-HIGH SCHOOL-

Patton High School's fighting eleven kept their goal line uncrossed in their third game of the season when they defeated the Adams Township gridlers last Saturday by a score of 6 to 0. They expect to uplicate this score when they play Beaverdale High School next Saturday at the local field. The Beaverdale team has been winning honors so far this season, but our boys intend to bring them down a peg or two. An exciting game is promised. Don't miss it.

The cheer leaders are working hard to have everything in line of cheerleading for Saturday's game. With your support they're going to have a yelling time.

Miriam Whitte was on the sick list last Monday.

Lorraine Tarr visited friends and relatives in Hollidaysburg on Sunday afternoon.

Alex Maxwell and Dan McDewitt want to know if they can get a bounty for Walter Jenkins and William Brochii. Pennsylvania law states that there is no bounty on such animals.

The college preparatory classes are progressing very rapidly. In fact, more students are being enrolled each day.

Barba Yahner was seen viewing the sights of Patton on Sunday.

The Biology Observation Class is held every Wednesday afternoon. Those who attend the class report a very interesting time.

Where were our esteemed cheer leaders last Saturday afternoon? They left Patton at noon last Saturday en route to Adams township where they were to cheer at the football game. At the start of game there were no cheer leaders. Our Eva reports they made a vain attempt to get there. And next time, they won't rely on Ann Grezz to show them the way.

Alice Hickson visited friends and relatives in Charleroi over the week end.

Who knows where Harry Lilly and Hickson were last Wednesday?

The Freshmen girls have been notified to keep their compact out of school.

Section three seems to be rather busy these days. Can anyone tell us the reason?

The Patton Midget's football team won their fourth straight game when they defeated the fast Spangler Midget's team last Saturday by a score of 13 to 7. The local team is composed chiefly of students from the Freshmen and Sophomore Classes, and has been playing very fine ball. They have yet to suffer a defeat, and are paving their way to a bigger and better team next year.

Freshmen notes will be published each week if they are handed to Our Hero before 3:30 on Tuesday afternoon.

There will be no high school notes next week.
