Christy Is Made an Honorary V. F. W.

Howard Chandler Christy, noted artist and creator of the fan Buddy Poppy" poster used in 1926, and a veteran of the Spanish-American war, is an honorary member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States. This honor was conferred upon Christy recently following action taken at the 1926 encampment at El Paso, Texas, when Christy was given the distinction of being the first honorary member selected by the national body. The presentation was made in Mr. Christy's studio in New York city by Commander-in-Chief Theodore Stitt. In the picture Mr. and Mrs. Christy are examining the engraved document Mr. Stitt has just handed them.

SCHOOL DAYS

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT By F. A. WALKER

TAKE THE SUNNY-SIDE

S YOU journey along the road of A S YOU journey along the road or life, you may observe as you push your way in and out, elbowing faces, that it is worth while to take the sunny-side.

There is at the best an odd, unshadows, which has a way of dampening arder and giving you the "blues," when you are doing your utmost to be

Hope, it is affirmed, deserts us at no period of our existence, but it coddles a little closer and smiles infinitely sweeter when we elect to choose the sunny-side and saunter along in step with it, under the spell of its cheery companionship.

On the sunny-side we find better health, good fortune, inspiration and innumerable uplifting thoughts which nnoble the soul

And we get them in abundance, for hey are always there, delectable and lovely as gardens of new-born roses. The kindly face of the old lady you just brushed by in your eagerness to get ahead, bears testimony to the mystic magnetism of the sunny-side. And the fine old gentleman immediately ahead, attests by his erect carriage and beaming countenance that he has unfalteringly trod the sunny-side since the day he resolved to leave the shadows in which he was withering and fading.

There is a lingering boyishness in his demeanor and in his vigorous step as he wends his way, lifts his hat and smiles with serene contentment.

For years, let us suppose, you were morose, moodish, sullen, ill-humored impulse seized you and led you to the sunny-side.

In a little while you were trans formed, flushed with fervor, enthusi asm, tender passion and rapturous

You saw with new eyes felt with new sensibility, heard with new delight. You were a changed being, due entirely to taking the sunny-side. where you could discern the bright and beautiful things in life which all the while had been close about you, but hidden in the dark.

THE WHY of SUPERSTITIONS By H. IRVING KING

VAMPIRES

THIS is an ancient Slavic supersti-This is an ancient state and lands but flourished chiefly among peoples who buried their dead instead of cremating them. Though much less con mon then formerly the vampire super stition is by no means extinct. In 1870 and 1871 there were many trials of people accused of disturbing dead oodies in connection with vampireism in Germany-there seemed to be an epidemic of the superstition just then and in comparatively recent years at least two cases have come to light n New England.

A vampire is supposed to be a dead erson who comes forth from his grave o suck the blood of the living at night. The superstition is a bit hazy as to the form in which the vampir omes, whether as a ghost or in the actual, buried body. An examination of the oldest and best authorities would seem to indicate a sort of "astral body." Criminals and suicide turn into vampires but a rabbit run. ning over, or a bird flying over the grave of an innocent person may change him into a vampire.

superstition doubtless originated in the gloomy imagination of Slavs who saw their loved ones dying from some wasting disease for which they were unable to account. In a New England case of vampireism which the writer investigated about thirty years ago the family afflicted were found to be consumptive. Burning the body of the suspected vampire is the accepted remedy for the
