

Patton Personals

Send Us Every Item of News You Know and Help Swell This Department. Every Article Helps

(Additional Local on Last Page)

Mrs. G. W. Corby entertained a number of friends at a chicken dinner on Wednesday of last week. Those attending were the Rev. W. A. Graham, Mr. Corby, Harold Crossmiller, Chas. Baker, Robert, Quentin and Paul Rowland and Ralph Corby. The dinner was served in honor of the birthday anniversary of Ralph Corby.

PK-gp-12-... Ullman-Catman and Miss Henry Leiden, of St. Lawrence, was a business caller in Patton on Monday morning of this week and while in town took occasion to pay the Courier office a pleasant call, and incidentally boost his subscription along for another year.

Don G. Winkler, for the past several years foreman of this office, has severed his connection with us and has accepted a position with the Kurts composing rooms at Clearfield, in the town where he has been associated in their labors for the past several years, and we with his best of Patton friends, are sorry to see him leave. However, we wish him well in his new position, and in fact know he will "mount the ladder of achievement in his chosen occupation."

Miss Adelaide McAuliff, of Carrolltown, was a Patton caller on Saturday.

Stephen Campbell, of Carrolltown, was the guest of his daughter, Miss Frank Short, on Tuesday afternoon.

Work on the addition to the brick garage at the foot of Melba avenue, is fast nearing completion.

Harry Good is making the driveway to his home, on Melba avenue, attractive by the placing of a sodded lawn.

Needed repairs have been made to the bridge over Little Chest Creek on Fifth avenue.

Gotched George, of near town, was the winner in the Grange Contest at the Carrolltown Fair last week. The local grange is to be congratulated on the very attractive display they prepared.

Thirty-two years ago last Thursday Harry Good came to Patton, from Allegheny township. Last Thursday, as well, was his birthday. We did not wish Mr. Good his present age, but he told us Patton didn't amount to much more than wilderness, when he first came here. He also stated that thirty-two years ago last Thursday eleven men were killed in a wreck at Bradley Junction, and that he has very good reason to remember this, too, inasmuch as he was on the train, and escaped serious injury or death only by jumping from the train.

A goodly number of people attended the chicken supper held in the local Municipal hall on Tuesday evening of this week under the auspices of the Ladies Aid of St. George's church.

Prof. Edwin Overberger, principal of the Crosson Schools, was a Sunday visitor among relatives and friends in town.

Read the ads. They mean just as much to you and more, than do the news columns.

Michael Markovitch, of Winochee, spent the week with Patton relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Blair Thomas, of Detroit, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, of Russell avenue.

Among recent local visitors from Houtzdale were Mrs. John Tukach, Mr. and Mrs. Mura and son, Charles, Mr. and Mrs. Julek and Joseph Fe-trucky.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Yabner, of Brewer avenue, were recent visitors in Clymer.

Mrs. E. G. Tarr and Miss Hazel Morrow were Altoona visitors last Thursday.

Mrs. Jennie Sanker is visiting in New Jersey.

Mrs. Frank Morrow has returned from Mahaffey, where she visited her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Buckingham.

Miss Ethel Eyster has returned to the Crosson academy where she will complete her studies.

Miss Elizabeth Baker has returned home after an extended visit in Ohio.

Mrs. James Meyer has returned to her home here after a brief visit to Johnstown.

D. K. Rishel has lately improved his home on North Fifth avenue. A new fire proof roof and some additions to the roof are noticeable.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sheehan, of Brewer avenue, spent Friday evening with Clymer relatives and friends.

Miss Ruth Whitehead, of West Magee avenue, will spend the next two weeks with Ashtabula friends and relatives.

Miss Whitehead is employed in the First National Bank.

Richard Seaton, of Hazleton, was a Thursday evening Patton social caller.

Albert Shuss, of this place, was a Hastings business caller on Friday.

James Wharton, of Chest Springs, called on Patton friends on Thursday.

William Platt, of East Magee avenue, transacted business in Hastings on Friday evening.

V. S. Diggins, of Altoona, visited in Patton recently.

Miss Elizabeth Little, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Little, of West Magee avenue, has returned home after spending the past few days in Pottsville.

Oscar Watta, of Hastings, was a Wednesday evening social caller in Patton.

