Saw Nothi" Else
These days of short" [illegible] silk hose and up-to-the-minute styles make life miserable for many of the sterner sex. A sophomore at the university was reprimanding a frosh for not speaking when they passed. "Didn't see you," the freshman explained. "Why, I walked within a foot of you," the upper classman protested. "Gosh! You musta been the guy with the girl who had on those open-work stockings," replied the accused youth.—Columbus Dispatch.

INDIGESTION
Caused by Acid-Stomach
Millions of people—in fact about 9 out of 10—suffer more or less from indigestion, acute or chronic. Nearly every case is caused by Acid-Stomach.
There are other stomach disorders which also are sure signs of Acid-Stomach—belching, heartburn, bloat after eating, food repeating, sour, gassy stomach. There are many ailments which, while they do not cause such distress in the stomach itself are nevertheless traceable to an acid stomach. Among these are nervousness, biliousness, dizziness of the head, rheumatism, impoverished blood, weakness, insomnia, melancholia and a long train of physical and mental miseries that keep the victims in miserable health year after year.
The right thing to do is to attack these ailments at their source—get rid of the acid-stomach. A wonderful modern remedy called EATONIC now makes it easy to do this.
One of hundreds of thousands of grateful users of EATONIC writes: "I have been troubled with intestinal indigestion for about nine years and have spent quite a sum for medicine, but without relief. After using EATONIC for a few days the gas and pains in my bowels disappeared. EATONIC is just the remedy I needed."
We have thousands of letters telling of these marvelous benefits. Try EATONIC and you, too, will be just as enthusiastic in its praise.

Something to Think About

By F. A. WALKER

LACKING VISION

HE WHO treads in a beaten round, clings to ideas that have been worn threadbare, chooses to follow the lead of others, without investigation of their methods, is not destined by nature to paint a masterpiece, carve a living marble or rise beyond mediocrity in any one of the ordinary fields of human endeavor.

He lacks the fire, the spirit, the divine force that bespeaks mastery and magnificent achievement over space and material.

He is blind to the glorious heights forever calling to the original man or woman who possesses what the world calls vision.

James J. Hill visioned the slumbering wealth of the great Northwest and built a railroad that brought thousands of homes and millions of dollars to farmers, tradesmen and mechanics who sensed his keen perception, but knew not its meaning.

Vision is difficult to demonstrate in words, yet one word defines it—faith!

We can feel it in the personality of the man or woman who has it. We can sense its dynamic thrill in his or her voice. We are stirred to the heartcore by its magnetism and swept along by its invisible force as a flower is whirled downstream to remind the weeds in the regions that beauty, loveliness and grandeur are to be found in enduring abundance up among the hills and productive highlands.

The lifelong and heroic labors of the men and the women of vision are only efforts that count in the world's work, the only labor that endures and gives inspiration to the rising generation; the only labor that keeps the world safely on its upward course.

Our great museums of art and science would be bare were it not for the men and women of vision, who put forth their hands in God's name, march out into the unknown and dare and do, while the incompetent follow the beaten track with never a new thought nor even a new word!

We have but touched the crust of wonderful things that lie all about us in the air, in the sea, in the earth waiting for the men and women with vision to lay them bare and utilize them for the common benefit of mankind.

The great achievements of this age are destined to fade and wither before the grander things yet to come, seen even now by souls given vision by the Omnipotent. Give your vision full rein and drive on in faith.

Undreamed things await you. They shall be your heritage.

MEN YOU MAY MARRY

Symptoms: Not attractive to women—but he wants to be. He writes to you how he's had a bath in a November sea and feels like Goliath; then he has climbed two mountain peaks and feels like Sandow. When he's with you he runs up hill, surging to develop his chest!

IN FACT

Takes little to make him feel chesty with women.

SOMETHING GOOD

THE following stew may be prepared of tame ducks when the wild are out of season.

Stew of Wild Ducks.

