until lightly browned, then reduce the oven temperature to about 300 degrees Fahrenheit and continue the cooking until the thermometer in the meat reads about 140 degrees Fahrenheit for a rare roast, 160 degrees Fahrenheit for a medium roast, or 180 degrees Fahrenheit for a well-done roast. A rib roast will probably require 16 minutes to the pound to be rare, 22 minutes to the pound to be medium, and about 30 minutes to the pound to be well done. Higher oven temperatures than 300 degrees Fahrenheit will shorten the time of cooking, the roast, and both the meat and drippings may become too brown. Reducing the oven temperature to 250 de-standing roast. Baste occasionally during cooking to prevent drying out.

"Serve the roast on a hot platter,

And if you do not have a recipe for Yorkshire pudding, which is the traditional accompaniment to roast beef, the bureau of home economics will be glad to send you one, as well as suggestions on other ways of cooking surrounded by browned potatoes or be required.

try Phillips Milk of with this perfect anthe system keep That every stomach ake it whenever a s any discomfort. Magnesia has won ent. And convinced d women they didn't Don't diet, and remember Phillips. nd always effective ps is important; it tine product. "Milk een the U.S. regisof the Charles H. Co. and its pre-Phillips since 1875.

gnesia

WORMS CHILDREN o have worms ance of being for the symp-the teeth, pick-ls, disordered body of these ruin-thim Frey's Ver-safe, vegetable 75 years. Buy it stores.

rmifuge

r that spoiled chil-

is Sample Old Sent Free to f This Article years ago, good began the man-r Koenig's Ner-ecommended for usness, epilepsy, andred ailments, made after the German doctors. creased, and and and ded. Today there ries in the old Koenig's Nervine and and clime. onvinced. It will stal to write for g Medicine Co., Chicago, Illinoi ur local paper.

cuse for the inex-

ext-door neighbor

L'S REE RULES

ed the results of ears, and believed careful people are and exercise, conen, is how to treat. Caldwell always as close to nature remedy for consti-able compound. It ist delicate system

l approve of dras-He did not believe man beings to put Syrup Pepsin for of the family in s, sour and crampy o appetite, head-fevers and colds. any drugstore and so of health: Keep warm, the bowels bottle, just write BB, Monticello, A BACHELOR CHANGES HIS MIND

TUGH MUNSON was a bachelor. He was most emphatic in his statements that he would remain a bachelor to the last. And that he had reached the age of forty-three without marrying and would travel through the rest of his days unmarried. He wanted to be free. . . to explore hitherto unexplored lands . . . to come and go as his fancy willed. Who would want a better home than a hotel? Who would want more comforts than the service obtained in such places? He scorned the tidy little houses of his friends . . . gingerly patted the heads of their offsprings and then put a definite distance between himself and their sticky hands. He didn't want a house to be responsible for

. . . electric light bills . . . furnace cleaners . . . faulty plumbing . . . maids . . . whooping cough . . . insurance policies . decorators.

. . . and that's final," he had declared decisively from the depths of a big chair in his sister's living room on the first evening of his return from a two years' trip to Africa. "I-shall -never-marry. The next six months
I will spend here writing up my last trip for my publishers and then I'm off again . . . free as the wind . . ." He turned to his nephew, Robert Beveridge, who occupied another big chair near by. "You will be my heir, Bobbie, my boy . . . that is, if you will get this notion out of your head about going in business instead of taking up law as your mother wants you to do."

His nephew smiled as he crushed a cigarette butt against the ash tray.

"You're a fine one to talk, Unk. Grandfather wanted you to be a minister-mother told me so-and besides, he was in favor of marriage and look at you-just a vagabond of the winding road, except that you have enough money to buy railroad and steamer tickets. I don't want to be a lawyer, but I'll compromise with you, you old fossil! I'll make a wager with you that before six months are up-you will be asking some girl to marry you . . . to share your name and fortune. A new roadster against my pledge that I will go to college this fall and study law that within the next six months you'll fall in love and fall hard! You have been out of touch with civilization so long you don't know what white women look like, but just you-wait. That's fair, isn't it, mother?"

