REDUCE DEATH TOLL OF THE INFANTS' DISEASES

Dr. Emyln Jones, chief of the bureau of vital statistics, this week reported that there were 2234 deaths in Pennsylvania last year from diarrhea and enteritis in children under two years of age. It is pointed out that this is equivalent to only 28 per one hundred thousand population, which is considerably less than in most sections of the country.

The report said that the heaviest infant mortality in Pennsylvania is in January, February and March, although the death rates for diarrhea and enteritis are greater under two years, in August, September and October.

Concluding his report, Dr. Jones said, "In this state the death rate from diarrheal diseases has been reduced so low that it is no longer the chief determining factor in the infant mortality rate, as it was years ago."

FAMILY TYPHOID IS THE SUBJECT OF A WARNING

A warning was issued this week relative to so-called family typhoid fever by Dr. Harold B. Wood, one of the experts of the state health department in the control of epidemics.

"A number of such cases are now under investigation," said Dr. Wood. "Frequently, it is possible to locate a carrier within the family group but just as often it is difficult to discover the particular member who is the infecting source. The administration of anti-typhoid vaccine will make it practically impossible for others in the family to become infected. The treatment is recommended where typhoid fever is found in more than one member of the family, and an outside source of contamination has not been located."

PATTON HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT SUCCUMBS

Daniel McDevitt, Seventeen, Expires at Parental Home in St. Benedict.

Daniel McDevitt, the seventeen year old son of Thomas and Gertrude (Nolan) McDevitt, of St. Benedict, died of diabetes at the parental home on Sunday night last.

The funeral services were held at 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning at St. Benedict's Catholic church in Carrolltown. Following the celebration of a high mass of requiem over the remains, interment was made in the church cemetery.

Daniel McDevitt, was a student of the Patton High School, and would have been in the Senior Class this year. He was one of the leading athletes in the school, and was well and popularly known by the nickname of "Irish." His death comes as a blow to the entire student body, as well as to the many friends in this community who knew him.

The deceased is survived by his parents, above mentioned, and by the following brothers and sisters: Max, of Spangler; Hugh, of Denew, N. Y.; Ivo, Jerome and Richard, all at home; Mrs. J. S. Wisoki, of Wilksburg; Sister Aurelia, of Scranton, and Rose and May, registered nurses, both at home.

WOMAN DISPLAYS GRIT AS MOWER MANGLES HER LEGS

With one leg cleanly severed just above the ankle, and the other badly mangled by a mowing machine, Mrs. Elizabeth Ellenberger, aged 61, of near Punxsutawney, not only did not lose consciousness, but yelled for help until a brother-in-law, working in a field nearby, came to her assistance and rendered first aid.

Mrs. Ellenberger, who is a widow, living with her daughter on a farm, was mowing grain. She stepped off the mower, forgetting to shut off the power, which operates the knives of the machine, and she was taken to a hospital when the horses started. The knives caught her legs, severing the left one as clean as though it had been done by a surgeon, and mangle the tendons of the other. She fell to the ground and yelled at the top of her voice.

The brother-in-law found her lying in the grain, entirely conscious, blood spurting into the air. Taking the strings with which the woman tied her stockings, he bound the limbs tightly, shutting off the bleeding arteries and carried her to her home. An ambulance was summoned and she was taken to a Punxsutawney hospital, where her condition is reported as good.

She did not lose consciousness during her trip to the hospital and told the story of the accident to the driver of the ambulance as clearly as if it had happened to some one else. Grit and endurance, attending physicians stated, is nothing short of remarkable.

LARGEST OF THE COUNTY BANKS

Johnstown City Only Boasts of Bigger Institution Than the Patton First National.

In the merging of the First National Bank of Patton and the Grange National Bank of Patton, soon to take place, under the title of the First National Bank of Patton, the new institution will boast of the largest bank in Cambria County outside of the City of Johnstown. By the merger, the assets of the First National Bank, of about $2,000,000 and the assets of the Grange National Bank, of about $1,500,000, will be added to the assets of about $3,775,000, with a surplus of $200,000 and a surplus of $200,000.

In the rush of getting the Courier to press last week we inadvertently stated the total resources at a much lower figure.

