

PERSONAL AND LOCAL NEWS NOTES OF PATTON AND THE IMMEDIATE VICINITY

SEND US EVERY ITEM OF NEWS YOU KNOW, AND HELP FILL THIS DEPARTMENT. BRING, SEND, PHONE, OR MAIL US THE NEWS, AND WE'LL PUBLISH IT HERE.

D. W. Wilkie was the guest over Easter with his son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Wilkie in Johnstown. Mr. Wilkie was also a business caller in Barnesboro on Wednesday.

M. H. Gardner, Notary Public, at Toner Jewelry Co. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Maurer returned on Thursday evening of last week from a week's motor trip that included portions of Ohio, West Virginia and Kentucky. Fine weather was encountered all along the itinerary and the Maurers enjoyed themselves.

ICE delivered to your home in Patton when you want it. Call Peter E. Miller, H. & C. Phone, Hastings, PA. HOUSE FOR SALE. Located at 3077 Mellon avenue.

The Rev. P. T. Germain was in Williamsburg on Tuesday assisting at the funeral services of a former parishoner.

At a meeting of the Barnesboro group of the Methodist churches it was decided to put on a Standard Training School at Barnesboro on the week of May 16 to 21. This is the modern method of teacher training and will doubtless enroll a large number.

On April 1st at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage the wedding of Miss Margaret Leary and Mr. Edward Grey took place. The bride was attended by Miss Mabel Leary and Mr. Harvey Leary acted as best man.

The young couple have not as yet decided where they will go to housekeeping but will remain in Patton for the present. Prof. L. S. Bots has been confined to his home since Sunday suffering from a severe attack of grippe.

Mr. Hayden, of Lang avenue, and also his daughter, Mrs. Vaughn and two children, are ill with grippe. One of the children has developed a severe case of pneumonia.

The Sunday school class of the M. E. Church taught by Miss Katherine Moffitt, held a most enjoyable social on the evening of April 6th. Games, etc. filled the evening period, followed by splendid "nuts."

During evening the ladies of Mrs.s Sunday School class of the ... Church will put on their entertainment. They have been working on the program for weeks and have attained a high state of perfection. Pantomimes, drills, solos, instrumental and vocal playlets, etc., will bring joy to the audience. Proceeds are for sending the girls to the Newton Hamilton training camp.

Among the students from out of town schools who spent their Easter vacations at their homes in Patton were the following: The Misses Helen Anstead, Florence Martin, Hazel and Elva Beckwith, Mildred Murray, Jean Whitehead, Grace Hornauer, Ella Mae Lilly, Mildred Lewes, Dorothy Sandford, Margaret Montiech and the Messrs. Clarence Williams, Frank Maycovitch and Clair Anstead.

Mr. and Mrs. William Turnbull and family, of Johnstown, spent last Sunday with Patton friends.

Mrs. Lester Larimer, district deputy of the Rebekahs, has been installing officers in the different lodges. She visited Lady Maxham lodge on Friday and the Lady Dunlo lodge on Tuesday.

Mrs. R. E. Good is suffering from laryngitis at her home on Beech avenue.

Miss Beatrice Lantry, of Hastings, was a Patton visitor on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jacobs, and daughter, Miriam, of Springdale, visited Mr. Jacobs' father, Mr. John Jacobs, of Fourth avenue, over the week end.

The Messrs. Ralph Corby and Chas. Baker were in Barnesboro on Sunday. Mrs. Lester Larimer and daughter Thelma and the Misses Ursula Davis and Myrtle McDonnell were callers in Johnstown on Saturday.

Miss Sue Bolinger, of Ebensburg, was a caller in Patton on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crowell visited friends and relatives in Cresson on Sunday.

Miss Elsa Carlson, of Oberlin College, spent the Easter vacation with Miss Dorothy Sandford, of Palmer avenue.

Mrs. C. M. Cronmiller left on Thursday for State College where she will visit her mother who is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Larimer and daughter, Jean, of Brookdale, spent Sunday at the Larimer home on Magee avenue.

Miss Anna Gattman, of St. Augustines, was a Patton caller on Wednesday.

Mr. Robert Burgoon and Mrs. Rose Derwick and her son, Bert, of Altoona, visited at the Fitzpatrick residence on Monday evening.

Miss Virginia East, of Ebensburg, who for the past week has been a guest of the Mellon residents on Fifth avenue, returned home Wednesday.

Mr. S. L. Winkler and daughter Carolyn, are visiting relatives in Johnstown.

The Misses Thelma Larimer and Myrtle McDonnell were district visitors on Thursday evening.

Mr. Theo Schimmer, of Altoona, was a Patton caller on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Fannie Wagner and Mr. Augustus, Rita Rae and Hamilton, of Cresson, were visitors at the Fitzpatrick residence on Tuesday evening.