Hugh Munson's sister smiled indulgently, and nodded. The traveler laughed. "All right, shake on it! A new roadster—any color—any make, against your promise to be a lawyer but I've won before we start. Lovemarriage—bah! Responsibilities? Not for me!"

A maid came to the door, followed by a short, smiling faced little woman whose open coat displayed a white linen uniform.

"Hello, folks. I'm on a case down in the next block—typhoid, and was out for a breath of air so thought I'd run in. Oh why, Hugh Munson, you old tramp! I haven't seen you since . let me see, when we three were in high school together . . . how many years ago . . ."

"And if it isn't Cara Smedley . . or what is the name, now, Cara? I recall Marion telling me a long time ago of your marriage"
"Listen, Hugh. Wesley died last year, you know. And I'm working "And supporting the loveliest family of four children you ever saw. How is Billie, and Junie, and baby and Albert, Cara? My goodness, but Albert is getting so tall and manly.'

"All fine," answered the family's smiling mother. "Billie fell off the porch yesterday and bumped his nose and Junie looks like chicken pox and baby cries for an hour straight every time I leave her and Albert spends all his nickels at the candy store, but outside of that, they are just beautiful, every one of them!"

Robert Beveridge looked across the table at his mother one morning and his eyes were troubled.

"Well, mother, guess the odds are against me. You'll have a lawyer son after all, I guess. That old Beau Brummel brother of yours! He is a knockout in evening clothes and all the girls are crazy about him. Kay says she has tried all her wiles on him-nothing doing! Marjorie tells me he calls her 'child' and patronizes her! Kay says he is the hardest man in New York to flirt with although he dances with her all the time and tells her she is pretty and would like to kidnap her and all that bosh that middle-aged men hand out to pretty girls. Kay is getting tired of the conspiracy, I guess. We didn't think he would be so hard to win over. We are going to have Estelle Taton out to Marjorie's house party next week and Estelle will bowl him over. . . She's a stunner, and just begged for an introduction the other night at the club. Says Unk is her idea of handsome, distinguished . . . and all that stuff!"

Estelle's charms proved all in vain. Hugh Munson played golf with her, rode horseback with Marjorie Norris, sang with Delicia Evans, danced with Vandergrift and talked China with Mary Manning. They all vied for his favor. The house party broke up sooner than was expected, because he announced his intention of driving dance are reflected in the fur returns crackers or croutons. back to New York at noon instead of | of the Arctic regions.

late evening. When he left Kay and Marjorie were in the seat with him, and Delicia and Mary were in the

The confirmed bachelor-explorer donned evening clothes three nights a week and accompanied his nephew and members of Robert's set into the gay whirl of New York's night life. He seemed to thoroughly enjoy himself. He continued to write in an effort to appease the demands of an anxious publisher, and at the end of the fifth month, Robert wrote to the university for their curriculum

Kay was again wearing his frat pin. Marjorie was hinting of her engagement to Alex Treadgold, long and ardent suitor; Delicia had decided to go on the stage, and always generous, Hugh Munson had offered to back her. She had refused with tear-filled eyes. Estelle Tanton was planning a winter in Europe and had hinted that she would expect Hugh to stop and see her when he was on the continent, although he had not mentioned his impending journey.

Robert was sitting before the fireplace reading the recently arrived literature from college. His mother was reading close by. Hugh Munson came in, and with his hands deep in his pockets, he stood before the fireplace and faced his sister and nephew.

"What's the booklet, Bobbie, my lad?" he asked.

"Oh, you win, you old woman-hating antique! I never did think you would hold out with all those girlbut you win! I'm going to college— and study law! Mother benefits anyway through our bet. And she has promised me the car that you were going to buy me, after you proposed to one of the girls."

your mother down to the station to see Cara and me off on our wedding trip. We will be gone only a week, on account of the babies! Can't leave them alone with a maid very long. You knew, Marion, that Junie is a smart little tike and baby-why, she just yells when I come in the door and stretches out her hands to me. Wish roast meat thermometer is used. you would look in on them while we are away; we'll feel better if we know you are keeping an eye on our family rub with pepper, salt, and flour. Place And if you do not have a recipe -and if you hear of a good nurse, tell her to come up and see me when we get back. Cara is to have an easier time from now on. And Albert says a small incision through the fat covhe is going to own a garage when he finishes school. Can you beat that? And say, Marion, if you know of a good plumber, tell him to go and look at the bathroom on the third floor, there is something wrong and I didn't have time to attend to it."

