

Is Your Work Hard?

Do you feel that your work is hard? Are you tired and worn out? Do you find it difficult to get on your feet in the morning? Do you find it difficult to concentrate on your work? Do you find it difficult to get a good night's sleep? Do you find it difficult to get a good appetite? Do you find it difficult to get a good complexion? Do you find it difficult to get a good character? Do you find it difficult to get a good name? Do you find it difficult to get a good fortune? Do you find it difficult to get a good life? Do you find it difficult to get a good death? Do you find it difficult to get a good everything?

A Pennsylvania Case

William W. Doan, of Philadelphia, Pa., writes: "I have used Doan's Pills for several years, and they have done for me what no other medicine has done. I am now a well-to-do man, and I am able to do my work as well as ever. I am able to get a good night's sleep, and I am able to get a good appetite. I am able to get a good complexion, and I am able to get a good character. I am able to get a good name, and I am able to get a good fortune. I am able to get a good life, and I am able to get a good death. I am able to get a good everything."

Jeweled Nose Studs

Will the next fashion craze for women be jeweled nose studs? A London woman, Mrs. Mabel Harrison, says they are wonderfully becoming. Her husband brought back from India a pair of nose studs such as is worn by men and women of that country. In a spirit of curiosity Mrs. Harrison placed her nostrils and inserted it. "I was surprised to discover how pleasant the effect was," friends who have seen it quote her.

Book's Long Service

A law book printed in 1771 by Robert Bell, a Philadelphia typesetter, still is in active use in the Lawrence Hall library. The publication known as the first book of Blackstone's Commentaries is in good condition despite its 130 years and is as readable as any newly printed book.

TIMELY DESSERTS

For the early spring months, having tired of heavy rich desserts, we turn with enjoyment to lighter and easier digested dishes.

Queen of Lemon Pie. Beat the yolks of three eggs. To one cupful of sugar add a tablespoonful of butter, when well creamed add a tablespoonful of flour and mix with the eggs. Grate the yellow rind of a lemon and squeeze the juice, add with one cupful of milk to the other mixture. Beat the whites of three eggs until stiff and fold in lightly, then pour into a lined pastry shell, unbaked. Bake slowly until thick and well browned.

Delmonico Pudding. Turn a pint can of peaches with the syrup into a pudding dish. Heat one pint of milk in a double boiler, add one-third of a cupful of cornstarch stirred to a smooth paste with one-half teaspoonful of salt and one-half cupful of cold milk. Stir and cook in the hot milk until the cornstarch is thoroughly cooked. Cover and let stand for a few minutes. Beat the yolks of two eggs, add one-third of a cupful of sugar, beat until stiff, add to the hot mixture, continue beating until the egg is cooked, then pour over the peaches. Beat the egg whites until stiff, add four tablespoonfuls of sugar, cover the pudding and place in a slow oven at first, then brown quickly by setting either hot or cold.

Prune Patties. Take one-half cupful of stewed prunes, stone and mash, add one beaten egg yolk, a pinch of salt, a grating of nutmeg, a teaspoonful of flour and sugar to taste, a half cupful of sweet milk. Mix and pour into pasteurized patty pans. Bake until a light brown. Spread the tops with a meringue made from the egg white and a little sugar. Brown lightly in a moderate oven.

Maple Junkies. Warm one pint of milk, add one tablespoonful of maple sugar, one-third of a cupful of maple sugar and pour into sherbet cups. Serve when firm with grated maple sugar and cream. If the maple sugar is not to be obtained use brown sugar with a few drops of maple flavoring.

Dresden Crumbs. Melt chocolate and stir in as many dry, finely grated crumbs as the chocolate will cover. Serve with cream and sugar.

Food Suggestions.

A pretty salad for a party is prepared as follows: Place a slice of pineapple on a tender lettuce leaf, in the center of the pineapple place half of a banana and top with a red cherry. Place salad dressing or heap a spoonful on the side of the salad.

Cream of Onion Soup. Slice four onions and cook in boiling water until soft, changing the water once during the cooking. When tender rub the onions through a sieve and to a cupful of the pulp, prepare the following: Melt a tablespoonful of butter, when hot add two tablespoonfuls of flour. Stir until the mixture leaves the sides of the pan, then add three cupfuls of cold milk and cook until smooth, after ten minutes add the onion and the liquid in which they were cooked. Boil up once and serve.

Hot Water Ginger Bread. Take one cupful of sugar, one beaten egg, a half teaspoonful of salt, one-half cupful of ginger, one cupful of molasses, and three cupfuls of flour. Mix and stir until well blended, then add one cupful of boiling water into which is stirred a scant teaspoonful of soda. Stir and beat until well mixed, then pour into a well-greased dripping pan and bake 40 minutes. Serve hot, cut into squares with cottage cheese and apple sauce. This dessert is especially good with whipped cream.

Safety Soup. Scrape and clean three bunches of safety cut into dice and soak for 15 minutes in cold water. Drain, cover with boiling water and cook until tender. Add a quart of milk, butter, salt and pepper to season. Bring to the boiling point, add three milk crackers (rolled) and serve at once.

Spanish Eggs. Cook together one cupful of stewed tomatoes and a clove of garlic finely minced, one chopped onion, two sweet green peppers chopped. Cook gently until reduced to half. Spread on thin slices of buttered toast and lay a poached egg on each slice.

Hash Roll. Prepare a rich biscuit dough and roll out one-half inch thick. Spread with hot, moist and well-seasoned hash. Roll up and bake in a hot oven. Serve on a hot platter with a rich brown or tomato sauce.

Decision Is Against Observatory on Sinai

The United States of America, in a decision of a suitable place for a third observatory, recently visited the Sinai peninsula, which is famous in Biblical history as the place where Moses received the Ten Commandments. But after looking over the country Doctor Abbot decided that the place would never do for an observatory station. "We looked earnestly at the Sinai peninsula and tried to see Mount Sinai," he writes to Washington, "but cirrus clouds lay over the sky all along and these and a rather low altitude and forbidding, barren inaccessibility seemed to me enough objections to solar research." It is hoped that a station for solar observations in Asia will increase the possibility of making reliable weather forecasts for the entire world. Doctor Abbot will next visit South Africa for the same purpose. Pathfinders Magazine.

Gone to Davy Jones

The expression, "Davy Jones Locker," is used among sailors to denote the bottom of the ocean, especially as the grave of those drowned at sea. "Davy Jones" is the sailor's synonym for death, and hence it is a common thing among them to say of a person that is dead, that he has gone to "Davy Jones' locker."

This same Davy Jones, according to the mythology of sailors, is the head that presides over all the evil spirits of the deep and is seen in various shapes scaring the devoted wretch of death and war. —Shinnett's Peregrine Pickle.

Good-By on "High"

"As I was coming up the hill, there," said a motorist, "I met a man going down at a rate of speed that indicated he would be dying if he could. What was the matter with him, do you suppose?"

"Well," replied Linn Dumm of Slippery Slip, "that was my brother-in-law, who has been living on me for about two months, and this morning I drug him out, stood him up and told him to hit the grill. I took a shot at him, and he split the wind."

"Ah, I see." You were seeing the parting guest?—Kansas City Star.
