Dollars in This Home Are Safely Invested

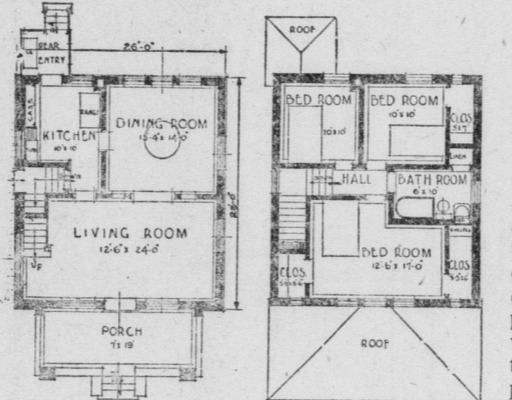

THE ONEONTA—DESIGN No. 114

ECONOMY in construction cost is always a pleasing feature of the square house. No other type approaches it in this respect, so all important to the man who is making the struggle of his lifetime to provide a home for his family. Then every dollar saved is a dollar a little more than earned.

And this little common brick home, with its fire resistant roof, its brick porch and steps, and its almost complete lack of exposed woodwork, is not only fire safe but will prove durable for beyond the ordinary.

Depreciation in the brick house is almost negligible during the first twenty years and after one has lived that long in a home he either would not sell it at any price or he wants to get rid of it and build or buy another one more to his liking architecturally. Then the advantage of the brick house proves itself in its exceptionally high resale value. It always sells quicker and at a higher price than any other kind of home.

The Coburn Brick Manufacturers' Association, Cleveland, Ohio, can furnish complete drawings for this design. Lead us on brick construction with upon request.

Three bedrooms, one exceptionally large, and the bath, comprise the second floor, ample for the average family and even affording a guest room if the family is small. For its cost this is a really exceptional home, combining comfort with a pleasing exterior.

Your ATTENTION!

WE'RE SENDING YOU OUR S. O. S. CALL!

This is the season of the year that a great many subscriptions to the Courier fall due.

That we need the money goes without saying.

Subscription statements will be mailed within a few days.

By coming to the office at once and handing us that Two dollar bill, you'll save yourself the embarrassment of receiving a statement and we'll save a two cent stamp.

Or, you can drop your remittance in the next mail.

Why not do it NOW?

Newspapers, like every other product, cost money to produce. The Courier is no exception to the rule.

Why not obey that impulse? We'll look for your remittance in the very next mail.

Thank you!

Two Cardinal Errors.

He who imagines he can do without the world deceives himself much; but he who fancies the world cannot do without him is still more mistaken.—Rochefoucauld.

Duty.

Duty, be it a small matter or a great, is duty still, the command of heaven, the eldest voice of God. And it is only they who are faithful in a few things, who will be faithful over many things.—Charles Kingsley.

Character in Countenance.

A man of integrity, sincerity and goodnature can never be concealed, for his character is wrought into his countenance.—Marcus Aurelius.

History of Freedom of Speech.

The issue of free speech is really modern, and emerged clearly as a defensible proposition only with Milton's Areopagitica, to be followed by the widely divergent reasoning of Jeremy Taylor and Joseph Glanvil, and by Locke's classical first "Letter on Toleration" (1689), which says almost as religious differences are concerned.—James H. Robinson in Atlantic.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Notes Gathered During the week by Russell Christoff

The nature study club recently organized by Miss Johnson has now taken the name of the "Weekly Scout Abouts." A short business meeting of the club was held in the Biology class room Thursday afternoon. Ed Bender, a graduate of last year's class, gave an interesting talk on the subject, "Astronomy." In the evening Ed accompanied the class to the Clay Works Hill and pointed out a few of the different stars. After the outing the class went to the Rumberger home where refreshments were served. All the Scout Abouts report a very fine time.

The nature study club is practically the only student organization of its kind in the high school. Clubs of this kind are really a help to the student because they bring about a greater interest and allow the student to learn a great many things in a recreative manner. Unfortunately we do not have other clubs in the other departments.

Lambkin has written a little poem about our Hero. We are very sorry it can't be printed here on account of its length. If you would like to read it, ask our Hero.

The Honorable Deane Mayovitch paid us a visit Friday afternoon.

After the piano tuner had finished tuning the piano in the assembly hall last Wednesday, he favored the high school with two very pretty selections, which the student in approval displayed.

Mary Anna had a "spill" in plane geometry class yesterday morning.

Favorite expressions by famous people: "It's twenty to Twelve," Alvin Karpis; "It's nuna business," by Howard Brown; "Write the lesson five times," Mrs. Bennett.

The members of the football team are very proud of their new letters. They were received last week, and the boys lost no time in having them displayed.

Harry Noonan and Walter Jenkins were given ringside seats at the special class on Tuesday afternoon. Both boys were highly honored.

A special meeting of the Senior class was called on Tuesday afternoon, at which Mr. Bosserman presided. The meeting was held in the history class room.

Margie Corby of Berwick, visited the high school on Wednesday.

Rita Wirtner held a surprise party on Elizabeth Choby last week. Rita had a little program of entertainment arranged for the evening which proved to be both interesting and pleasing to the guests. A delicious lunch made the evening complete.

Those attending were: Betty and Dorothy Cox, Rita Wirtner, Margaret Haluska, Helen and Pauline Dvorachak, Frances Bender, Anna and Betty Cooper, Elizabeth Choby, Cyril Wirtner, Andrew Collar, John Hudak, Emory and Lewis Haluska, and Joe Choby.

In yesterday's chemistry lesson, it said that "After is found in certain dry countries of Asia." Now why couldn't it be found here in the United States? A mucrodrier place couldn't be had.

Billy McAfee was a business caller in Carrolltown on Saturday afternoon.

They tell me George Murray, is the brightest boy in the Cicero class.

We received our report cards Monday afternoon, and judging the way some of the students feel about them, it would be well not to hand them out again this term.

Physics note books are due tomorrow afternoon.

Quite a few students were absent from school on Friday and Monday, celebrating the Greek holidays.

Here's a few nicknames that are going about the school—Nunia, Little Red, Smutter, Honey, Yonko, Windy and the Little Shannon Boy. Do you know who they are?

The Junior class has a new poem to memorize. The name of it is "The Chicken." Sounds good, doesn't it?

Peg Petretsky went shopping in Altoona on Saturday afternoon.

She would like to have Cornelia Rumberger's name shortened. All right. Where shall we start.

Members of the biology class are busy making posters concerning the mosquito.
