Handshaking is foolish and arenaic, anyhow, as foolish as Indians rubbing noses. Primitive man ... stretched out his right hand to show there was no knife in it, and to reassure the stranger. That's hardly necessary now.

"The shingle he wische," or "bobbed hair neuralgia," has arrived, and was inevitable. Silly women, not content to cut their hair short, actually allow the barber to shave the back of the neck, uncovering that part of the body most sensive to cold, the little hollow at the base of the skull. Cut your hair that way, then motor with your back to the driver, and you have found the short cut to acute neuralgia and