Miss Dorthea Koeniger, of Mt. Hill has returned to Patton to resume her studies as teacher in the fifth grade of the local public school.

Miss Koeniger makes her home with Mrs. Sara Whitehead, of West Magee avenue.

A party, your visitor, or fact or news that you know is appreciated at the Courier office. Write us an account when these events occur for your friends are interested.

Clark B. Heist, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. B. Heist, left this week for Pottsville where he will begin his fourth year studies at the Carnegie School of Technology.

Miss Agnes Storkdale, of Columbus Ohio, is a guest at the home of her teacher-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Dickson.

Mrs. Cecelia Lehman, of Fulton avenue, is visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lehman at Clearfield, this week.

Miss Mary Hornauer left last week for Dixville, New Hampshire, where she will be the guest of relatives for the next few weeks.

Of the many places of interest to tourists and visitors in this locality is President Coolidge's home. It is listed in the directory of Miss Hornauer as being of an especial interest.

Miss Laura A. Querry, teacher of the Montessori school, has returned from Chautauque, N. Y., where she attended the summer sessions at the greatest of all Chautauques. She will reopen her school in the Good building in the near future.

Chair J. Ulrich has enrolled as a student at St. Francis College, Loretto, for the term of 1924-1925.

Messrs. John Mitchell and Clair Anderson members of the 1924 graduating class, of Patton High School, will leave next week for Penn State College where they are enrolled in the engineering department.

C. C. Holter, of Cherrytree, spent a few days last week visiting his daughter, Mrs. Minnie Rumberger of Palmer avenue.

W. J. Stewart, of Roystown, is visiting friends and business acquaintances around town this week.

Mr. Stewart was the former proprietor of the Bunker & Stewart hardware store of this town. This firm is now being conducted by the Bunker Bros, who have purchased Mr. Stewart's interest.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Cowie, daughter, Kathryn, Mrs. Leonora Franke, and Miss Margaret Franke were visitors on Sunday at Pottsville.

Mrs. Franke will remain in that city where she will visit with the daughter, Mrs. Eva Coulter.

Messrs. Jesse Peace, Paul Miller, Theodore Stewart and Arthur Johnson, were among the out of town callers in Patton on Sunday. All of the young men reside in Hastings.

(Additional Local on Last Page)

An AGE OLD MESSAGE to Brides and Grooms

"He who gives a diamond gives a fragment of Eternity"

TO WHICH THERE IS BUT ONE THOUGHT TO ADD—THE DIAMOND WHICH PLACES YOUR TRUTH MUST IN ALL FITNESS BE A FLAWLESS STONE OF PUREST COLOR, SET IN A MOUNTING WHOSE ARTISTRY BECOMES THE BEAUTY OF THE GEM.

RISHEL'S IS THE HOUSE OF Perfect DIAMONDS

FOR EITHER YOUR ENGAGEMENT OR YOUR WEDDING RING, WE OFFER FOR YOUR SELECTION ONLY THE FINEST STONES. YOU MAY HAVE THE MOUNTING DESIGNED AND MADE AFTER YOUR OWN FASHIONS, OR MAKE A SELECTION FROM OUR LARGE ASSORTMENT OF THE VERY LATEST DESIGNS IN WHITE GOLD AND PLATINUM, AND WE WILL SET THE DIAMONDS FOR YOU IN OUR OWN SHOP BY AN ARTIST AND WELL EXPERIENCED MAN OF HOROLOGICAL TRAINING.

Gifts for the Bridal Party

"Buy with Prudence and Economy"

