The cinch party held in the Good building under the auspices of the Patton Band on Tuesday evening of this week was a success in both a social and a financial way. A good attendance was present and everyone enjoyed themselves. The prize winners were: Ladies first prize, Mrs. James Healy; ladies second prize, Mrs. F. A. Kuhnley; gents first prize, James McConnell; and gents second prize, J. J. Kuhnley. The consolation prizes were awarded to Miss Mae Litzinger and to Mr. Wayne Winslow. Mrs. Winslow's prize is said to be a very useful one. The next of the series of Band Cinch parties will be held on Tuesday evening, January 25th, and a door prize will be added to the list of awards at this time. Plan to attend. The regular monthly meeting of the "Pen" Club was held at the home of Mrs. W. A. Dinsmore on Monday evening last. After the scheduled program was concluded, dainty refreshments were served by the hostess and her committee.

The augmented orchestra of Trinity Methodist Church School now numbers eleven. Much favorable comment is being made of the proficiency of these musicians. MARCEL WAVING—Miss Scholata specialist in marcel waving, will be at the residence of Mrs. Henry Cole in Carrolltown daily and evenings. Ladies make appointments.

Mrs. Rachael Dinsmore returned to her home on Friday last after having been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jona Flood, of Rahway, N. J., for several weeks. Miss Emma Weikland who had been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jona Flood, for several days, returned to her home here.

Mrs. Jackson, who is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Thompson.

Mrs. Charles Snyder who has been the guest organist at Trinity Methodist Episcopal church during the absence of Mrs. Rachael Dinsmore, has endeared herself to the congregation. Many comments have been made on her programs rendered each week.

Preparations are being completed looking forward to the Father-Sons banquet to be held in the Social Hall of the E. Church on Tuesday evening, the 25th. A program of excellent merit is being arranged, including Dr. Caldwell of the State Department of Public Instruction as the chief speaker.

WANTED reliable lady to take agency for our guaranteed fast color dyes, material and house and afternoon dresses at moderate prices.

The fire on Sunday evening played havoc with the church services of the Society. Most of the speakers were well strayed with their sermons when the alarm was sounded. It was the part of wisdom to pronounce the benediction and dismiss the congregations.

Read the page advertisement of Kusner & Blankfeld elsewhere in this issue. Mrs. Fred Kuhnley of East Magee avenue, was a genial hostess of last week. Mrs. Kuhnley had as her guests: Mesdames Charles Anderson, Charles Forsberg, Sally Woerner, William Martin, Barth A. Young; C. M. Vronemiller, Charles Wely, Catherine Montieth, Fred Blankenhorn, and Miss Anna Moore. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

Among the out of town people who attended the funeral of the late Matthew Hodge here last week, were Earl Sevits, Grant Yoder and Jack Maher, all of Johnston, and all former comrades of Mr. Hodge in the World War. The former, Mr. Sevits, was in the same company with Hodge, and was also a prisoner of the Germans in the same prison camp with the deceased. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Breth and little daughter, Donna Elaine, have returned to their home in Jersey Shore after an enjoyable visit at the home of Mrs. Breth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace L. Williams of Beech avenue. Mrs. Breth will be remembered to Patton friends as Miss May Williams.

WASHINGTON WANTED—Satisfaction guaranteed, reasonable rates, ironing a specialty. Washings called for and promptly delivered. Call for write Mrs. Morris Delille, 319, Palmer Ave., Patton, Pa.

The shareholders of the F. J. Strittmatter Co., of Bradley Junction, will meet on Saturday, January 15th, in the company's offices. This company seems to have made great progress during the past couple of years judging by the large increase in their business. They do seem to be in need of more greenhouse room, however, as they have not been able to keep up with the demand for flowers.

Continued cold weather during the past couple of weeks have made reasonable winter weather.

Packing of ice is in order among the farmers.

If you have not yet paid your subscription to the Courier, it is never too late to do it.

Don't forget the cinch party to be held in the Municipal hall on Tuesday evening next for the benefit of St. George's church, and held under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the same church. Admission 50 cents. Fine prizes and a good lunch are features. Everyone is invited.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

By Russell Christoff. Once upon a time here was a man who knew all the words of the "Star Spangled Banner" and was Francis M. Sweeney.

If Mr. Botts were a Sergeant—Now, then, my hearties, fight like heroes until your powder's gone, then run! On account of that rheumatism in my leg I'll have to start now.

Someone asked Ted Palcho how the shoe business is, to which Ted replied, "It's very trying—off and on."

"This is grate sport" said a certain Freshie, as he carried out a bucket of ashes.

Dot Somerville wants to know how many pounds in one cwt. Won't someone please tell her?
