ANNUAL BANQUET OF MUSIC CLUB IS VERY ENJOYABLE

Elaborate Program Rendered by Members and Guests in Municipal Hall.

PROGRAM AT RHODY HOME

The first annual banquet of the Patton Music Club was held in the Municipal building on Tuesday evening June 2nd.

Special guests of the club were Mr. and Mrs. Alan Davis, of Johnstown. The Summit Country Club Orchestra, of Cresson, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Jeffery, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rhody, and Dr. P. J. Kelly, of Patton.

After the blessing, asked by the Rev. Father Adrian, pastor of St. George's church, a very fine dinner was served to ninety-three guests by the ladies of the firemen.

Mrs. Hallie, the toastmistress of the evening, gave a short introductory talk on music and the work of the Patton Music Club. After this she very charmingly introduced the speakers of the evening.

First she introduced the president of the club, Miss Helen Brown. Miss Brown welcomed the guests in a few well-chosen words of greeting.

The first address of the evening was given by one of Patton's own speakers, Dr. P. J. Kelly. Kelly spoke with all his usual fluency on the origin of music. The Rev. Alfred Jeffery, minister of the Baptist church, also gave a very splendid address. In his address he pointed out that much of our music is largely the evolution of man's mimicry of nature. Mr. C. L. Watkins, of Cresson, then spoke a few words relative to what type of music appealed to him—that of an ensemble nature.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder, teacher and critic of Johnstown and Pittsburg, then gave a specially instructive address on rhythm and how it influences the daily lives of all people—even the lives of those who realize it least.

Music was not neglected at this Music Club banquet. The welcoming song of the club, composed by Mrs. Charles Snyder, and Miss Yvonne Yerger, was sung at the beginning of the banquet. Songs, very well directed by Miss Margaret Ferguson, between the courses of the dinner. The guests all rose to sing the "Star Spangled Banner" at the conclusion.

A vote of thanks was given by the club and guests to Messes V. A. Murray, Cecil Mitchell and P. A. Youngquist, who managed the banquet. Also to Mr. Andrew Rhody, who donated the Music Room to the club for the evening.

The guests then repaired to Mr. Rhody's Music Room for the concert which followed.

Here, the Cresson Summit Orchestra, played very beautifully a number of very well chosen selections. The club was very fortunate in securing the services, gratuitously given, of such a splendid orchestra.

Mr. Ian Davis, a pianist of high order, also helped to make the concert a success. He played a number of piano selections very wonderfully.

Mr. Davis, who holds a very high reputation among the artists in the musical world, gave himself up generously to the demands of the audience. He was encored again and again and responded unfailingly each time. Patton was indeed fortunate to have an artist of such rank to help her celebrate her first music club banquet and concert. Mr. and Mrs. Davis' services were likewise gratuitous.

The music club is responsible for getting Mr. Davis' consent to give a short course in vocal lessons to those interested during the summer. Mr. Davis will come to Patton to give this instruction in this course one of eight or nine lessons. Those interested should speak to Mrs. Ralph Good, or to the president, Miss Helen Brown.

So ended the first banquet of the Patton Music Club, a club extraordinary in its growth, its ideals, its service, its past and future, to the community.

The club members parted, not to meet again in club meeting until September.

PLANTS.

Our plant business is doubled this year. We still have plenty of all kinds. Most of our plants are now at the farm, but still lots at the new green house which is on the brick road 3 miles from Schwab's place on the road to Carrollton. Our general store, meat bottling rooms, main office, etc., at same place. We are doing a rushing business right now.

We have decided to offer a little more of our capital stock to customers as we wish to make more improvements in order to be able to increase our output still more. Call and look over our place of business and books, or drop a card for catalogue. Prices right. Satisfaction guaranteed. In business in same locality for 23 years. Investigate us. F. J. MISS TWILA WILLIAMS IS CALLED BY DEATH

Well Known Patton Young Lady Expires at the Miners' Hospital Spangler, Saturday.

