A PIECE OF POETRY I ONCE READ,
I GUESS IT WAS OLD "OMAR",
SAID "THE MOVING FINGER WRITES
AND HAVING WRIT, MOVES ON" AND
GOES ON. NOR ALL YOUR TEARS,
NOR ALL YOUR PIETY, CAN CANCEL
A SINGLE LINE OF IT." SOMETHING LIKE THAT
AND I WAS THINKING HOW THE
NEWSPAPER IS LIKE THE "MOVING
FINGER." IT WRITES, BUT NEITHER
I NOR ANY MORTAL MAN KNOWS
WHAT ITS TEXT WILL BE = MY OWN
DEATH MAY BE CHRONICLED IN
THE NEXT PRINTING OF THESE COLUMNS =

BIRTH, DEATH, MARRIAGE =
DISASTER, SCANDAL, CRIME =
JOY AND SORROW = TIDINGS
OF ALL COME TO THE EDITORS
OFFICE AND THE WAITING TYPE
WHICH TRANSLATES THEM INTO
THE PRINTED WORD = WHAT WILL THE TYPES SAY NEXT
WEEK, NEXT MONTH, NEXT YEAR?
WHAT WOULDIT WE GIVE TO KNOW?

SHE WENT FROM BAD TO WORSE

Down to 98 Pounds—Finally Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Cleveland, Ohio.—"After having my first baby, I lost weight, no matter what I did. Then a doctor told me I would be better if I had another baby, which I did. But I got worse, was always sickly and went down to 98 pounds. My neighbor told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it helped her very much, so I tried it. After taking four bottles, I weigh 116 pounds. It has just done wonders for me and I can do my housework now without one bit of trouble."
—Mrs. M. RIESINGER, 1004 Nelson Ave., Cleveland, Ohio.
If some good fairy should appear, and offer to grant your heart's desire, what would you choose? Health? Happiness?
Health? That's the best gift. Health is riches that gold cannot buy and surely health is cause enough for happiness.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound may be the good fairy who offers you better health.

Bond Street Manner
A member of the famous Philadelphia orchestra told a story the other day about Dr. Richard Strauss.
"When Strauss," he said, "was rehearsing the Covent Garden orchestra in his 'Elektra,' he didn't like the cold, restrained, unemotional manner of their playing. It was too Bond Street, as it were.
"At last, at a particularly savage passage in the music, Strauss rapped sharply with his baton and said:
"You are all playing too much like English gentlemen. Don't play like English gentlemen—play like wild beasts!"

The BABY

No mother in this enlightened age would give her baby something she did not know was perfectly harmless, especially when a few drops of plain Castoria will right a baby's stomach and end almost any little ill. Fretfulness and fever, too; it seems no time until everything is serene.
That's the beauty of Castoria; its gentle influence seems just what is needed. It does all that castor oil might accomplish, without shock to the system. Without the evil taste. It's delicious! Being purely vegetable, you can give it as often as there's a sign of colic; constipation; diarrhea; or need to aid sound, natural sleep.
Just one warning: it is genuine Fletcher's Castoria that physicians recommend. Other preparations may be just as free from all doubtful drugs, but no child of this writer's is going to test them! Besides, the book on care and feeding of babies that comes with Fletcher's Castoria is worth its weight in gold.
