HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Notes Gathered During the week by Russell Christoff

There was a meeting in the Assembly Hall on Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of selecting cheer leaders. Strange as it may seem, not one boy turned out. Other years we have always had a few boys among our cheer leaders, but this year it looks as though the girls will have to take the matter over into their hands alone, unless there are some real He-Men who will step forward. Rhea, Winka, Binx, Issy Whiteford, Louise Beck, Myrtle Way and Grace Dillon comprise the group thus far. All songs cheerers are to be handed to Winka Beck.

Next Saturday there will be a track meet between Cresson High and Portage High, at Cresson. The meet will begin at 2:30 P. M. and the admission fee will be twenty-five cents. Mr. Roth says it would be well for us to go and pick up a few pointers.

Messrs. Roy and Clair Brungart attended a fire sale recently. You've seen their new sweaters, haven't you?

Mary Anna spent the week end with friends and relatives in Cresson.

Miss Johnson's Biology class held an Arbor Day program last Friday. The students gave interesting reports about trees of Pennsylvania and also birds. Each group made up their own program.

Esther Anderson visited friends and relatives in Ambsry on Friday night. Leona Bender called on friends in Chest Springs on Saturday.

Joe McAfee tells us he is going to celebrate the close of school by getting a new necktie.

Everyone seems to be humming the new song we have learned—The Nighthingale.

Howard Brown, Rose Biller, Honey Hoover, Louise Beck, and George Mayovich attended the midnight show on Sunday night.

The Senior shorthand class has had several 80-word and 100-word tests during the last week. These were counted as final examinations in shorthand.

Helen Boley and Anna Mary Long enjoyed the study of the automobile immensely. Just ask them!

I wonder why the Thinker (Don Illig) came "extra" late to school on Tuesday morning.

The wooden medal goes to George Murray this week. He acted as a chemic and fixed the bell in the study hall on Tuesday. It seems very queer that the bell won't stay fixed.

Billy McAfee spent last Thursday evening in Altoona.

I say, Chic Crowell, what's the attraction over at the Patton Wholesale Grocery Co.?

Now they tell us Binx doesn't like Hoffman's Ice Cream. Why?

On Tuesday afternoon two distinguished gentlemen called at the school and visited the Senior Shorthand, Physics, and Senior History classes. These two gentlemen were none other than Our Billy (himself), and the Hon. Clark W. Heist. They enjoyed their visit, and intend to come again very soon.

What's matter with Betty Grant's finger? Who stepped on it?

John Thomas came to school like a lamb on Tuesday morning, and left the study hall like a lion, during the fourth period.

And Mr. William Brochi attended the fire sale, too.

Rhea and Winka spent Sunday afternoon with friends in Spangler.

Gertrude Durbin attended the dance in Chest Springs on Saturday night.

The Midgets presented a very pleasing little vaudeville act last Friday night. Their show was very well attended, and everybody liked "Betty Armstrong's" Act. Note—If you do not know "Betty Armstrong," you're "out."

The State Commercial Contest will be held at the Indiana State Teachers' College at Indiana on May 12th. Patton High School will be represented by the following entrants: Cecelia Hritz, Mildred Bearer, Shorthand I.

Anna Hetsko, Penmanship.

Kathryn Bender, Leona Bender, Bookkeeping II.

Jack Boback, Bookkeeping I.

Stella Karousky, Typewriting II.

Doris Kane, Andrew Bookmuck, Shorthand II.

Why not have our Scouts direct "traffic" in the halls between classes? There is quite a jam at times.

At last I have found out why the high school girl never cries. Just look at the price of face powder.

Freshman Notes.

Bob Little visited in Altoona last week, and went to see Harold Lloyd in "Speedy" at the Strand Theatre.

Who are the two Freshies who rode in the house on wheels?

Pete Pandola, famous boxer, recently fought a three round bout with Joey Carretti. The fight was a draw.

Miss Overberger has started the Spring House Cleaning Movement over in the old building.

Vernetta Eckenrode is back in the school again after an illness of two weeks.

Are Louise Beck and Izzy Whiteford the only volunteers for cheer leaders from the Freshman class?

RECENT DEATHS IN THE COUNTY

Folks in the Neighboring Communities Who Have Crossed the Great Divide.

Mrs. Ellen Waltz.
As the result of a broken hip, sustained last Thursday morning, when she fell while getting out of bed, Mrs. Ellen Stolz Waltz, aged 87, one of the oldest and best known residents of Carrolltown, died at 4 o'clock on Saturday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Cole.

