Y., where she will be the house guest of E. E. Christoff and the Misses Margaret and Emma Louise Christoff, formerly of Patton. Edgar Bradley, for the past several years a teacher in the Carrolltown office, left on Tuesday for a motor trip to Tucson, Arizona. Prof. Michael Kurtz, assistant principal of the Carrolltown High School, of East Pittsburgh, joined Mr. Bradley at the Smoky City. The motorists will go leisurely to their destination, many stops being planned en route, among them places of interest to tourists. Their stay in the southwest is indefinite. Mr. Bradley may remain for some time. Mr. Kurtz will return in the fall to assume his teaching duties at Carrolltown. Needless to say, the Courier force will miss Ed, and we hope his trip will be one of real pleasure. If no doubt will, for the attraction that draws him to the far-off southwest is well known to most of our readers.

J. Edward Stevens, of Carrolltown, returned to his home Saturday night after being several days in Philadelphia where he attended the funeral directors' convention which was held in that city last week.

Humor has it that the balance of the towns in Northern Cambria have gone back to standard time. So far, Patton has been operating on the daylight saving method.

Thursday afternoon closing of the stores of the North of the County will start for the summer after the Fourth of July.

Herbert Hoover of California, Secretary of Commerce, was nominated for president of the United States at the Republican Convention in Kansas City, last week.

Charles Curtis, United States Senator from Kansas was the vice presidential nominee. The Democratic ticket will be held at Houston, Texas next week.

Al Smith, governor of New York, seems to have carried enough delegates to make his nomination assured on an early ballot.

NEW BULLETIN GIVES FARM DATA OF PENNSYLVANIA

What is regarded as probably the most comprehensive compilation of the Pennsylvania Agricultural data ever issued in bulletin form is now available for free distribution.

Paul L. Koenig, agricultural statistician of the Federal Crop reporting service, announced at Harrisburg during the week and the livestock in the Commonwealth. It is the first time that much of this information has been assembled.

The forepart of the publication deals briefly with topography, climate, soils and forests, followed by a statistical study of the Pennsylvania data from the United States Agricultural census of 1925.

There are almost forty tables of county information, historical tables of state crop production and livestock numbers from 1896 to January 1, 1928.

Monthly farm price data and the Weaver price index and purchase power series. Where warranted for purposes of comparison, information for other states and the United States is given.

There are twenty-two charts and maps, a handy bulletin reference list and a complete index.

The title of the bulletin is: "Pennsylvania's Farms, Crops, and Livestock." Requests should be addressed to the Bureau of the Department of Agriculture at Harrisburg.

198 COMPLETE NEW TEACHING STANDARDS IN THIS STATE

During the school year just closed, 198 college certificates were issued to graduates of Pennsylvania State Normal Schools, practically all of which have now advanced to the Teacher's College plane.

The first degree under the new teachers' college regulation, was granted in June, 1927.

Under this plan a graduate in a four year curriculum leading to a degree, is first given a provisional college certificate, which is a valid license to teach in the public schools of Pennsylvania for three years.

The certificate becomes permanent when the holder shows evidence of three years of successful teaching experience in the public schools of Pennsylvania and the completion of six semester hours of additional approved training.

The permanent college certificate is the highest grade of teachers license issued by the Department of Public Instruction.

CONTINUE SURVEY OF ROAD WATER SUPPLY

The work of examining the semi-public water supplies along the state highways is progressing rapidly, according to Henry P. Drake, engineer in charge of the work for the State Health Department.

Original examinations and analyses have been made for the counties of York, Adams, Fayette, Somerset, Franklin, Fulton, Bedford, Blair, Cambria, Washington and Allegheny.

Drake stated that twenty per cent more supplies had been examined in these counties than during last year's surveys. This was explained on the basis of increased retirement stands along the roadside as well as examination of fall private pumps, wells, or springs that were close to the traveled roads.

BEARER CHILD DIES

Mary Ione Bearer, daughter of Paul F. and Ione (Carter) Bearer, died on Tuesday at the parental home in St. Augustine, Florida, where the Bearer family has resided since 1926.