Plans for the merger of the two banks are now under way, and until the extensive remodeling in the Good Building to house the new bank, are completed, the business will be transacted in the present Grange National Bank building.

WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST DECLARES FOR MR. HOOVER

William Randolph Hearst, newspaper publisher, and formerly a candidate for the Democratic nomination for president, in a cable from Paris, has declared for Herbert Hoover.

Hearst stated his opposition to the Prohibition stand of Governor Smith, whom he labelled as a Tammany candidate.

The Democratic party is "endeavoring to make its opposition to prohibition the dominant issue of the campaign," he asserted, adding that in his opinion it was a "false issue."

The real issue, he declared, is the people's wealth and welfare, their material and spiritual benefits.

FARMERS INTEND TO PLANT LESS WHEAT IN THE STATE

Pennsylvania farmers have indicated their intention to seed a winter wheat acreage 1 per cent less than the planting last fall, in the reports of the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service of the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture.

If these plans are carried through, the Pennsylvania wheat plantings this fall will total 2,310,000 acres, compared with the estimated plantings of 1,243,000 acres in the fall of 1927. The intended acreage this fall is also 12,000 acres less than the plantings intended for the fall of 1927, when farmers were enabled by the favorable weather to seed the acreage planned in August.

The average abandonment of wheat during the past 10 years has been 2.9 per cent of the planted area. With average abandonment this season, the intended seeding would net a harvest of 1,950,000 acres, compared with 1,144,000 acres harvested this summer.

Pennsylvania's intended wheat acreage is 7.4 per cent less than the average fall planting from 1909 to 1913; 15 per cent lower than the 1913-1918 average, and 6.7 per cent below the 1919-1923 average.

WELL, THE MOVING CAME ALONG VERY SMOOTHLY.

The Courier this week for the first, comes from the new location in the Masonic Building, in the form of the Barton and Winslow store rooms. The moving, of course, has crippled our job department to a certain extent, but we expect to be in a position in a few days to handle any and everything that comes our way. We feel, too, that in our larger and more prominent quarters, we will be able to render a printing service that the community justifies, and now are considering the purchase of additional machinery to make our already modern plant just a little better. And, in the meantime, may we not ask you all to pay any subscription accounts in arrears. It really is a costly proposition to move.

HUNTERS WELCOMED HERE.

"No Trespass" signs are so common on the privately owned forests all over Pennsylvania that the signs of "Hunters and others are welcome" posted promiscuously on a forest area are rare. A forest with these signs recently was inspected by John W. Keller, chief of the bureau of forest examination of the Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters, in his examination of private forest tree plantations.

The forest is located in Bradford county, about ten miles from Canton on the top of the Allegheny plateau, and is owned by E. M. Richards. The area comprises more than 1000 acres of a natural stand of beech, birch and maple, from eight to fifty feet in height. Recently Richards planted 46,000 forest tree seedlings on a portion of the abandoned farm area, and Keller reports that fully 90 per cent are living and making rapid growth.

REVOKES DRIVERS' CARDS.

During the period the Department revoked the licenses of 76 drivers and placed the names of 20 others on its blacklist.

As usual, driving while intoxicated was the leading revocation cause. Thirty-seven drivers lost their right to operate motor cars on that ground, while 14 were penalized for transporting liquor. There were only three revocations for reckless driving.

TED WEEMS AGAIN COMING TO SUNSET

Popular Jazz Music Manufacturers Back Here for Third Time This Season.

One of the most enjoyable surprises of the season to dance patrons at the ever popular Sunset Auditorium will be the announcement that Ted Weems and his orchestra are coming back to the amusement place for the third time this season. So popular has this band of musicians been that patrons of Sunset have been clamoring for another booking, and it was only by extreme good fortune that Manager Luther was able to secure them again.

Ted Weems needs no introduction to the local dance lovers. His music is on a par with any of the very best dance orchestras in the land. On the opening dance at Sunset on Easter Monday and at a date this summer the dance pavilion was packed to capacity. Surely no greater acclaim than this can be accorded any orchestra.

Plan to attend the dance at Sunset on Wednesday evening of next week, September 12th. You'll enjoy it.

SCOUTS MAKE COUNCIL RING AT COMPANY'S SPRING

During the last few weeks, the Scouts with the aid of Mr. Flemming have been clearing the ground in a small group of trees near the coal company's spring.