Mr. Wendell Larimer, of Ebensburg, was a Patton caller on Tuesday.

Mrs. Gertrude Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Heid, Mrs. Anna Smith, Jr. and Miss Shirley Smith were visitors in Ebensburg on Wednesday.

The Messrs. "Big" Gabrielson and Emma Harner returned to Detroit after a vacation of a week in town.

Mrs. William Lorenz and daughter, Mildred of Magee avenue, spent last Saturday in Johnstown.

Miss Mary Ryan, of Altoona, spent Easter with her sister, Mrs. David Watters, of Mackayville avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Corby and family and Mr. Charles Baker, were callers in Johnstown on Friday.

Mr. James Hunter, of St. Benedicts, was a Patton social caller on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Kinross, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cramer, and the Misses Mathilda Whiteford and Beatrice Cavanaugh, of Palmer avenue, were callers in Johnstown Saturday.

Mrs. Ella Flynn spent Easter with Prof. and Mrs. D. A. Lavette and family of Hastings.

BAIRY CHECKS-CUSTOM RAY-COCHING We are distributors in Pennsylvania for Decker Metal Brandy Houses, Sold on Time payments. His-Vita pure Norwegian Cold Liver Oil, $5 a gallon, Simplex Oil Burning Brooders, Quinsberry Chick Feeds, Mash Feeders, Milk Feeders, Semi-Solid Bulkermilk. Write, phone, call at Hastings. Order checks early. Anderson Checkers, Grampian, Pa.

Kathryn Flynn returned to Johnstown Tuesday afternoon after a short visit at her home here.

Beatrice Flynn, a teacher at Sumnerhall, spent Easter at her home in town.

Miss Louise Young entertained a number of her young friends at bridge at her home on Fifth avenue last evening. A delightful lunch was served. Prizes were awarded to Betty Boyer, Kate Larimer and Helen Westrick. The following were the guests: Ruth Kanner, Dot Somerville, Harriet Williams, Doris Kane, Kate Larimer, Rosemary Italy, Helen Westrick, Ella Mae Lilly, Bety Boyer and Louise Young.

Harry Noel, of Fallen Ember, was a visitor among Patton friends last Tuesday.

J. Fred Blankenhorn, transacted business in Clearfield during the last few days.

W. J. Grant was a Cresson caller on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Nass have moved to Pittsburgh where Mr. Nass has secured employment.

James Lang, of Indiana visited with Patton friends recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sherry, of South Fifth avenue, have as their guests, Paul Sherry, of Detroit, Mich. and their daughter, Miss Esther Sherry, a student nurse in the Mercy hospital training school at Johnstown.

Florence Martin, of Lock Haven State Normal School, recently visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Martin, of Fourth avenue.

Sylvia Bal, of Colver, visited with Patton friends recently.

Catherine Ivory, of Clearfield, is visiting with Patton relatives.

Clarence Albright was a recent Altoona visitor.

Jacob Blev, of Philadelphia is visiting with Patton friends.

Martin Long, a student at St. Vincent's College, Buntley, is the guest of his mother, Mrs. Sara Long, of S. Fifth avenue.

Harold Cronmiller called on Barnesboro friends recently.

Edwin Short, who had been receiving medical treatment at the Clearfield hospital, has returned to his home here, and is rapidly on the road to complete recovery.

Derr G. Winslow, of the Kurtz Bros. Printery at Clearfield, was a week end visitor with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Winslow, of West Magee avenue. Derr is a former employee of the Courier office, and paid us a pleasant call while in town.

Miss Ruth Martin, a teacher in the local high school is confined to her room by an attack of illness.

William Patrick, of Hastings was a recent guest at the Charles Heid home on Palmer avenue.

Edith Mitchell called on Spangler friends recently.

Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Overberger and children, of Barnesboro, visited with Patton relatives on Sunday.

John Mitchell spent the Easter vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Mitchell, of North Fifth avenue. Mr. Mitchell is enrolled as a student at Penn State College.

Helen Brown, of Revloc, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Brown, of Palmer avenue.

C. C. Austin, of Binghamton, N. Y., visited with Patton friends early in the week.

Josephine Litzinger, of Ohio, was an Easter guest of her mother, Mrs. Mary Litzinger, of Fourth avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Good, of Beech avenue, had as their guest, Mr. Louis Good, of Philadelphia.

The Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church will hold a cafeteria supper in the basement of the church on April 15th from 5 to 7 o'clock.

Helen and Anna Galardi, of Jeanette, spent the week end with Patricia and relatives. The Misses Galardi are former residents of Patton.

Ralph Dunegan, of Clymer, was a recent guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dunegan, of this place.

