Mrs. Elmer Goshen of Mt. Union is in St. Augustine, where Mr. McNulty McCann. Through his appointment he has been able to gain experience in the duties that fall upon a county commissioner, one of the most imports

Mr. Cavanaugh was selected to stor. ceed the late Harry R. Heffley, and to the office through his business expertence, but because he had been the choice of the Densicrats of the county four years ago at the nomination. Avthat time he was given the most votes in a large field, but was defeated in the general election.

Immediately after his appointment. the new commissioner began taking care of the interest of the volers and taxpayers. He had contended before he came to the effice that westers in the county, taxed on an assessment of $100 for their occupation as housewives and housekeepera, were being overtaxed and he immediately secured a reduction of 10 per cent. Mr. Chrumnugh has alwars been very ratic in his principles and be Heves that every class of people has equal rights. He himself han alwern worked for his living and an present commissioner, and if re-clutted, he will always take care of the best fastereats of the taxpayers. That no edil do this is indicated in his first move to have taxes reduced.

And the workingman of the sourty have every confidence in the sew corpmissioner. In addition to being first choice of the Democrats in the recent primaries, he was the high man en the Farmer-Labor and Sectalist tickets. He has always been strongly and ported by these parties, and it is here cause they have always known him to he a true friend of the worsenman. Being the popular choice of all these parties, it is a practical pertointy that Mr. Cavanaugh will be returned to the office of commissioner at the general etection November II. He ficulty bolieves in economy and honesty in allfice, and in projecting the working man from high and unnecessary taxes. If you believe your interests would be best protected by such a man, it beyour duty to yote for W. J. Cavanonets on the Democrat, Farm-Labor or Hopialist ticket November 6 next,
