

FINE JOB PRINTING
Neatly and Promptly Done in An Up-to-date Manner.

Patton Courier

SEND US THE NEWS
Make a Patter Paper for All
Every Little Article Helps

VOL. XXVII. NO. 24.

PATTON, CAMBRIA COUNTY, PA., THURSDAY, JUNE 3rd, 1926.

(5c)

$2.00 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

ST. LAWRENCE IS SCENE OF GOLDEN WEDDING EVENT

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rapp Married Fifty Years; Mass at Catholic Church.

Monday was an eventful day in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rapp, farm folks, of near St. Lawrence, it being the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. The festivities were of large proportions, approximately 500 relations and friends assisting in the observance of the celebration, which was both enjoyable and memorable. The day's program was begun with a solemn high mass of thanksgiving at St. Lawrence's church, where the principal and many others assembled for the occasion of the mass made by Mr. and Mrs. Rapp a half century ago. The mass was celebrated by the rector of the church, the Rev. Father Adrian O. S. H. of this place, assisted by the Rev. Father Clarence O. S. B. of Carrolltown, and the Rev. Father Charles J. Fagan, of Union and subsistence, respectively. From the church the subscribers and the rest of the worshippers repaired to the home-land for anniversary proceedings of the social kind. The services at the church started at 9:30 a. m. The celebration at the home was attended by a goodly number of Altoona people and others from more distant places.

S. S. LEVIATHAN BAND

Comes to Sunset Next Wednesday Evening.

Manager Fred Lutter, of Sunset Park auditorium, has a rare treat in store for dancers and for music lovers on Wednesday evening of next week, having engaged the S. S. Leviathan Band, of twelve pieces for the regular weekly dance engagement. This aggregation of excellent musicians needs no introduction to dancers in the north of the county. They are known all over the east as the acme of music perfection in the larger and most exclusive dance halls. In coming to Sunset, the people of the north of the county can look forward to music with pep, and melody. No doubt a large number of dancers will attend.

PAY YOUR TAXES AND WATER RENTS AT GOOD BUILDING

For the convenience of the public, an office has been opened in the room on the first floor of the Good Building, formerly occupied by the barber shop of A. Freely, where Water Rents and Borough and School Taxes can be paid. The office will be open daily and all persons having business of this nature, are requested to attend to it at this location.

BASEBALL AT CARROLLTOWN NEXT SUNDAY

The Carrolltown Independents, a fast team of semi-professionals, under the direction of John Minkick, of Carrolltown, will cross bats with cross bats with the Altoona Independents at the Carrolltown Fair Grounds next Sunday afternoon at 3:30. A good contest is anticipated.

SPECIAL SERVICE AT CARROLLTOWN

Annual Corpus Christi Procession Will Take Place Next Sunday Morning

This coming Sunday the Feast of Corpus Christi will take place in St. Benedict's church at Carrolltown. As in former years the usual procession to the adjoining cemetery will take place following the mass service, if the weather permits. All of the ladies of the congregation will march in the procession. Strangers will be welcomed and will be invited to join the march. Four portable altars will be erected in the cemetery where Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be given. Knights of Columbus from all over this section are especially invited to attend and take part in the procession. The Fourth Degree Knights will be attired in full street dress, with badge and sword. The Knights will assemble at the Mortuary Parlors of J. Edward Stevens at 9 o'clock Sunday morning.

AT GRAND THEATRE

Some of the Finest Attractions on the Market.

Tonight at the Grand Art Acad. the famous actor, will be seen in "The Call of Courage," his newest picture. Tomorrow a very fine drama, "The Wheel," with a great cast is on the program. Steve Waugh with his fiddle and his silver run will be on hand Saturday evening, one of the greatest melodramas ever seen on the screen will be presented in "The Limit of Mail" with a fine cast headed by Monte Blue. The thrills in this picture leading up to the terrific crash by two fast trains are positively breathtaking.

Monday, James Cruze, the famous producer of the "Covered Wagon," will offer an extraordinary picture in "Marry Me" Tuesday and Wednesday the newest popular star, Norma Swayer, supported by Lew Cody, Bill Haines and Mary Carr will be seen in "A Slave of Fashion." Thursday of next week Hoot Gibson will appear in a picture that has aroused much interest, on account of its locale, "The Calgary Stampede."

