SHOULD HUSBANDS DO HOUSE WORK?

How Mrs. Dyer Solved the Problem.

Mrs. Mildred Dyer was lucky. She had a good natured husband who helped her with much of her housework. Because she was in ill health for five years, it was often necessary for him to do this. But it bothered Mrs. Dyer. She felt that he had to work hard enough anyway. The time he spent in doing her work was needed for his own. She determined to find the road to better health.

She writes: "I think Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is simply wonderful. My health is better than it has ever been. I am getting stronger and gaining in weight."

She has solved her problem and her household is happier. The Dyers live at Redlands, Calif., Route A, Box 181.

How often does your husband have to do your housework? No matter how willing he is, no woman feels comfortable about it. Perhaps you, too, will find better health through the faithful use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Have a lovely Complexion

You can make and keep your complexion as lovely as a young girl's by giving a little attention to your blood. Remember, a good complexion isn't skin deep—it's health deep.

Physicians agree that sulphur is one of the most effective blood purifiers known to science. Hancock Sulphur Compound is an old, reliable, scientific remedy, that purges the blood of impurities. Taken internally—a few drops in a glass of water, it gets at the root of the trouble. As a lotion, it soothes and heals.

The KITCHEN CABINET

If you cannot set to matter all the music of your soul
Then let its heavenly harmony your daily life control;
Until from out the discord of life's bitterness and pain
Sweet symphonies shall rise—and your life sing for its gain.

SUMMERY SALADS

There is nothing in the food line which "completes the spot" equal to a fresh, crisp, well-made salad.

Tomato, Cucumber and Onion Salad.—If the tomatoes are small, cut them into halves; if large, into slices. Heap on each a mixture of a tablespoonful of onion to three of cucumbers, all cut into very small cubes, and marinated with French dressing. Top with a spoonful of mayonnaise dressing. If the onion is not enjoyed, or less is used, add celery.

Lemon Salad.—Prepare a package of lemon pudding, pour into a long shallow dish. When firm, cut into small cubes and mix with pineapple also cubed, and a little firm tomato for color. Heap on head lettuce and serve with mayonnaise.

Tomato Aspic Salad.—Cook two cupfuls of tomato and one onion for ten minutes, add one teaspoonful of salt and two of sugar, when well dissolved strain and add four tablespoonfuls of gelatin which has been softened in a tablespoonful of water; mix and stir until the gelatin is dissolved. Pour into molds and serve with shredded lettuce and mayonnaise dressing.

Ceylon Tomato Salad.—Peel three solid tomatoes, cut them into tulip-shaped forms by cutting nearly through from the blossom to the stem end. Place on a tender leaf of lettuce, add a teaspoonful of chopped onion to the center of each, fill with freshly grated cocoanut and sprinkle with a tiny bit of green pepper finely chopped. Prepare a French dressing using the cocoanut milk, lemon juice, seasoning and a little olive oil. Beat well and pour over the salad.

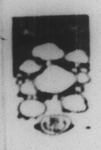
Tomato and Pears Salad.—This is a most delightful combination; each brings out the flavor of the other. Arrange tomatoes cut into eighths, pears also in eighths in alternating sections. Sprinkle with French dressing and then arrange on lettuce and serve with a rich mayonnaise dressing.

Creamed Celery in Cheese Shell.—Use the shell of a pineapple or Edam cheese for a receptacle. Cook celery until tender, add a creamed sauce with a few mushrooms or a chopped sweetbread, or oysters in season. Pour into the shell and bake until the crumbs covering the top are brown. Do not have the oven too hot or the cheese will melt and the beauty of the dish will be spoiled. Wrap the cheese with dampened paper or cloth to avoid burning if the oven is overheated.

Celery cooked, served with a white sauce and grated cheese makes a most tasty luncheon or supper dish. Serve baked covered with buttered crumbs.

Seasonable Dishes

Now that the delectable field mushrooms are ready, let us try some new combinations.



Sweetbreads and Mushrooms.—Parboil two pairs of sweetbreads and remove the fiber. Cut each into two pieces. Heat a tablespoonful of butter, lay them in it, cook quickly, turning once. Season with salt and pepper and lay on a hot dish. Have ready a cupful of fresh mushrooms cooked in butter for five minutes, add them to a cupful of rich cream which has been thickened with a tablespoonful of flour and well cooked. Pour the sauce around the sweetbreads on a hot platter.

Tomato Rarebit.—Spread slices of whole wheat bread with butter, salt, dry mustard, worcestershire (a few drops) all well mixed, cover with a slice of tomato, then add grated cheese. Put over the second slice of bread, press together and sauté in a little butter until hot and the cheese melted.

Head Lettuce With Sherry's Dressing.—Wash and drain the lettuce and place in a cold place to chill. For the dressing chop one small Spanish onion, add two tablespoonfuls each of chopped red and green pepper, one tablespoonful each of salt, powdered sugar and chopped parsley, a few dashes of cayenne pepper, one-fourth cupful of vinegar and three-fourths of a cupful of olive oil. Put into a mason jar, shake for five minutes, let stand one hour before using, then shake again just as it is served.

Ginger Ice Cream.—Use a vanilla ice cream recipe, taking one tablespoonful of vanilla, three tablespoonfuls of ginger syrup and one-half cupful of the finely chopped ginger. Freeze as usual. Use a sauce of the chopped ginger and syrup.