Miss Twila L. Williams, the 16-year-old daughter of H. L. and Catherine Williams, of this place, died at 1:30 o'clock on Saturday morning at the Miners' hospital in Spangler, having been admitted to that institution at seven o'clock on Friday evening. Her death was due to a complication of diseases.

The deceased was born in Patton and spent all her life here. She is survived by her parents, and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Lloyd Breth, of Clearfield; Miss Elaine Williams, at home, and Walter, Boyd, Charles, Donald, Benjamin, Robert and J. Calvin Killians, all at home. Miss Williams had been ill for some time. She died Saturday morning at her death.

Twila Williams was a junior in the Department of Machinery Production of the College of Industries.

JOSEPH CHRISTOFF IS MANAGING EDITOR

Joseph Christoff, of this place, a student at the Carnegie Institute of Technology, has been elected managing editor of the Carnegie Tartan for the 1925-1926 College year, according to an announcement made today. The Tartan, which is published weekly by the students of the institute, is the only publication at the Carnegie campus which is devoted entirely to work of student affairs.

Christoff is a junior in the Department of Machinery Production of the College of Industries.

The new band leader, Mr. D. H. Heron, has been permanently engaged by the local musicians. Practices are being held regularly and enthusiasm among the members is marked.

Handsome new uniforms have been ordered by the band boys, and will be here in a short time.

GIVEN FINE TESTIMONIAL

With the ending of the present term of the Patton Schools, Miss Leontine E. Prindible, of this place, the principal in the Patton High School, received the testimonial of forty-seven consecutive years of teaching in the Patton public schools. Miss Prindible will retire from the teaching staff at the expiration of this term.

JEWISH WOMEN MEET IN PATTON

Barnesboro Chapter, Council of Jewish Women, met at the home of Mrs. Barney Blankfeld last Monday evening. Mrs. Mrs. A. Aaronsen of Barnesboro, president, presided. A brief meeting was held at the early part of the evening followed by a social time later. Rev. S. M. Benson, of New York City, addressed the ladies gathered here. The following ladies from Barnesboro were present: Mrs. Henry Friedman, Mrs. Julius Baron, Mrs. Max Lipman, Mrs. A. Marcus, Mrs. M. Aron, Mrs. Cone, Mrs. Henry Newman, Mrs. D. Karp, Mrs. Henry, Mrs. Lamb and Mrs. Charles, Mrs. Bob Cohen of Hastings, Mrs. Neumann of Johnstown, Mrs. Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Rose Kusser, Mrs. E. Blankfeld and Mrs. A. Aaronsen.

As a testimonial to her many years of excellent service, Miss Prindible at the commencement exercises in the Grand theatre last evening was presented with a handsome autograph album, containing a citation of her untiring service, photographs of the new and senior high school buildings, the autographs of the School Board, of the High School faculty, of the grade teachers, and finally the album will contain the autographs of approximately two hundred patrons of the schools.

FLOWERS WERE PLACED ON GRAVES

The ladies of the children of Barnesboro, No. 154, during their annual convention, placed flowers on the graves of deceased members of the order on Memorial day. Rumors to the contrary are false and without foundation.

FLOWER COMMITTEE

The flower committee was formed by the band boys, and will be here in a short time.

DR. COOPER SPEAKS AT MONTESSORI MEETING

On Monday evening the Montessori Parents' Club met at the home of Mrs. Ralph E. Good. The speaker of the evening was Dr. Edward Cooper, who read a very able paper on Domestic hygiene, followed by talks, discussions and questions which the parents found very profitable and interesting.

This is the last meeting of the local club until next October.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Williams and family, came to express their sincere appreciation to all those who attended as guests during the recent bereavement, the illness and death of their beloved daughter and sister, Twila Williams. Their thanks is also extended to all those who donated cars for the funeral.

LOCAL FOLKS ATTEND REUNION AT PUNXSUTAWNEY

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dinsmore and family, John U. Dinsmore and family, and Mrs. Rachael Dinsmore and son, all of this place, yesterday were in attendance at a reunion of the Dinsmore family at Punxsutawney, where they were in attendance at the residence of the Dinsmore family.

Arrangements can be made through Miss Helen Brown. Several local singers have already engaged their lesson period.