Cut up a pair or more of wild ducks as for fricassee and let boil ten minutes in barely water to cover, with one onion and one carrot cut into slices. Remove the duck meat, drain, dredge with flour mixed with salt and pepper and cook in a little hot fat until brown. Meanwhile add to the water in which the duck was parboiled, a minced shallot, and a bunch of sweet herbs; then put in the brown pieces of duck, cover closely and cook for two hours or until tender. Remove the duck, thicken the liquid with browned flour, one cupful of cream and one well-beaten egg. Stir until the egg is set, pour over the duck meat, garnish with curled celery and slices of lemon.

Sweet Pepper Souffles.

Cut the membranes and remove them and the seeds from four sweet peppers, then parboil. Put through a meat chopper, mix with two tablespoonfuls of fine crumbs, three tablespoonfuls of flour, blended with an equal quantity of cream, stirred into the slightly beaten yolks of two eggs. Season with one-half teaspoonful of salt, a little pepper and a pinch of poultry seasoning. The whole should be as thick as a stiff batter. Add two well-beaten egg whites. Place at once in greased individual molds, or in paper cases, filling them two-thirds full. Bake in a hot oven until well puffed.

For a pretty dessert fill individual pastry shells with whipped cream which has been mixed with a few teaspoonfuls of preserved strawberries. The fresh ones, of course, are preferable when they can be obtained.

Connecticut Chow-Chow.

Take seven pounds of green tomatoes, six pounds of apples. Put the tomatoes through the meat chopper, add one cupful of salt and let them stand over night. Drain and add a quart of vinegar or enough to cover, one-fourth pound of mixed spices, cloves, allspice and cinnamon tied in two small bags and boil twenty minutes, then add the apples also chopped without peeling; cook until tender and put into a stone crock.

Quick Dessert.

Prepare rounds of buttered toast or plain cake, place on a pretty serving dish, spread with any sort of jelly or jam at hand, and put a teaspoonful of whipped cream on each. Beaten egg white may be used instead of the cream; in this case place in a glass baking dish and brown in the oven.

Rice Parfait.

Cook one-half cupful of rice in boiling salted water until the grains are soft; drain and cool. Just before serving mix lightly with a cupful of well-sweetened cream and one-half cupful of diced, very cold pineapple, thoroughly drained. Pile lightly in a glass dish.

Banana Fluff.

Rub two or three ripe bananas through a ricer and mix with a cupful of stiffly beaten cream, sweeten slightly; pile in sherbet cups and sprinkle with a little grated chocolate or cocoa.

QUESTIONS

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

DADDY always says that I'm
Such a magpie when I climb
On his knee at supper time.

That is what I always do
Just as soon as supper's through—
Maybe sometimes sooner, too.

Ev'ry night there's always so
Many things I want to know;
How they do things in a show,

How to fix Belinda's arm,
Why he doesn't buy a farm,
Can the witches really charm?

Where the stars are all the day,
Why do horses run away?
Is "Gosh darn it" bad to say?

When we going to get a car?
Is Chicago very far?—
My, so many things there are!

"Goodness gracious, mercy me!"
Says my mamma, "Can't you see,
Papa's tired as he can be?"

Daddy says, "Oh, she's all right;
I'm not very tired tonight;
But she surely is a fright."

Then he rubs his fuzzy chin
On my cheek and makes me grin,
Then to tickle I begin.

Oh, I have just loads of fun
With my dad when supper's done—
Mamma, too, and ev'ryone.

But, tucked in from toe to head
And my "Now—I—lay—me" said,
I remember, up in bed,

That he never answered those
Things I asked him that he knows;
He forgot to, I suppose.

SCHOOL DAYS

STATE PURCHASES BIG GAME TRACT

Will Establish Reserve in Elk and Clearfield Counties---Open to All Hunters

GROUNDS WELL SITUATED

Interesting News Items, Briefly Condensed, Picked Up at the Departments Which Are Of Interest To the People Of the State.

Harrisburg, Pa.—Purchase of a tract of 8,000 acres in Elk and Clearfield counties has been announced by the State Game Commission. The consideration involved was $26,400. Within the range will be established a game refuge of approximately 2,500 acres in the spring and the remainder of the tract will be open to public shooting. The new reserve is situated on the headwaters of Mosquito Creek, Mix Run and Medix Run in Elk county.