BRIDGE PARTY AT THE CHESTNUT CLUB HOUSE

Mrs. Mark Barkwell and Mrs. Chas. Snyder, of this place, were hostesses at a bridge party at Chestnut County Club, near Cherrytree recently, when 60 men and ladies were guests. The club house was beautifully decorated with wild crab apple blossoms, and four little girls of Patton served both home and foreign delicacies during the evening. The card playing started at 8 o'clock. The club place was in fine condition for the social affair, and the ladies who entertained made quite a success of their venture.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.

The Patton branch of the Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet next Tuesday evening, June 8th in the First Baptist church at 7:45 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.

STEVE WAUGH AND HIS BEAUTIFUL PRIZE

Folks of the Patton Community Will Honor Mr. Waugh With Reception at Grand Theatre on Friday Evening of This Week.

THE CHAMPION FIDDLER OF THE WEST OF THE STATE.

Stephen Waugh, Patton's Champion Old Time Fiddler, who recently attained the honor of being the best in the Western section of Pennsylvania, will be succeeded in his position at the Grand Theatre, Patton, tomorrow (Friday) evening, and it is expected that local folks, all of them, will turn out and help make the event the success it should be. Mr. Waugh's abilities will be shown those who attend the theatre Friday night, and the handsome cup he was awarded at Pittsburgh will be displayed as well. A very good picture program has likewise been arranged for—"The Wheel," a striking modern drama, with Harrison Ford, Claire Adams and Mahlon Hamilton. A fine Mack ormett comedy will also be on the screen.

The reception and show in honor of Mr. Waugh, has been arranged for by a number of Patton's leading citizens, who have the interest of the champion fiddler at heart. He has brought an honor to Patton that many larger places would vie for. Surely it

LOCAL GIRL WEDS ST. BENEDICT MAN

Miss Josephine Cammarata and Jerome Delle Valli Are Married Wednesday.

During a nuptial ceremony in St. Mary's Catholic church, this place on Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock, Miss Josephine Cammarata, of this place, became the bride of Mr. Jerome Delle Valli, of St. Benedict. Mrs. Catherine Delle Valli was maid of honor and Mr. August Delle Valli acted as best man. The bride was attired in a white satin dress, trimmed with Spanish lace and georgette, with veil. She carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid was dressed in white satin, trimmed with satin roses and georgette and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Both the bridegroom and the best man were attired in grey suits. The bride was also attended by two flower girls—Margaret Covador and Genevieve Cammarata, both dressed in white and carrying baskets of peonies. Immediately following the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a reception was held. Music for the occasion was furnished by Joe Mosti, of Nanty-Glo.

E. W. COWHER IS ILL

Father of Local Man in Serious Condition at Altoona.

E. W. Cowher, of Madera, father of M. B. Cowher, of Fifth avenue, and well known to many Patton folks, is in a serious condition at the home of relatives in Altoona, suffering of gangrene. Mr. Cowher, who is 75 years of age, a few weeks ago, while assisting in the unloading of coal in the cellar of his home, was so unfortunately as to have a heavy lump fall and severely bruise his foot. The member later became infected, and it is likely that amputation of the leg may yet have to be resorted to.

SENIOR AND JUNIOR PROM HELD HERE

On Friday evening the Junior class of Patton High School entertained the Senior Class at a dance held in the Senior's honor at the Municipal hall. The seniors turned out well to show their appreciation to their lower class mates. During the intermission of the orchestra a light delicious lunch was served. Several parents were present as chaperones.

PATTON YOUNG MEN TO ATTEND MILITARY CAMP

The following Patton young men have been accepted for the Citizens Military Camp next month at Camp Meade, Md., in the courses set opposite their names: Leonard G. Corby, Coast Art. Res. Charles Emigh, Infantry, Res. Bruce A. Laurer, Coast Art. Res. Fred E. Palech, Coast Art. Res. Wayne C. Winslow, Infantry, White

PLAN SCOTCH OUTING

This Year for Carrolltown Fair Grounds Instead of Sunset.

Already great preparations are being made for the annual Northern Cambria Scottish Club Picnic, which will be held at the Carrolltown Fair Grounds this year owing to the big space there for parking automobiles and the many other conveniences for the people. Prior to this year's outing the Scotch picnic was held at Sunset Park. The management, however, has seen fit to change from the park to the fair grounds. The date for the picnic will be set for the early part of August, the exact time to be announced later. In addition to the efforts of the people of the north of Nanty-Glo Scots are taking an active part in the plans for the coming summer party. In the list of amusements and sports the Kilts Band, the Highland dancers, old country dancing, soccer, football, races, etc. will all have a place on the day's program and additional prizes will be awarded for the best Scottish dancers, the judges to be selected by a committee.

DYSART MAN IS HELD

For Posing as Fire Warden Till June Term of Court.