Luther Samuelson, of Bradbrook, visited with his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. W. Samuelson, of this place, over the Easter holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fisher have moved to Johnstown where Mr. Fisher has secured a position.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Anstead of Fourth avenue, recently had as their guest, Mrs. Charlotte Yekley, of Pittsburg.

Frank Maycovitch and the Rev. J. Zvula-Droga transacted business in Altoona recently.

Emory Christoff, of Johnstown, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Christoff of Russell avenue.

The condition of Mrs. R. P. Short who recently underwent an operation at the Spangler hospital, remains about the same.

Danny Link called on Spangler relatives recently.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Gabrielson, of Nanty-Glo, recently called on Mr. Gabrielson's parents here.

Edward Donahue, of Magee avenue was a recent visitor in Pittsburg.

Ben A. Christoff, of Akron, Ohio, was a recent guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Christoff, of South Fifth avenue.

Grace Ulrich, of Indiana State Normal school, spent the Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ulrich, of North Fifth avenue.

Walter Kartheim called on Johnstown friends recently.

Don't forget the Kiwanis Minstrel at the Grand Theatre on Monday evening next at 8:15 sharp.

Board conditions in this section on Tuesday evening were extremely dangerous on account of an icy condition and several cars narrowly averted accident on the hills about town.

FOR SALE: Cook stove, Enamel, coal as new, for sale cheap. Apply at Courier office.

FOR SALE: Upright Grand Straube Piano, highest grade; Freshman Masterpiece Radio, nearly new; 70 stations logged. Two colonies of Italian bees, made about 300 pounds surplus honey last season, and are now in excellent condition. Also various household goods. Apply Baptist Parsonage 629 Magee avenue.

Cash paid for false teeth, dental gold, platinum and discarded jewelry. Hoke Smelting and Refining Co., Toledo, Mich.

A. P. Myers, of Carrolltown, was a business caller in town on Wednesday.

Miss Teresa Owens, of Carrolltown, was a guest of the Henry Link family, of South Fifth avenue, on Wednesday afternoon.

Some mighty good attractions are booked for the Grand theatre these days. Read the ad on this page.

C. R. Blat, of the Grand Theatre, transacted business in Pittsburg on Wednesday.

The Easter Monday dance at Sunset Park was an attraction for nearly 800 couples that came from all sections of Central Pennsylvania, despite inclement weather.

PATTON HIGH SCHOOL BRIEFS OF THE WEEK

Ann Schettig, of the Cresson High School, visited the high school on last Thursday and Monday with Roundayne Weekland of the Senior Class.

Paul Rowland spent the week end in Lytleville visiting his grandmother.

Kelly Hurd and John Semelberger were Hastings visitors on Sunday night.

Mary Farrell and Edith Semelberger, of Hastings High School, were Patton callers on Sunday evening.

Anna Prehabayla was a Barnesboro visitor on Sunday evening.

Mr. Botte of the Science Department and Miss Martin of the History department are both on the sick list this week. Miss Prindle is substituting for Miss Martin.

Someone wants to know why Clark Heid walks out the Crest Springs road every Sunday afternoon.

It is reported that Philip Agost is a master at Charleston dancing.

The coming of the track season has promoted keen rivalry among some of the boys. The first evening in a race, Ernest Caratti defeated John Casway in a 100 yard dash. John Shannon claims that he can run the 100 yards in 9 flat. Most of the boys think he means 9 minutes.

George Petrusky was seen in Chest Springs on Saturday.

Four visitors were seen in school on Tuesday afternoon. They were Missie Winslow, Emma Lilly, Emma Nelsall and Jean Whitehead.

Elen Morris was on the sick list on Monday.

A horse race will be a feature in town in the near future. Herman Drans has challenged Louis Balaski. Herman's horse is named "Gun Powder," and Louis' horse, "Speed." The race should be flashy.

Wilford Thomas was on the sick list on Saturday.

Lillian Sticker was a caller in Patton on Friday afternoon.

Martina Kinross attended a social at St. Benedicts on Friday.

Cobetta Haber returned to school on Monday morning after spending her Easter vacation at her home in Altoona.

Catherine Watt spent her Easter vacation in Ashby.

Melvin Watson is an Altoona visitor over Easter.

Roundayne Weekland and Ann Schettig were at the Easter Monday dance at Sunset.

Music Notes.

Miss Whiteford's room had the highest average in written dictation for the month of March. As a result they are now the proud possessors of the Contest Picture.

The Senior orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. Hopkins, will be heard at the M. E. Church on Thursday evening as part of the program of the evening's entertainment.

The Junior orchestra, also under the direction of Mrs. Hopkins will present several numbers at the Junior Music Club on Tuesday evening.

