

THE FEATHERHEADS

By Osborne

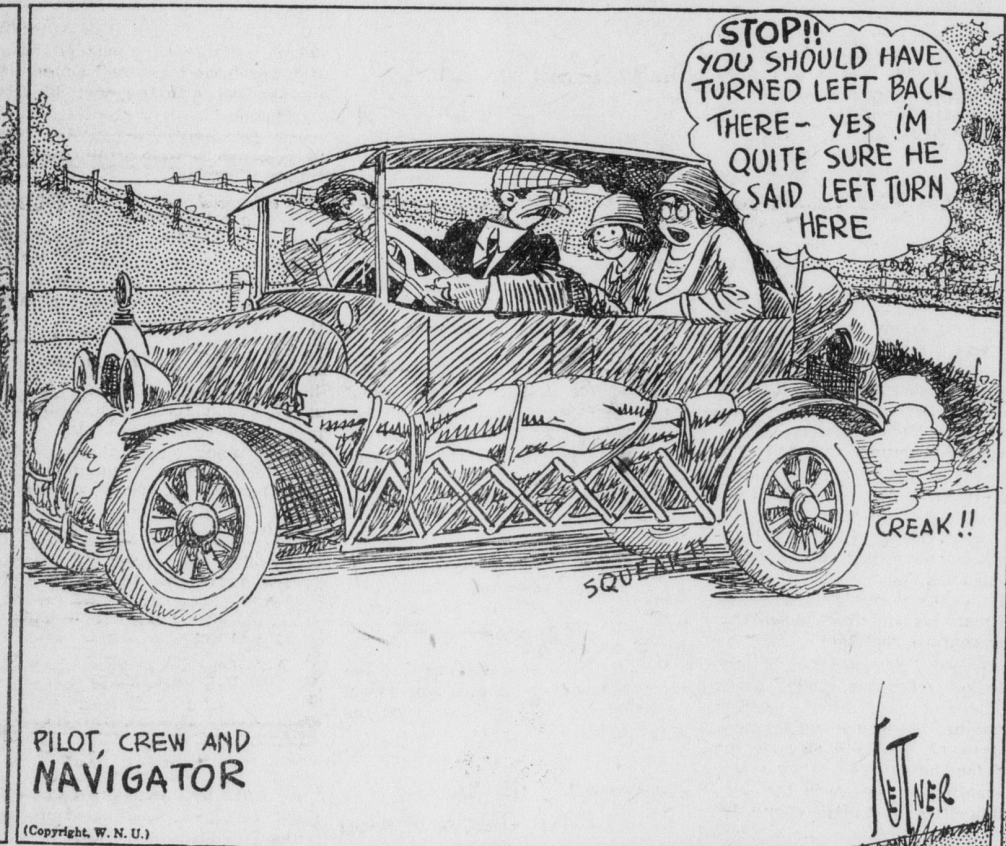

FINNEY OF THE FORCE

By F. O. Alexander

Along the Concrete

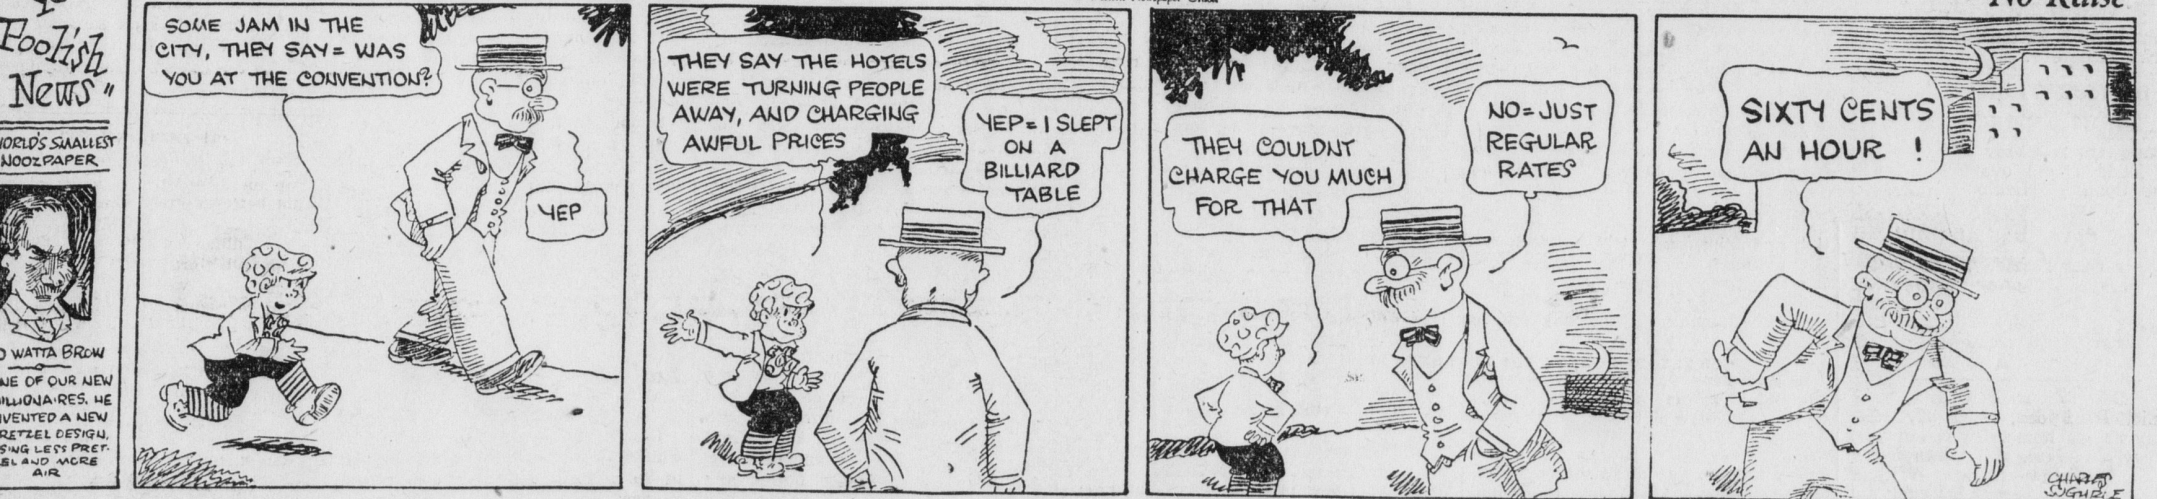

Pioneering

MICKIE, THE PRINTER'S DEVIL

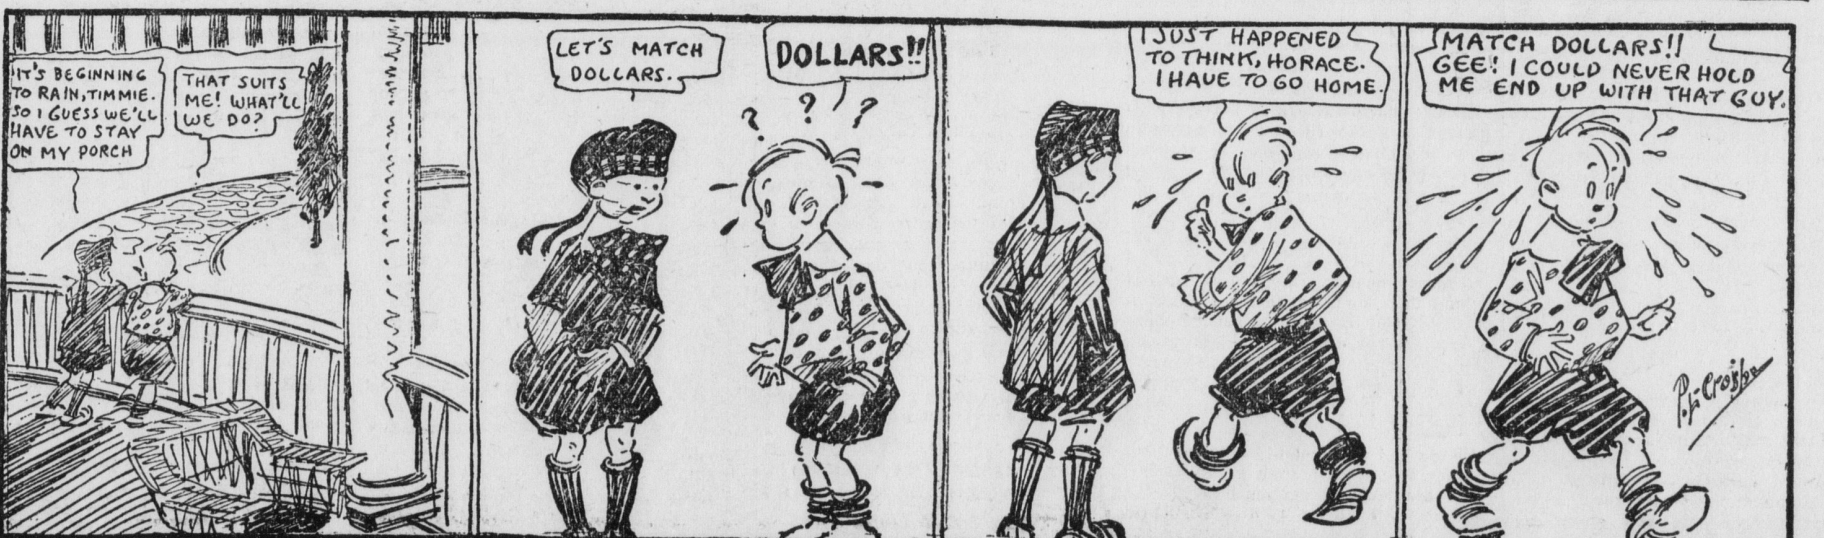

By Charles Sughroe

The Clancy Kids

Gee! The Warriches Must Have Oodles of Coin

By PERCY L. CROSBY

Adrift With Humor

COMPLETELY LOST

Two men who had traveled were comparing their ideas about foreign cities. "London," said one, "is certainly the foggiest place in the world." "Oh, no, it's not," said the other. "I've been in a place much foggier than London." "Where was that?" asked his interested friend. "I don't know where it was," replied the second man, "it was so foggy!"—Youth's Companion.

Heated Argument

"Can Ed Bishop hug?" exclaimed Zarita. "Why, the other night he hugged me so tight my floating ribs ran around!" "That's nothing," retorted Elizabeth M. "When Bob came back from the Green Valley camp he hugged me so tight I'm black and blue from the beating of his heart!"

