SOME STATES EXTEND TIME FOR AUTO TAGS
Although the Pennsylvania Department of Highways will make no extension of the use of 1928 license tags after midnight on December 31, certain other states have found it necessary to extend the time.
South Carolina officials have notified the department that 1928 license plates issued in that state will be recognized until January 15, 1929, at which time the new 1929 license plate must be displayed.
Minnesota car owners who have made application for 1929 tags on or before February 15, 1929, with payment or the tax, may use the old 1928 plates until receipt of the new ones, until the last day of March.
Ohio authorities report that 1928 tags expire at midnight on December 31, the same as Pennsylvania, and that 1929 tags may be used on and after December 21st. The District of Columbia has laid down the same rules as Pennsylvania. Police of the Commonwealth are asked to be governed by this notice, which is in the keeping of the reciprocity rulings of Pennsylvania.

HEALTH OFFICIALS COMBAT DIPHTHERIA
Thirteen hundred and sixty-four cultures have been made of convalescents and contacts by the two state nurses and the local school nurse in Shenandoah and vicinity as a result of the continued diphtheria situation. At examination by the state laboratory the specimens thus obtained resulted in the discovery of forty-four carriers. These have been placed under observational quarantine. More cultures are being taken.
Dr. F. E. Coughlin, of the state health department, who has returned from a resurvey of the situation in that locality, reports that conditions are still serious.
In the last three months 375 cases have occurred in Shenandoah and in West Mahoney township. About three-fourths of the victims have been under ten years of age.

The deceased is survived by her husband and several children.

BUS IS DELAYED WHEN ITS DRIVER IS ARRESTED

D. Paul, of Chicago, a driver of one of the Greyhound buses which pass through Ebsensburg, in interstate passenger service who no the night of November 25th last is alleged to have assaulted Alton Estep, of Ebsensburg, when the young man upraised him for "crowding" him off the William Penn highway, was arrested Friday night as he was driving a bus through Ebsensburg enroute to Pittsburgh and was lodged in the county jail.
Paul waived a preliminary hearing Saturday before justice of the Peace Young in Ebsensburg and was held for court to answer a charge of aggravated assault and battery. Paul was released on bail of $1,000.
As the result of Paul's arrest the bus and nine passengers were delayed at the county seat until mid night when another driver from Pittsburgh drove the bus on through to Pittsburgh. Paul was placed under arrest by Chief of Police Frank Jones of the county seat.

EBENSBURG PLANS TO REMODEL OLD PARK AUDITORIUM
At a representative meeting of the citizens of Ebsensburg held last week relative to the Park Auditorium, favorable action was taken upon putting the Park auditorium back in first class condition, which, according to an estimate furnished by a Johnstown contracting firm, would cost a little more than $5,000.
The Park auditorium, built by the late D. E. Park, of Pittsburgh, at a cost of $28,500, and donated to the people of Ebsensburg for use as an auditorium only, has been allowed to get into such a condition that at the present time it is unfit to be used for any purpose. According to one of the stipulations contained in the deed from Mr. Park to the Borough of Ebsensburg it is specified that when the building ceases to be used as an auditorium it shall revert back to the owners of his estate.
The matter has been before the people of Ebsensburg for the past two years, committees have been appointed to investigate the condition of the building, and contractors engaged to examine it and give an estimate on repairing the structure.

"Prohibition."
Those in favor of Prohibition, Are not strictly temperance in any condition.
That's why they revoted that Volstead To make sure it stayed with them they found it no task.
They held vast meetings, bribed victory galore;
So the laws of our states are run as before.
They claim in was done for our dear country sake,
But they stirred it up badly—now won't take the blame.
Ten years have past and that is not long.
No youth could get liquor, for oh! 'twas wrong,
Girls seldom tasted and there was a cause.
At saloons couldn't face it, for those were our laws.
Four years confront us, like the past eight or "worse";
And you'll see sons and daughters still smoke, drink and curse.
It would chill any heart, no matter how cold,
And make the blood in their bodies run cold.
Away with sanity in our dear land of free,
In the name of humanity, so 'tis getting to be,
So how shall we better this deplorable Condition?
By voting to down that curse—Prohibition.
