

WHAT'S THE USE

By L. F. Van Zelm
© Western Newspaper Union

The Lucky Fish

PEOPLE OF OUR TOWN

MICKIE, THE PRINTER'S DEVIL

By Charles Soghoian
© Western Newspaper Union

Ask Any Automobilist

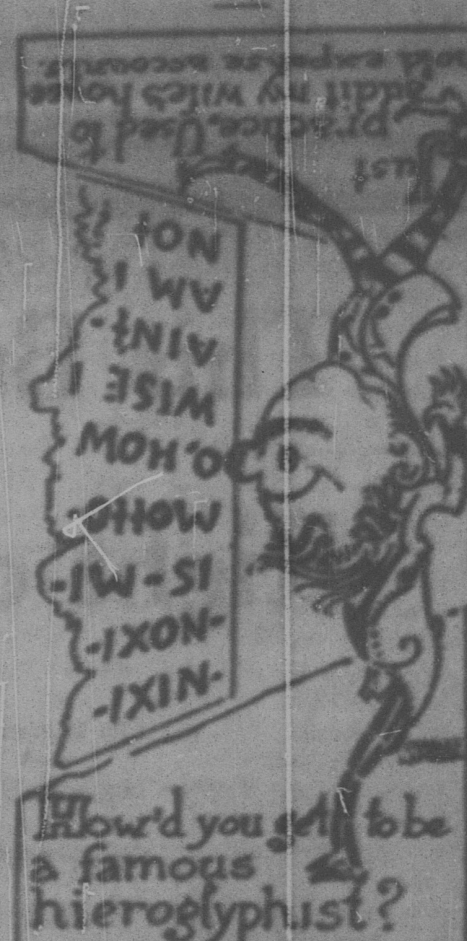

Relatives are an affliction which visits you when they visit something. They are as welcome as the Crisp. The only way to escape 'em is to not have anything. All relatives should live 1,000 miles away. We're writing a song. "He was More like a Friend than a Relative to Me!"

HAMBONE'S MEDITATIONS

DE OLE OMAN DONE TOL DE BOSS AN COMED HOME DRUNK TIR NIGHT BUT AN GOT MY SENSE 'N DAT - HITS DANGEROUS NOUGH T' LIVE WID HER SOBER, LET LONE DRUNK!