The Game Commission in announcing this purchase says that efforts have been made for years to secure a range in that vicinity. This area is well situated within a large hunting territory much of which is owned by the State under control of the Department of Forests and Waters.

Money for the purchase of the refuge was obtained from the hunting license fund and will be used for exclusive hunting territory. Under the plans of the Game Commission additional protection will be given to wild life in the 2,500 acres set aside. Food supplies will be furnished to the animals in the range which is expected to result in large increases in game and also result in game migrating from the range.

According to reports of the commission Tom Mix, noted cow-boy cinema star, spent considerable time in that section when he was a youth. He is a native of DuBois and when a boy, while his father cared for the horses in a nearby lumber camp the youth accompanied him to the wood and is familiar with the district. It is also reported that Mix Run derived its name from the father of the movie star.

Trouble is Under Nourishment

Dr. Edgar T. Shields, ch. of the State's tuberculosis clinics, in a statement issued on experience with children in such work as he directs declared one of the greatest troubles was under nourishment. He gave suggestions for proper care.

Women to be Exempt

Should either of the bills sponsored by Senators Max G. Leslie of Pittsburgh, or Senator Frederick W. Culbertson of Mifflin, become a law men only would be compelled to pay the occupation or head tax. The bills, which are identical and appeared in the senate this week, repeal the school occupation tax insofar as it applies to women.

Delinquent Coal Tax Paid

Auditor General Lewis announced he had paid into the State Treasury checks totaling $869,637.12, representing the anthracite coal tax for 1921 and 1923, paid by the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company. He said anthracite coal tax still delinquent was estimated at $4,000,000, pointing out this was held up pending litigation as to the constitutionality of the taxing act.

Liable to Arrest

The Highways Department has issued warning that motor drivers destroying 1924 cards are liable to arrest as the cards are good until March 1, the 1925 cards not being effective until that time. Persons destroying 1924 cards on receipt of new ones are advised to apply for duplicates to avoid trouble.

New School Buildings

The Department of Public Instruction estimates that Pennsylvania school districts will spend about $25,000,000 for new school buildings and grounds this year. Plans for new buildings must be filed with the department, to accordance with the school code requirements. Bond issues for new schools were approved in many districts last November.

Oysters by Count

The state bureau of foods wants you to get oysters when you buy oysters. The bureau feels that you get all the water you want at home, and has had a bill presented in the Legislature requiring oysters to be sold by count. The bill has been referred to the committee on health and sanitation.

Establishes Health Record.

According to State Health Department figures, Ringtown, a Schuylkill county borough, had a death rate of one to a hundred in 1924, there being eight deaths, the average age of those dying being eighty years, three months and twelve days; all were natives of Pennsylvania, and four died from heart disease, the oldest ninety-five and the youngest only fifty-eight. All of the seventeen babies born in the town last year lived. This, it is thought, establishes a record.

The Why of Superstitions

By H. IRVING KING

LOVE AND SHOES

PLACE the heel of one shoe upon the instep of the other for three consecutive nights before going to bed and you will dream of your future husband. That is a common superstition among New England girls. Possibly the superstition obtains also in other parts of the country. It is based upon the old idea of the subjection of the wife to the husband of which a superimposed shoe is symbolical. "Over Edom will I cast my shoe," sang David when he threatened the subjection of the land of the Edomites.

In a pamphlet of the first part of the Seventeenth century it is mentioned as being an ancient custom that "When at any time a couple were married the sole of the bridegroom's shoe was to be laid upon the bride's head implying with what subjection she should serve her husband."

The symbolism is obvious, and in the ancient days when the position of the married woman was one of entire subjection to her husband, one shoe placed upon the top of another would suggest the idea of marriage. Now to primitive man what was associated in thought was associated in fact. Therefore, one shoe placed upon another had an actual connection with marriage by a phase of sympathetic magic. So when the New England girl arranges her shoes with the heels of one upon the instep of the other, the upper shoe represents her future husband's and the lower one her own. The power of sympathetic magic is set working and her future spouse appears to her in a dream.