Her death was due to spasms. Mr. Bearer at one time was a Patton resident.

WALTER SKIBO

Walter Skibo, aged 47 years, died of a complication of diseases at his home in South Fork on Tuesday. He leaves his widow and several children.

The funeral services were held at 9 o'clock this Thursday morning in St. Anthony's church. Interment was in the church cemetery.

SIX ADDITIONAL FIRE TOWERS ARE PLANNED

Six new steel forest fire observation towers, each one eighty feet in height, will be erected in Pennsylvania this summer.

The towers sites will be as follows: Big Shiny Mountain, southern Lackawanna county; Leontonia, at the Lycoming-Tioga county line; Tussey Mountain, near the border line of Huntington and Blair counties; Washington Springs, Southern Fayette county; Clearfield county; Clarion county.

There are at present 110 steel forest fire observation towers that have been erected in all parts of the state at a cost of $122,388.

Most of these towers are sixty feet in height, but it has been found necessary to use higher towers on account of increased forest fire growth.

TREES WILL SCREEN THE PITTSBURGH HILLS

The Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Game, co-operating with the city planning commission of Pittsburgh is making the hillsides green in the vicinity of the once this spring a small transplant forest nursery was established to grow thrifty planting stock for this project.

The trees will be used for protection of bare and eroded hills about Pittsburgh and will be a big factor in bringing about the beautification of these barren slopes, it is believed.

GIVEN RARE FEWTER SET

The state museum at Harrisburg is the proud possessor of an ancient six piece tea set in almost perfect condition.

It was donated to the State Museum by Miss Helen M. Magee, of Wrightsville, in the name of her brother, the late Robert Magee, of Harrisburg.

The pewter set was made by Dixon and Son, of London, England, about 1749, and consists of two tea pots, two sugar bowls, one cream pitcher and a large tray.

The pewter has been in the Magee family for many generations. It now forms the most valuable part of the state museum's exhibit of pewter ware.

CLARENCE R. DUNLAP

Clarence R. Dunlap, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Randall Dunlap of Cherrytree, died of septic poisoning at the parental home on Tuesday.

The funeral services will be held at the Dunlap home at 2 o'clock this Thursday afternoon, and the body will be brought to Patton for interment in Fairview cemetery.

BANDITS ARE NOT SO BAD

Chester—Bandits are not so bad as they are painted, according to John Zeigler, night attendant at a gasoline station near here.

Early Tuesday Zeigler telephoned police that he had been held up by three bandits who drove up in a roadster, commanded him to stick up his hands, but only took $5, thanked him, and drove away.

MOTORISTS HALTED

Revocation of the license of Abe Jenkins, the well known automobile test driver of Pittsburgh for his sixty-miles an hour dash up the Summit Hill at Uniontown will result in the entire elimination of motor tests on this hill.

The stretch of mountain to the Summit hotel, about three or four miles of sweeping curves and steep ascent, has been classed as one of the best motor tests in the country and virtually all motor manufacturers try out their motors there at least once a year.

HAS THIRTEEN OF THEM

William T. Waltman of near Lancaster, trapped an opossum and placed it in a box. Tuesday morning he had 13. The mother opossum had carried the 12 young ones in a pouch concealed from the hunter.

Waltman fed the mother and liberated her and her brood in a patch of timber.

ROBBERS ARE BUSY

While Williamsburg, Blair county, residents, celebrate the achievement of Wilmer L. Stultz, co-pilot of The Friendship, in flying across the Atlantic, seven homes of residents were robbed of money and jewelry.

Police arrested Warren Hamilton, 17, and some of the valuables were recovered, he being held for court.

SNAKE, SPIDER BITE BOY

For fear of worrying his mother, Charles Miller of Lancaster did not reveal that he was bitten by a snake and a huge spider while delivering his newspapers early on Sunday morning.

He is now a hospital patient as a result. A fair sized crowd was in attendance at the dance at Sunset Park last evening, when Ben Pollack's orchestra was the dance attraction.
