles Sughroe
© Western Newspaper Union

Fair Warning

TOWN PESTS

This Poor pest ain't thought Hard of, becus Many of our Most Prominent Citizens wux like This in their Paltry Days. Jest now He's wandering 'round in a Balmy Daze but he'll haf to Git Married after while to Git Some Sleep, after which he'll no Longer be a Pest but a Useful Member of the Community.

AW, WHAT'S THE USE

By L. F. Van Zelm
© Western Newspaper Union

Wait Till You Hear the Rain Drops

HAMBONE'S MEDITATIONS

DEY'S SOME FOLKS, EF DEY DON' NEVUH TALK NONE YOU S'PICION DEY AIN' GOT MUCH SENSE, EN WEN DEY DOES TALK YOU KNOWS DEY AIN'T!

Sitting Tight

Big Events in the Lives of Little Men

UNCLE HANK

To a small boy, a year consists of 52 Saturday [illegible] baths.

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

When troubles beat upon me now
I never let them knock me flat.
I look at each new woe and think
"Now could I write a verse on that?"

The Clancy Kids

Evidently

By PERCY L. CROSBY

© by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate

UNDRESSED KIDS

Niece—And, auntie dear, I saw the loveliest pair of undressed kids in a department store window! I fell in love with them!

Old-Fashioned Aunt—Mercy, has it come to that—naked babies in a store window? These new styles ain't nothin' short o' criminal, I say!

RADIO RALF AND HIS FRIENDS—

By JACK WILSON
Copyright 1932 by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate

EVEN AT PRESENT PRICES.

All my wife thinks of is eating.

Don't discourage her, old chap. Grub costs cheaper than clothes.

STUNG.

After you refused Jack, did he propose again?

Yes, but it was to another girl.

HOPPING MAD

Mr. Bee—I'm afraid that last remark of yours insulted the Grasshopper.

Mr. Hornet—Yes; he went off hopping mad.