

FINNEY OF THE FORCE

By F. O. Alexander

THE FEATHERHEADS

By Osborne

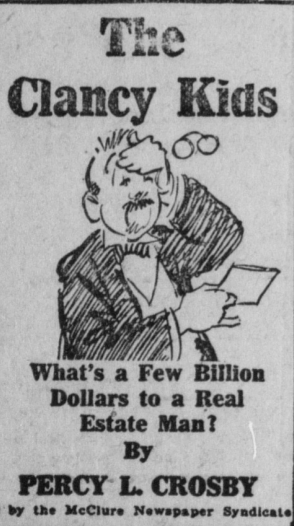

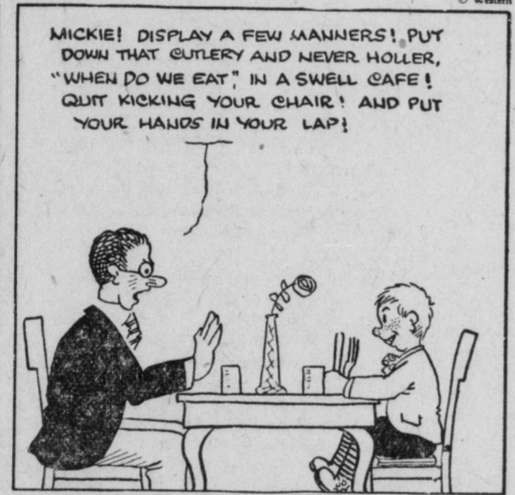

Low Bridge

MICKIE, THE PRINTER'S DEVIL

By Charles Sughroe

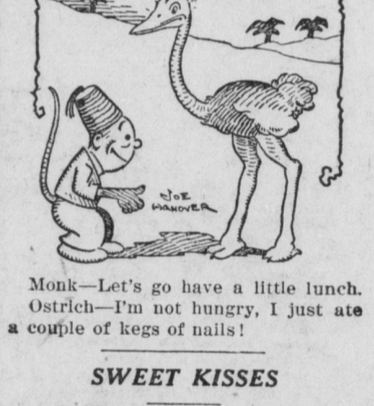

He—What is your idea of trial marriages. She—I've heard they're all very severe trials.

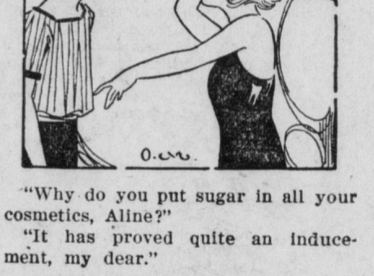

She—You say May positively doesn't want to get married. He—No. She—That's strange. How do you know? He (sadly)—I asked and found out.

Miss Wolfenb—Miss Clamshells says she's engaged. Miss Bobcut—Well, she's not. That black eye she's showing is just make-up. She put it on with charcoal.

Monk—Let's go have a little lunch. Ostrich—I'm not hungry, I just ate a couple of kegs of nails!

"Why do you put sugar in all your cosmetics, Aline?" "It has proved quite an inducement, my dear."

"Strongest man in the world, eh?" "Yep—held up a train."

"Have you a court yard?" "No, I do my courting indoors."

SWAGGE... IN REGARD to early spring... the trend of the mode... Just as effective is... belt in bright green... with a coat of neutral... ed or silvered kid b... popularity. Here is something... In regard to the new... navy is forecast as... The dressier models... seamed, boast bolero... tary little upstand... ening touches of met... well as trimmings of... bright cloths will ad... fulness. There will b... of pin-tucking, brai... manipulation. Beige coat models... blended flat fur are... younger generation... has spotted calfskin... the mode's success it... is heralded for month... Dine and dance h... ston to perform. Th... turesquely play up to