Those interested in the Blask Essay contest should look in Risher's and in Ganiser's window and see the prizes offered. These should inspire everyone to try for first prize. Read the front page article for further information in the contest. Get interested and get busy.

Freshman Notes.

The whole Freshman class was "caught" by an April Fool joke put on by Miss Fogarty of the Algebra department. She scheduled a test for Thursday, but it turned out to be a joke.

Henrietta Yahner recently came to school having two scratches on her arm. She reports that she has been picking black berries in a snow drift near her home.

School was dismissed early Tuesday afternoon in order to give the pupils a chance to see a matinee for the feature picture, "The Man Without A Country."

John Symons of St. Benedicts attended a matinee at the Grand theatre on Tuesday afternoon.

A. A. Williams Erickson if he will take up Casey next year.

Rev. Serrano, of St. Benedicts, was seen at the Grand theatre on Tuesday afternoon.

The pupils of Section Three have been handing in night work recently. Those who don't hand it in remain after school.

Eather Anderson is again at the school, after having been sick for the past week.

School left out in the public schools on Thursday morning and commenced on Easter Monday.

One of our pupils stated that there was at one time a Scotchman who swallowed a collar button. Three operations were made on the man to remove the collar button, but without success. One day the Scotchman said this to the doctor, "Doctor, I am going to try another operatin, and if you don't find it this time, I think I'll buy another collar button."

Maria Benson, of St. Benedicts, attended the screening of "The Man Without A Country" on Tuesday night of this week.

ORDINANCE NO. 114

Beginning Thursday evening, April 1st and continuing every night thereafter. The fire siren will be sounded as the curfew and all boys and girls under the age of 18 years will be expected to leave the streets and alleys and store entrances and all other places where they may be loitering or playing and go home. All boys and girls will be expected to go home expect each boy or girl as may have a reason from their parent or guardian to prove they have reason to be on the street after 9 o'clock.

Parents please instruct the children accordingly. By order of the Burgess.

THOS. A. McQUILLEN

ST. BONIFACE NOTES.

Miss Gertrude Gearhart, of Pittsburg, is spending a few days here with friends and relatives.

Miss Margaret Kibler, of Johnstown, who had been the guest of friends here for the past few days, has returned to her home.

Donald Quinn and Joseph McDermott have returned to their homes in Pittsburg, following a visit here with friends and relatives.

Miss Hilda Ott, of Beaverdale was the guest of relatives here recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Coley, of Hastings are spending some time with relatives in town.

Carl Boetic, of Barnesboro, called on friends here over the week end.

Arthur Lynn is spending a few days with relatives in Patton.

666

is a Prescription for COLDS, GRIPPE, FLU, DENGUE, BILIOUS FEVER AND MALARIA. It Kills the Germs.

SOME of the most thrilling chapters in American development have been in connection with the fight for water. The romantic, stirring history of one of these is told in

THE Water Bearer

The author, J. Allan Dunn, has written a fascinating novel, the plot of which centers on the solution of the water supply of a great western city in danger of ruination for lack of the essential fluid. You will like

THE Water Bearer

The story is exciting and there is much of life and love and drama, literally "by flood and field." It is of the type which one realizes to be more fact than fiction.

Will Start as a Serial in THE COURIER SOON

FOR CONGRESS J. Russell Leech REPUBLICAN

GRAND

THEATRE PATTON PROGRAMME PATTON

TONIGHT, THURSDAY JACK HOXIE IN THE Red Rider

An up-to-date western drama, with an Indian Reservation and Crooked White Men as the background PERILS OF THE WILD, NO. 6 and Cartoon Comedy.

TOMORROW NIGHT, FRIDAY The Spaniard

A great Paramount Picture with RICARDO CORTEZ, JETTA GOUDAL, and NOAH BERRY. The sparkle and flash of Spain with a romance and bandits in the Pyrennes. One of the best pictures ever made. COMEDY, "EXCUSE MY GLOVE"

SATURDAY MATINEE AND NIGHT.

JUVENILE COMEDY, "YANKEE SPIRIT. FOX NEWS SATURDAY MATINEE AND NIGHT.

NEXT MONDAY NIGHT AT 8:15: Kiwanis Club Minstrel.

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY MARY CARR AND JOHNNY WALKER IN

OVER the HILL

You may have seen this before. You are sure to want to see it again. If you haven't yet seen it, don't miss this landmark of all time, of the screen. Now being shown again the country over due to millions of requests.

SPECIAL MUSIC. ADMISSION 15c and 35c BUSTER BROWN MARY JANE AND TIGER, for the first time on the screen, and going over, big, in "EDUCATIN' BUSTER."

TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY

THURSDAY OF NEXT WEEK

TOM MIX

WITH TONY IN HIS NEW HIGH POWERED WESTERN PICTURE

The Everlasting Whisper