A COMMON DISCOVERY

A new policeman had been put on the local force and a few days after his appointment he stopped to talk with the man who had succeeded in landing him the place. "Well, John, how are you getting along in your job?" the friend asked. "Fine, Mr. X," said the freshman officer. "As a matter of fact, I don't see anything very difficult in being a policeman, if you just go along and mind your own business."

NOT SUITED

She—Marry you? Never! Our ages are not suitable. You're old enough to marry a sixteen-year-old flapper.

Baseball Chant

Our salary checks are mighty small, Our work is very cheap; We do not make much money, But look how late we sleep.

Defense of the Day

"You look foolish," said the friend. "Think so?" "And you talk silly." "Are you sure?" "Of course. You are beginning to act like a moron." "Don't weaken in your opinion. I feel a temptation to commit a crime and I want the alienist on my side."

At the Mike

Announcer—Mr. Jones, the famous after-dinner speaker, will now address us.

Flustered Speaker—I am indeed—ah—proud to gaze upon the happy, smiling microphone this evening—er—I mean I'm glad to see so many wave lengths here this evening.

Hic Jacet

"He put on speed, thinking he could beat the train to it." "Did he get across?" "He will as soon as the tombstone maker has it finished."

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY

Professor Bug—This must be the Red Sea, but I never knew that it was hot!

Formula

The new detective story The old adventure tells. It starts with murder gory And ends with wedding bells.

Counter Irritant

"I can read a book and still listen to the radio music," said Miss Cayenne. "Isn't it confusing?" "No. Each helps to take my mind off the other."—Washington Star.

No Harm

Mother—You should not let the young man spend so much money on you. Daughter—Why not? I don't intend to marry him.

He Found Out

Seeing that the druggist stocked books, the affable stranger asked, "Have you any of the late confession stories?" "No, but I have something just as bad."

Impossible

Doc—Do you practice the deep breathing I told you of? Fred—I wouldn't dare to do it. I live right on the boulevard, where the air is full of gasoline fumes.

COURSE W HAS GOOD HEALTH

Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound

Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound for some time and I would not be without it in the house. As I am a children's nurse, I have to be on my feet a great deal and your medicine has helped me wonderfully. I was hardly able to do my housework when I began taking it, and now I am a strong and well woman, able to do all that is required of me besides. I have active Wash and found it. Greenfield, Mass.

for Weakness

Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound a valuable medicine. Mrs. J. A. Lancaster, Pa. Letters like these are sent to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Washington, from all over the world. I say that their health is being taken care of by Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.