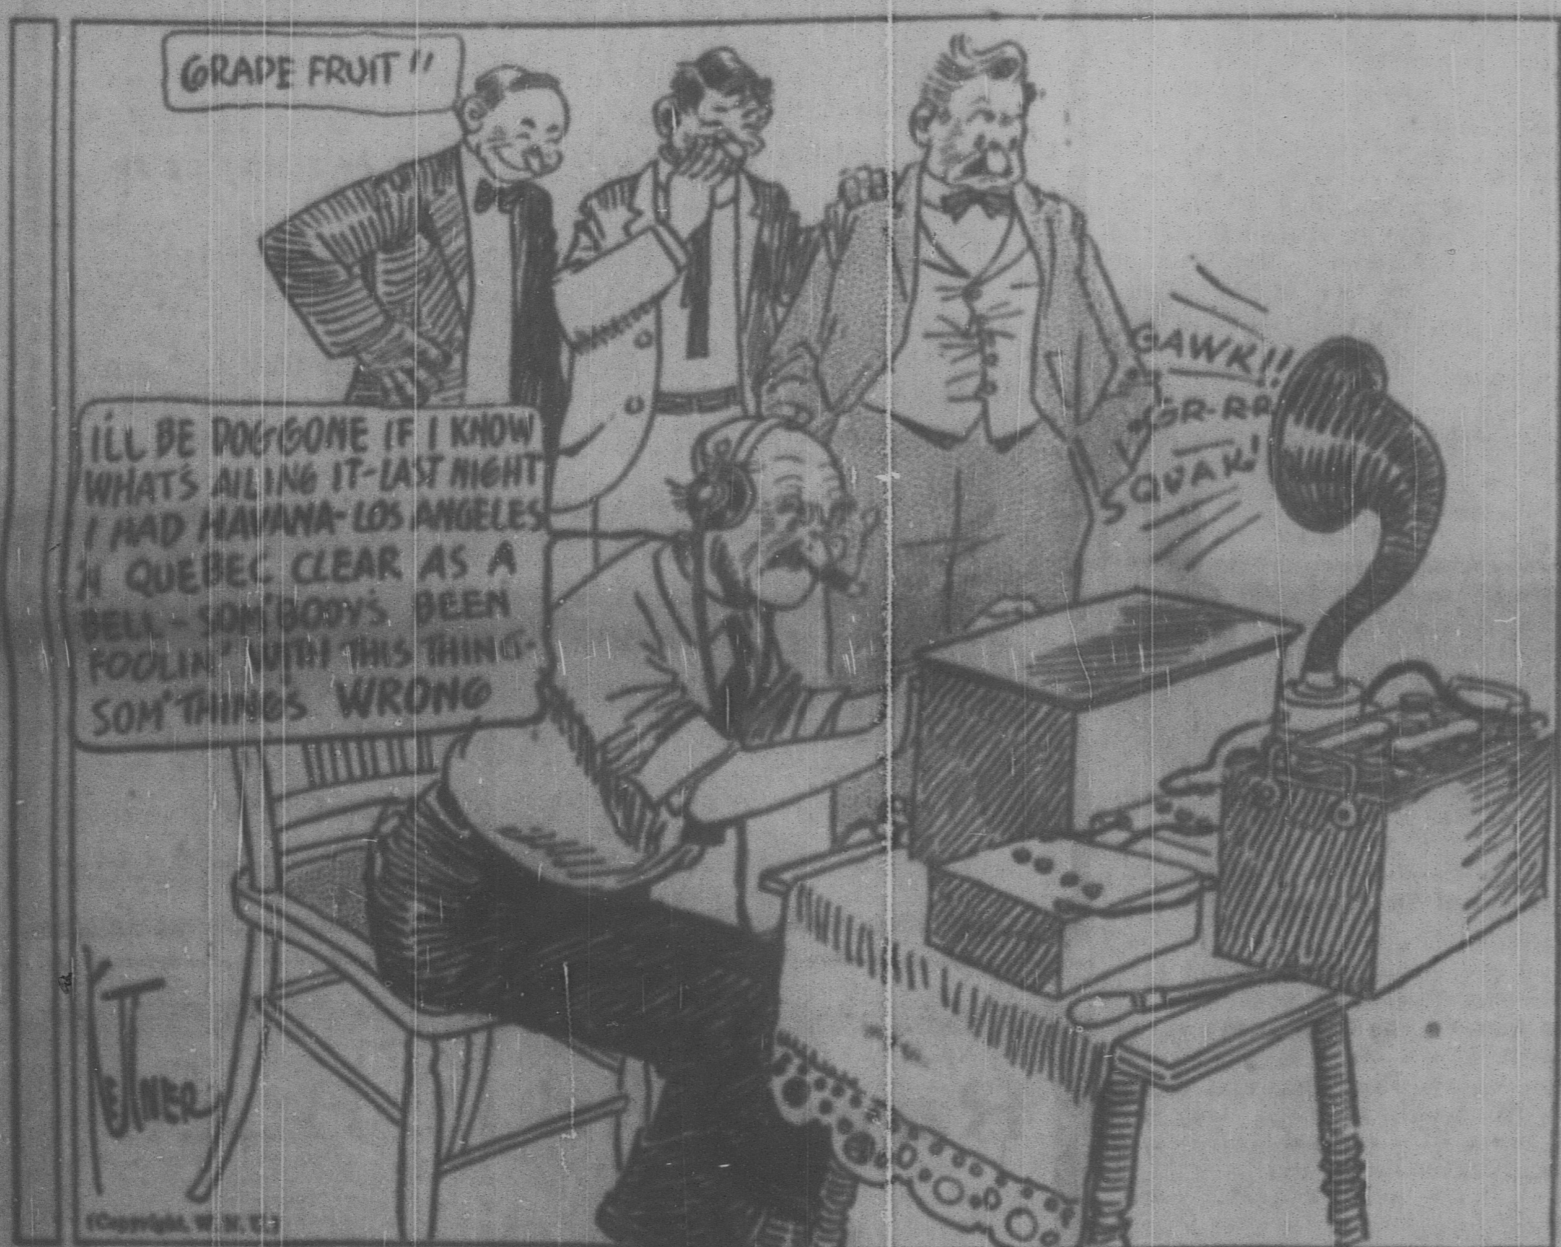

TURN ME OVER

Ether Waves

Our Pet Peeve

HOME WANTED FOR A BABY

The Clancy Kids
A Reduction in Hats
By PERCY L. CROSBY
© The McClure Newspaper Syndicate

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

With calmly folded hands I sit, My mind though doesn't pause a bit, My thoughts I carefully respect - It's fine to have an intellect.

MORE APPROPRIATE MEETINGS

Hiho! - That Mr. Ricketts will do, and if he wasn't such an old crump, I think I'd fish for him myself. Maad - Fish for him? You mean you'd go bear hunting.

THOSE FOOLISH QUESTIONS

Can you swim, 1072 boy? You sir, 'Where did you learn? In the water, where I put my pipe.