Crown Roast of Lamb.—Have the crown roast prepared at the market, having it large enough to hold when served plenty of buttered peas for the number to be served. Wrap the bones carefully while roasting with slices of salt pork, to keep them from burning; remove when ready to serve. Serve with the center heaped with buttered green peas.

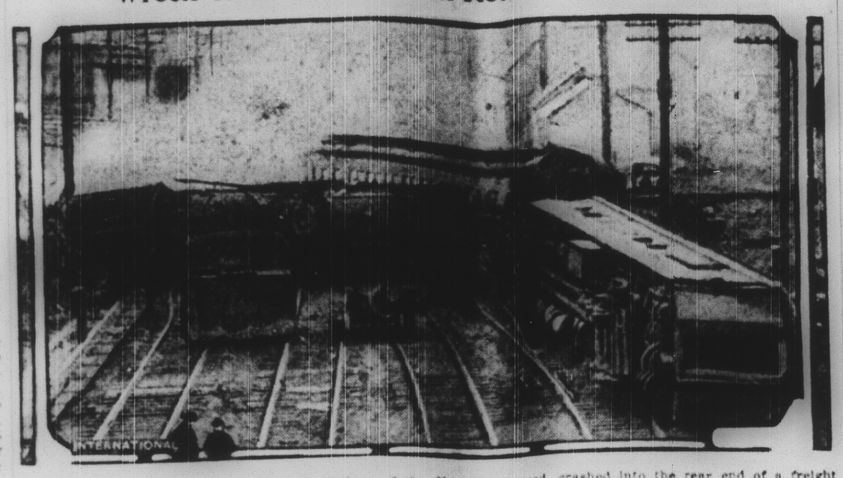
Wreck of the New Haven Road's "Owl" Train



The "Owl," crack Boston to New York flyer of the New Haven road, crashed into the rear end of a freight 50 yards from the Mansfield (Mass.) railroad station. Three pullmans and the engine of the "Owl" were derailed, one pullman capsizing, while the signal tower and three freight cars were wrecked and destroyed by fire. The fireman of the passenger train was killed and the engineer seriously injured.

VICTIM OF ERROR

Above is pictured Raffaello Morello, who for eight years was imprisoned at Trenton, N. J., for the supposed murder of his wife. Now it has been found that she committed suicide. Morello, unable to speak English, told his story at the trial through an interpreter who unintentionally misrepresented to the court part of the story. Morello, while still technically guilty, has been paroled. He will later be pardoned and will return to Italy.

SLOTH BEAR

"From where did you come?" asked the Brown Bear of the bear nearby.

"From India," answered the other bear.

"And when you speak to me, Brown Bear, please call me by name."

"I would do so gladly," said the brown bear, "but I don't know your name."

"Then it is high time you found it out," said the other bear.

"How can I find it out?" asked the brown bear.

"By asking, you silly," said the other bear.

"Oh," said the Brown Bear, "then won't you please tell me your name?"

"That is different. Yes, I will tell you my name. My name is Sloth Bear and I am also called the Long-Lipped Bear.

"I am so named because of my great white muzzle or nose or under-lip or whatever you wish to call it."

"I don't mind what I call it," said Brown Bear.

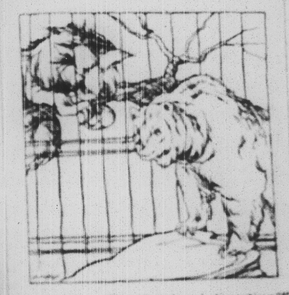
"Isn't my long black hair beautiful, perfectly beautiful?" asked Sloth Bear.

"And don't you think I am very interesting?" he added. "When I say this I don't mean myself alone. I mean as a family, and of myself as representative of the family.

"By representative I mean I represent or show what the rest of the family is like.

"I used to live in the deep forests of India," he continued, before the brown bear had any chance to answer his questions.

"I was famous for my black hair, my white nose and my beautiful,



"Don't You Think I Am Interesting?"

artistic, exquisite, magnificent, glorious long white claws.

"Ah, such claws as I have!"

And Sloth Bear looked at his claws admiringly.

"You're an interesting and beautiful bear, all right, said the brown bear.

And Sloth Bear growled and shook his long black fur.

"You show you're a sensible bear to say so.

"Yes, it's not every bear who can be a sloth bear, but at least every bear can know what a fine and interesting and beautiful bear the Sloth Bear is—that is if he has the chance to find out.

"And when he finds out he should appreciate what he knows as you do, my friend," ended the Sloth Bear.

And the Brown Bear waved his head and agreed, but he was thankful the Sloth Bear had stopped talking, for he wanted a nap now.

So off he went and took a nap, and the Sloth Bear took one, too.

Silent Sports

Different groups may be assigned certain sports. One group plays baseball. The pitcher pretends to throw the ball, the batter pretends to bat it, the catcher to catch it and return it to the pitcher. The "ball" may be pitched again and the batter pretend to bat a fly which is caught by the pitcher or shortstop and thrown to first base, reaching there before the batter. This can be worked out to suit the desires of the performers.

Another group may act out a part of a football game, others imitate basketball, croquet, etc.

Not Necessary to Thank

Donald was invited to lunch upon his fourth birthday with his playmate next door, and was reminded by his mother of the small points of etiquette which she wished him to observe.

Upon his return home she asked him if he remembered to say "Please" and "No, thank you."

"I said 'Please,'" he said, "but I didn't say 'No, thank you,' because I took everything they passed me."
