NEIGHBORS
BY ROBERT STEAD
AUTHOR OF "THE COW PUNCHER" AND "THE HOMESTEADERS"

A HAPPY NOVEL of the Northwest, depicting in fascinating style the romance of homesteaders on the Canadian plains. A story for men and women who love the West and take an interest in its real, not its impossible characters. Few writers have an ability equal to Stead's to present the prairie and foothills people just as they are. In this case they seem like neighbors to the reader. The story contains matters of vast interest to all lovers, whether married or single, and to all who have ever loved.

Guilty or not Guilty?

Sooner or later you will answer—You to You. If guilty—the regrets will avail you nothing. If "Not Guilty" the satisfaction of peace and plenty will be worth all the effort and sacrifice you made in younger years to spend a little less than you made—banking the difference—of course.

Why not face the "other" you now? You can see and know now that you and you alone are responsible for your own future. We can assist you in many ways, first with your saving account—by paying you interest.
