WHY HE LEFT
"What is there about me that interests you so much?" asked the caller, irritably.
"I was just looking at your ears," remarked five-year-old Flossie.
"Well, what's the matter with them?" demanded the caller.
"Nothing that I can see," replied the kid, "but mamma said they must've been burning up the day you didn't come to the club, but they don't even look scorched, do they?"
Then She Woke Up
It was a lecture about modern women - by one of them.
"Do you know," she cried to her audience, "that our present style of sensible clothing has reduced accidents on trains, trolleys and busses by at least 50 per cent?"
She paused to let this sink in, when a male voice from the rear boomed forth:
"But why not do away with accidents altogether?"

Hubby (savagely) - If this can't be called quarreling, what shall we call it?
Wife (stalking off) - Let's call it quits.

Citizen's Privilege
To be a citizen is great. Assuring a position proud. If I can't be a candidate, at least I'll holler with the crowd.

Good Advice
Producer (interrupting singer at voice trial) - Does that end the first verse, miss?
Singer - Well, I've got to where it says "Refrain."
"Good! Please do as it says!"

Lots of Time Yet!
Mabel - I simply must buy Doris a birthday present before it's too late.
Harry - Oh, that clock is 15 minutes fast!

A NATURAL ADVANTAGE

On a Diet
Steno (to impudent office boy) - Well, what's on your little, narrow mind now?
Boy - You always make me think of Friday.
Steno - And why?
Boy - No meat.

Wealth
Heck - Wouldn't you like to be rich enough to do as you please?
Peck - To be happy I'd have to be rich enough to do as my wife pleased.

Fair Warning
Miss (to departing maid who has asked for a reference) - Of course, Mary, I shall have to tell Mrs. Brown about your ungovernable temper.
Mary - Glad to have you, mum. It'll make her mind her p' and q's.

Evolution
The Snob - The Fitz-Smythes come of very old stock.
The Cynic - Yes. Their family tree goes back to the time when they lived in it.