Rustic benches have been made and a council ring has been set off by white stones. In the center of the ring is the base on which the council fire rests.

The Scouts held their first meeting at the ring Friday night. The boys marched out and soon had a fire going. Then Mr. Flemming lined up the program of Scouting for the coming year. He said that every hike would have an instruction purpose back of it. He also said that the Scouts would prove certain theories of nature, as the story that the tree grows more in the night than in the day.

Mr. Quinn then reminded the Scouts that another slogan of Scouts was "Do a good turn daily." He urged the boys to practice that slogan.

Following this talk the boys sang, "America," and as the moon rose and began to show its gleams of orange through the trees, the bugler who was standing among the trees, played the wonder verse of Scouting, "Taps."

ARRANGING RALLY OF COUNTY REPUBLICAN WOMEN SEPT. 14TH

Arrangements are being made for the holding of the annual rally of the Republican Women's Organization of Cambria County on Friday, September 14th, at Halesen Place, the Hon. Sara M. Gallaher's estate on the outskirts of Ebensburg. Mrs. Minnie S. Dibert, chairman of the organization, has announced. The officers are in touch with several speakers of note and they hope to line up one of the best programs given in connection with the rallies.

At this gathering the women will launch their campaign in the interest of the Republican candidates. The rally will start in the morning and continue through the day, the members to take lunch boxes, as is the custom. Under the direction of Mrs. J. Ross Home, chairman of the music committee, an entertainment program, to which the organization's glee club will contribute, is being arranged.

WILL CURTAIL TREE PLANTING BECAUSE OF DEER DAMAGE

Until damage by deer has been reduced, employees of the Board of game commissioners will curtail their annual reforestation work in such sections, W. Gard Conklin, chief of the Bureau of Lands and Refuges, said during the week.

Conklin cited two instances where persistent damage by deer has caused refuge keepers to declare that their efforts to reforest nearby land has been futile.

George Ryder, keeper of refuge No. 12, in Bradford county, reported that practically all of the 117,370 forest tree seedlings which he planted have been destroyed. The planting covered a six year period and each year an increasing percentage of the seedlings which had survived were destroyed.

AL JOLSON IN THE BEST OF THE YEAR

That Means That "The Jazz Singer" Is Coming to Patton for Three Days.

The announcement that Warner Bros. will bring their greatest motion picture success, "The Jazz Singer," starring Al Jolson, to the Grand Theatre on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, is of prime importance. It is heralded as an epic of the screen and marks the debut of Jolson as a moving picture star.

Since its opening in New York at the Warner theatre, where its success was instantaneous, it has established a record of capacity audiences at every performance. The story of "The Jazz Singer" is well known, and yet, under the direction of Alan Crossland, who has treated the story in the spirit in which it was conceived, there has been added a note of great beauty and pathos in the depiction of the rise of the son of the cantor who deserted his home to be a jazz singer, for it parallels the life story of Al Jolson himself. It is a picture which arouses its audiences to cheers.

Another noteworthy fact that will interest Patton folks is that special arrangements have been provided for the management of the Grand theatre in order to give this picture the sound effect.

TRUMAN STRESSES DOE LICENSE RULING FOR THE HUNTERS

It is not necessary for a hunter to send his resident hunters' license to the county treasurer where he makes application for a special doe license. John B. Truman, executive secretary of the Board of Game Commissioners, stated this week that the board has received a number of queries regarding the proper procedure to secure a special doe license.

In making application for the doe license in counties whose quota has not yet been exhausted, Truman said that the number of doe licenses issued must be given. The same information regarding age, height, color of hair and eyes, necessary for a resident license, also is required for the special issue.

Truman also reiterated the provision governing the obtaining of the regular resident license. Many hunters evidently believe it is necessary to secure a resident license in the county in which he intends to hunt for doe. A resident license issued in any county permits the hunter to make application for the doe license.

FIGHT RESULTS.

Results of the boxing show at the Fair Grounds at Ebensburg Monday night last were as follows: Johnny Chiodo of Johnstown, was awarded the decision over Mickey Hart of New Kensington.

The Bobby Amster-Teddy Welsh bout was stopped by the referee in the 4th round in Amster's favor.