Pushing the crusade against forestry law violators, John Shannon, Jr., of Dysart, was prosecuted Wednesday of last week before Squire C. P. Rowland of Ebensburg, by District Forester T. L. Shirley. Two charges were instituted, one for interference with a fire warden in the performance of duty and the other of falsely impersonating a fire warden. On the first charge, Shannon was fined $25 and assessed costs of $25.00. For the second offense of impersonating a warden he was held for the June term of court under $500 bail. Thirteen witnesses were summoned by the Forestry officials. In the prosecution a fee was and the adjustment of cost claims Forester Shirley was assisted last week by Attorney Paul L. Hutchinson, of Harrisburg, representing the central office of the State Department of Forests and Waters.

FAREWELL PARTY HELD FOR MOORE GIRLS

On last Friday evening a farewell party was held for the Misses Marguerite and Louise Moore at the home of Miss June Rowland. The Moore family left on Monday for McDonald, Ohio, where they will live in the future. At a late hour a dainty lunch was served and the little girls departed for home, the following being present: The Misses Marguerite and Louise Moore, Evelyn and Marjorie Corby, Louise and Marion Jones, Mary and Catherine Collier, Betty Solomon and Florence Beck, Helen Maykovitch and Jane Rowland, and Master Wendell Rowland.

Holy Trinity Church.

A. N. Samwell, rector. Sunday, June 6th, Holy Communion at 8:30 A. M. Church school at 9:45 a. m. Harold Waters, of St. Benedict, was a visitor here Monday evening.

BUSINESS MEN OF NORTH CAMBRIA HAVE A MEETING

Decide to Close Stores on Thursday Afternoon for Summer Starting on June 17.

The Business Men's Association of Cambria County met for a business and social session at the Bearer Hotel in Carrolltown on Thursday evening. The attendance was good and the matter for discussion throughout the meeting was important enough to keep all interested. One of the subjects was the half holiday on all Thursdays from June 17th to September 16th, inclusive. In view of the present industrial conditions in this part of the country the merchants voted to close their shops for a half day between the dates mentioned, feeling sure that trade and shopkeepers would not suffer in consequence of the few hours missed by both sides concerned. Further developments will likely ensue before the first day of the closing program. The date for the merchants annual picnic was also set at the meeting, July 22nd being selected. Various committees will be appointed to arrange all details for the outing which the men will endeavor to make the largest yet held by the organization. Minor topics were likewise talked over at the gathering but the holiday and picnic questions received the most attention. The meeting and luncheon at Carrolltown was one of a series held at the different towns in this section since last fall. President Louis Luxenberg, of Barnesboro, and Secretary Paul Holtz, of Hastings, were in charge of the last one and both talked during the program when the times were opportune. A number of vocal selections to the accompaniment of a piano were rendered by the Misses Mary and Adelaide McLaughlin and Edward Farabaugh, the latter at the piano. The next meeting of the Business Men's Association will be held at Spangler.

JUNIOR MUSIC CLUB HAS LAST MEETING OF YEAR

The Junior Music Club held its final meeting of the year on Tuesday in the K. G. F. hall, officers were elected for the year as follows: Dorothy Somerville, president; Helen Bolley and Betty Fogarty, vice presidents. The following program was rendered, Ruth Kusner acting as chairman. Vocal solo, "Voice of the Woods" by Watson, Mary McLaughlin and Margaret Gail. Piano solo: "The Butterfly Call" by Louise and A "Scottish Song," by McDowell, Mary Stoltz. Piano solo: "Simple Confession," Margaret Gail.

Smoker at Barnesboro.

Barnesboro Council No. 2277, Knights of Columbus, will hold a camp and smoker at the Barnesboro K. of C. Building on the evening of June 8. The chairman of the Entertainment Committee Bernard J. Dillon, of Carrolltown, is busy arranging details for the affair and a successful time is anticipated. Mr. and Mrs. J. Mac Donlinger were week end visitors in Clearfield.

The 1926 Graduating Class of the Patton High School, Fifty-two in Number.

The Patton High School Class this year comprises 52 students. The schools closed last Friday after a very successful year of school work. Under the supervision of Prof. W. M. Bosserman, the schools have attained a high degree of efficiency and the work has become more and more standardized in accordance with the recent school regulations and methods. John Gorsuch has been awarded the Legion medal, and the science medal has been given to William McAfee. Caroline Squires is the winner of the shorthand medal awarded in the inter-county contest at Indiana. The list of graduates was published in last week's paper. Commencement exercises were held Wednesday, May 26th.