EXPLAINED AT LAST

She—Besides his great work as an inventor, Thomas Edison also raised a son. He—That explains then how he learned to do with only four hours sleep.

On the Level

The downward path, we've e'er been shown, But leadeth to the devil. Yet you may be a rolling stone And still be on the level.

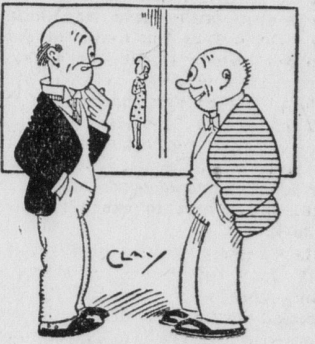

Show Girl's Logic

"Here's a good one," said the show girl. "When the manager asked me my age last night I couldn't save my life, remember whether I was twenty-three or twenty-four." "What did you do?" said another show girl. "Split the difference and told him seventeen."

Flippancies

"Aren't your remarks sometimes rather flippant?" "Perhaps I am overdoing my pose," confided Senator Sorghum. "Sometimes a man has to try to be funny in order to convey the impression that he is not scared."

OUT OF SIGHT

"Your wife manages to make your money go far for you say?" "Yes, out of sight."

Soon Forgotten

Lives of heroes all remind us How the fickle people change— Then blauded, now forgotten, As, for instance, Harold Grange.

She Knew

Youth (by the sea)—You little thought a week ago that you'd be sitting on a lonely seashore with a man then unknown to you. Maiden—Oh, yes, I did. "But dear, you didn't know me then!" "Of course not, but I knew myself."

No Bacon for Her

"Well, son, since getting married are you 'bringing home the bacon'?" "No, Phyllis prefers lamb chops."

Don't You Remember?

John—That was a fine drive you made. Dan—Thanks. Which one do you mean? John—The time you hit the ball.

Sophisticated Dog

Cinema Attendant—Sorry, Indy, you're not allowed to take your dog inside! Patron (haughtily)—How absurd! What harm can the pictures do to little Nero?

DAK floors to your home...
 ff's...
 g Investments Is You Want...
 DAY, STEADY WORK...
 ATTLE FOR SALE...
 for Deafness...
 r Color s on YOU...
 Ahead!...
 arking—...
 e Throat...
 By PERCY L. CROSBY