THEIR CHOICE

In a recent intelligence test given in a high school there was this sentence: "A mother is — than her daughter." Underneath were the words, "wiser, taller, older," and the pupil was supposed to fill in the blank in the sentence with the most appropriate of the words. Did they do it? Fully half the class ignored the given words altogether and filled in the sentence to read: "A mother is more wrinkled than her daughter."—Springfield Union.

HE MIGHT BE RIGHT

He—She's an angel in disguise. She—You may be right—it's a complete disguise.

Superfluous Advice

"Oh, be not hasty, friend," I cried. "Think twice o'er all you utter." "I cannot help it," he replied. "I stut-tut-tut-tut."

A Hundred Per Center

"You say he is a typical American patriot, but what do you mean by that?" "That he hangs out the flag on holidays if reminded of it, hums the national anthem after the second line, forgets to register and kicks about the men the others have voted into office."

Terribly Abused

"Opposition! Opposition!" she cried distractedly. "I've met with nothing else all my life." "What's the matter, dear?" Inquired her friend. "My parents objected when I wanted to marry him, and now he kicks because I want a divorce."

Good Method

Mrs. Mugg—Do you believe in auto-suggestion? Mrs. Gugg—Well, that's how we got our car. "How was that?" "I suggested it to my husband every day and every night until he finally bought one."

A Happy Widow

I know a widow who is supremely happy. When other widows weep from loneliness, she continues to smile. And I do not blame her: I knew her husband, an exceeding disagreeable man.—E. W. Howe's Monthly.

IN THE FLAT

Wife—These rooms are so small I haven't room to press my clothes. Hubby—You should use a flat iron, of course.

Ouch!

"Oh, there are other fish in the sea," said rejected Mr. Gimps. "Quite true," the maid said merrily. "But they do not bite at shrimps."

Babies Don't

Shop Assistant—This doll is like a real baby. It will close its eyes and go to sleep when you lay it down. Weary Parent—But I thought you said it was like a real baby?

According to Plan

Do you think your dad would say anything if I told him we were going to be married? "I don't know but I fancy he'd say something if you told him we weren't."

Exception

"Doctor Lewin has found out that men's intelligence can be judged by their collars—the lower the collars the higher the intelligence." "Who is Doctor Lewin?" "That man with the high collar."

Reason Enough

Gilbert—Never tell a girl you love her. Gordon—Why not? Gilbert—She'll probably believe you.