Rudy Cedars of Tarentum won the decision over Bobby Richardson of Portage.

Larry Brignolia of Erie was given the decision over Harry (Kid) Brown of Philadelphia.

ANOTHER AUTO MISHAP.

Mrs. James G. Wolfe, Mrs. Joseph Kantner and Miss Thelma Kantner, all of Johnstown, were painfully injured about 3:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon when an automobile in which they were riding and driven by Mrs. Wolfe's son-in-law, D. W. Grazer, figured in a collision with another machine, said to have been driven by a man named Altmyer, of Altoona. The accident occurred on the Cresson-Loretto highway, about two miles from the Hall-Way Inn. Both machines were badly damaged.

TELLS HOW TO KILL HARDY TREE STUMPS

"How can I prevent Carolina poplar stumps from sprouting?" is a question frequently asked the Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters.

Experiments have proven that the following formula is effective: Arsenic, 1 pound; washing soda, 1 pound; water, 4 gallons. To prepare this solution, dissolve the soda in a convenient amount of water. Then add the arsenic previously made into a thin paste, with the remainder of the water. Bore several holes into the stump, six to eight inches in depth and pour the solution into the holes and around the base of the stump. This will invariably destroy the entire root growth.

Where it is the desire to remove the entire stump when on a lawn or near a pavement so as to cause as little damage as possible, an effective method is to bore a hole in the center of the stump about eighteen inches deep and one and one-half inches in diameter, in the fall. Pour in about two ounces of salt petre and fill the holes with water; then plug it up tight. In the spring take out the plug and pour in eight to ten ounces of petroleum, ignite, and the stump will smoulder, but not blaze, to the extremity of the roots.

TRAINS ARE DETAINED.

Passenger trains over the Middle Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad were detained for four hours last Sunday when four tracks were blocked at Millfin, due to a freight wreck. Seven cars were piled up. No one was injured.

TWO MEN INJURED.

Louis Ball, aged 53 years and Peter Dufay, 38, both residents of Spangler, were painfully injured Sunday when hit by a motor bus, while walking along the main highway. Both suffered contusions and abrasions. They were taken to the Miners' hospital. They were discharged on Monday afternoon.

GAMES PLAYED IN CHURCH LEAGUE

A Summary of What Transpired in Local Baseball Circles During the Week.

St. George's vs. St. Mary's. With the regular moundmen of both sides off duty for this game, the prospects for a slugfest were good. However, each pitcher worked well, keeping his opponent's hits well scattered, with the resulting low score of 4 to 3 in favor of St. George's. The Cardinals bunched several hits in the third inning to come from behind and tie the count at 3 to 3. Taking a one run lead in the same game, the Cardinals were able to hold it to the end. By winning this game St. George's strengthened their hold on first place. Batteries—St. George's—Stasko and Bordsky. St. Mary's—Lacy and Mangold.

Russians vs. Presbyterians. The Russians found it difficult in defeating the Presbyterians Thursday evening. Jumping into an early lead in the first they hit and fielded well for the rest of the game to win 8 to 4. P. Baranick's steadiness with men on base kept the Presbyterians from scoring several times. "Pat" Baranick surprised the fans, proving that he too could run all the way around the bases without a rest, when he hit a four-bagger with one on. The batteries—Russians—Baranick and Capko. Presbyterians—Patterson and Brochi.

St. George's vs. Presbyterians.

For the third time this season St. George's defeated the Presbyterians by an overwhelming score, the latest being a 16-8 count. Stasko started for St. George's but after being nicked for several runs, was replaced by Hudak. Beunier pitched for the Presbyterians, but had all chances appearing ruined by the poor fielding back of him. The batteries—St. George's—Stasko and Bordsky. Presbyterians—Beunier and Patterson.

SS. Peter and Paul vs. St. Mary's.

On Tuesday evening Skordinsky, the star twirler of the SS. Peter and Paul team, entered the mythical hall of fame when during the contest he reached the goal of all pitchers—a no hit, no run game. The score was 4 to 0. Only two of the losing team were able to get past second base. Tinic and Berzanski featured, their brilliant fielding cutting off several appearing sure hits. Jenkins, playing a good game for St. Mary's, stole second and third in