The deceased was the widow of George M. Waltz, a Civil War veteran, whose death occurred at Carrolltown in 1920. She was born in Carrolltown and had lived there all her life. She was a daughter of John and Barbara Stolz.

Mrs. Waltz is survived by these children: William Waltz, of Baltimore, Md.; Harry Waltz and Mrs. Henry Waltz and Mrs. G. M. White, both of Olean, N. Y.; and Benno Waltz, of Hastings.

Funeral services were held at nine o'clock on Monday morning in St. Benedict's church at Carrolltown, with a solemn high mass of requiem, and interment was in the church cemetery.

Paul Diehl.
Paul Diehl, aged 70 years, formerly of Sealp Level, died Monday at the county home where he had been an inmate since October 3, last, of a complication of diseases. He had been admitted to the county institution from the Memorial hospital, Johnstown. The deceased had worked as a miner for many years.

Louis Petit.
Louis Petit, aged 80 years, a well known resident of Martindale, near Portage, died of a complication of diseases on Saturday at his home. He is survived by his widow and several children.

Mrs. Mary N. Campbell.
Mrs. Mary Null Campbell, wife of James E. Campbell, died of a complication of diseases on Sunday at her home in Swissvale, Pa. She was a former resident of Carrolltown, but the family has resided in Swissvale for about 15 years. She is survived by a number of brothers and sisters, including Joseph Null, of Carrolltown.

John Sullita.
John Sullita, aged about 48 years, father of 13 children, was found dead in bed at his home in Barnesboro at nine o'clock last Thursday morning. Death was attributed to heart trouble. Besides the children the deceased also leaves his widow.

DR. F. U. FERGUSON IS DEAD AT GALLITZIN
Dr. Frank Ulysses Ferguson, aged 63 years, a prominent physician and one of the leading citizens of Gallitzin, died suddenly of apoplexy at his home about 6 o'clock on Monday morning. He expired a short time after suffering the stroke. Physicians were immediately summoned but he died before medical assistance could be given him.

His sudden death was a great shock to his family and many friends in Gallitzin and throughout Cambria county. He was apparently enjoying good health and Monday night he and his wife spent the evening at the home of a son. The doctor retired about 11 o'clock and was in the best of spirits.

Dr. Ferguson was born in Blairsville and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson, both deceased. His mother died in Gallitzin last February.

The deceased is survived by his widow, Mrs. Margaret Bradley Ferguson, and two sons, Alvan A. and Paul Ferguson, both of Gallitzin. He also leaves five grand children and these brothers and sisters: Mrs. E. C. Ryder of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Mrs. Rebecca Torrence, and Charles and George Ferguson, all of Blairsville, and James Ferguson of Port Arthur, Texas.

Dr. Ferguson was a physician for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for many years. He was president of the Gallitzin School Board and also president of the Citizens' Deposit Bank of Gallitzin. He was a member of the Cambria County Medical Society and the Ebensburg Council, K. of C. He was also active in Red Cross work.

MRS. ROSE BRAWLEY, OF CARROLLTOWN, DEAD
Mrs. Rose Brawley, aged 55 years, wife of William Brawley of Carrolltown, died at her home there at 6:10 o'clock on Saturday morning. Death was caused by a complication of diseases. Mrs. Brawley had been in ill health for several years.

The funeral services were held at 9 o'clock on Tuesday morning in St. Benedict's Catholic church, Carrolltown, with a solemn requiem high mass. The Rev. Malachi Brawley, O. S. B., of St. Vincents' College, Beatty Pa., a son of the deceased being the celebrant, with the Rev. Alto Hecker, O. S. B., of Johnstown, as deacon, and the Rev. Father Thomas, O. S. B., of Carrolltown, as sub-deacon. A number of visiting clergy were also present.

Mrs. Brawley was born in Barr township on May 2, 1872. She was a daughter of Jacob and Mary Lieb Weiland. She leaves her husband, William A. Brawley, of Carrolltown; the Rev. Father Malachi, mentioned above, and Mrs. Edward Reilly, of Akron, Ohio. These brothers and sisters also survive: Peter and Valentine Weiland, Mrs. Henry Krug and Mrs. Thomas Dumm, of Nicktown; Joseph Weiland of Spangler and Henry Weiland of Heilwood.