Something of Beauty and Permanence

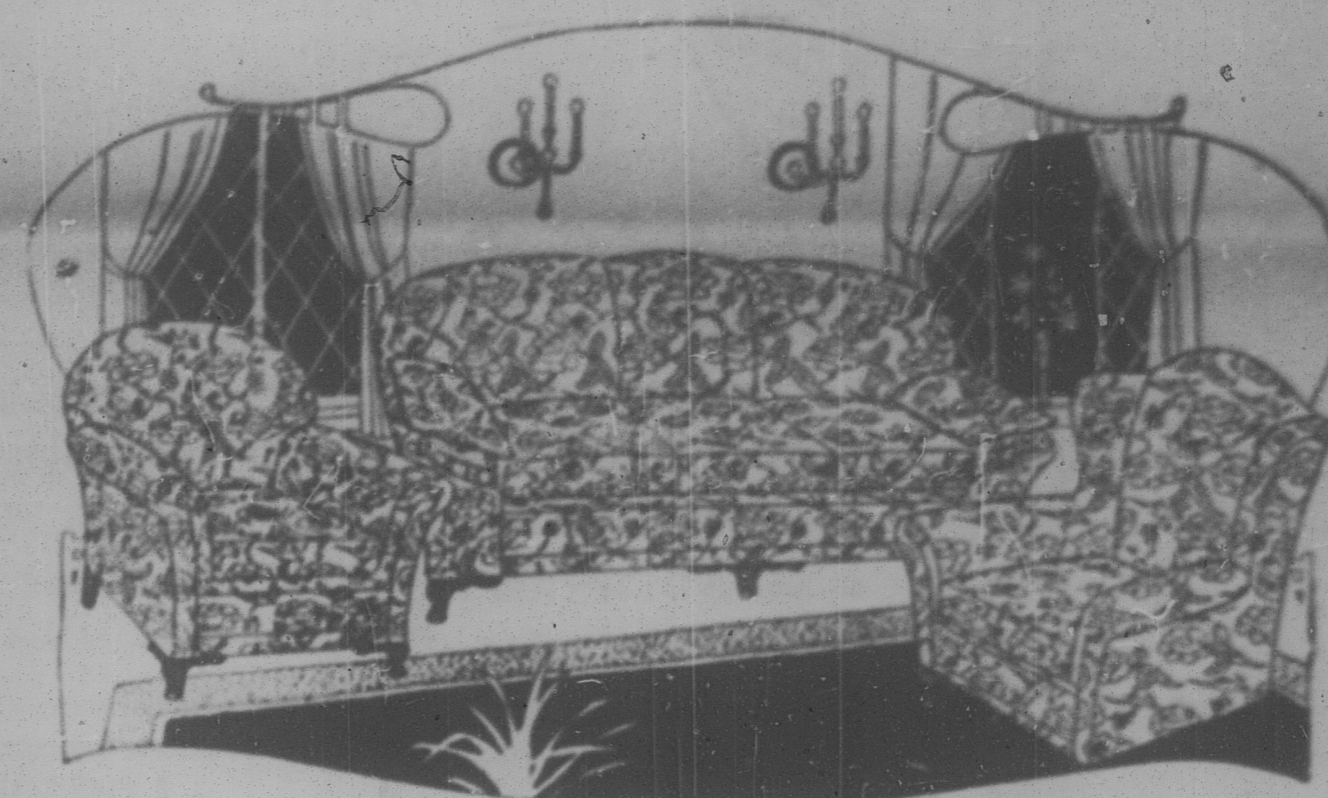

THIS MEANS BUY SOMETHING IN GOLD OR SILVER

IN OUR STOCK YOU WILL FIND TODAY'S NEWEST IDEAS IN THE REALLY FASHIONABLE ITEMS SUITABLE FOR WEDDING GIFTS. THE COMPLETENESS OF OUR STOCK IS WELL WORTHY OF YOUR MOST CRITICAL COMPARISON, AS TO ITS HIGH QUALITY AND FAIR AND REASONABLE PRICES.

Rishel Jewelry Co., Inc.

Dr. D. K. Rishel, Optometrist

PATTON - - - PENNA.

"Ours is a Nation of Homes"

"The realization of our highest hopes lies in the continuous construction and improved character of our homes, because they have the first influence in the standard of American living."

"We want an America of homes illumined with hope and happiness."—President Harding.

The home illumined with hope and happiness referred to by Harding is a creation of beauty and charm. It is not necessary to spend a great deal of money to have a home that charms.

For the past twenty-nine years, Bucks' have helped the good people of Patton and vicinity add beauty and charm to their homes without extravagant outlay. That is one reason why so many people of moderate means favor us with their patronage. A visit to our store and a comparison of our values are welcome at all times.

The three-piece suite shown above, will add beauty and charm to your home. This three-piece suite may be had in a good grade taupe velour—well made in ever particular—at $165.00. You will find this a real bargain.

BUCK'S,

THE STORE OF BETTER HOMES

So. Fifth Ave. Patton, Pa.