Motorist Says Fox Can Run 30 Miles an Hour

Further light on the speed with which animals can run is found in the which animals can run is found in the experience of a Washington motorist over a side road of the Eastern shore. or social occasions try keeping on hand some of the butter fillings that

It came about when the motorist, it might be.

Just as he came to the end of a hedge along the road, the fox jumped out into the middle of the road, intent on reaching a cornfield on the other side. Seeing the car and perhaps even more sterling to him hear. haps, even more startling to him, hearing it, for it was well equipped with rattles and squeaks, he made a hurnut knife of the food grinder, grind up ried break for the cornfield, but found enough watercress to fill a cup. Save a a barbed wire fence blocking his way. | few of the best sprigs of cress 10 Turning in a panic, it sped down the decorating the sandwiches or the plate ens wax and should never be used on touching the ground as it stretched ground cress with about half a cup of out in a swift run.

or three quick jumps, then slowed down to a sort of high-bouncing run, and was soon lost in the corn.

Famous London Bridges

ried a row of timber houses, which were frequently burned down, but the main structure existed until the beginning of the Nineteenth century. The butter. old bridge was the center for booksellers and other tradesmen. On it heads of traitors were exposed to shapes. No cover slices are used. view. The present London bridge was begun in 1824, and completed in 1831. It is borne on five granite arches, is | course be worked again to a creamy 928 feet long, 65 feet wide, and 56 consistency before spreading. feet above the river.

Lemming an Odd Creature The head of a scientific expedition into the Arctic region reports that they were unable to obtain many of the small land mammals, as trapping is impracticable during the brief stops and under the midnight sun. The past year or two has been notable for a shortage of all smaller mammals, particularly Arctic hares and lemmings. The lemmings occur at times or bacon fat rubbed with a tablespoon-

AVOID GUESSWORK WITH RIB ROAST BEEF

Rib Roast With Yorkshire Pudding

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Probably at no point is the inexperienced cools see deputyful of such perienced cook so doubtful of success as when she attempts to serve roast meat for dinner. Steaks and chops and all the small meats, cooked in plain sight on top of the stove, are fairly simple; but when you've shut your dinner up in the oven and have to keep peeping at it to guess when it's done-the outside generally looks done right away!-and you realize that ou hardly ever have roasts anyway, just for two-you go through an agony of uncertainty until the carving knife reveals your results. As a matter of fact, all this guesswork and anxiety about roasting meat can be very easily avoided. A roast meat thermometer can be purchased for a comparatively small sum, and with it you can tell to a nicety when "That car," spoke Hugh Munson slowly, "will be delivered early in the morning, Bobbie, and you might drive morning. mometer is thrust into the thickest part of the meat, and when it registers a given temperature, the inside of the meat, which you cannot see, will be as you want it.

These directions for cooking a rib roast of beef, given by the bureau of "Select a two or three-rib standing the roast fat side up in an open pan mometer so that the bulb reaches the middle of the road, its body almost on which they are served. Blend this it in any way. About once a week a well-creamed butter until it makes a Accelerating, the motorist came smooth-spreading mixture and season within a few feet of the fox and then with about a fourth teaspoonful of maintained the gap separating them. salt. Only one liberal spreading, on the The speed increased until the car was under part of each sandwich, is necmaking 30 miles an hour, with the fox just a few jumps ahead.

SUGGESTIONS ON SANDWICH MAKING

If Wanted Often Butter Fillings Come in Handy.

(Prepared by the United States Department fox can run at least 30 miles an can be made up and kept for several days, suggests the bureau of home economics of the United States Departdriving along leisurely, saw something running in a field to the right of the of these fillings will meet the emerroad and sped up a bit to see what gency when guests arrive unexpectedly it might be.

essary to distribute the butter filling, so the sandwiches are very quickly Whether the fox could have "stepped | made. Crusts are usually trimmed on on it" a bit more is not known for the motorist allowed the fox to set the pace. Perhaps if the animal had been used. The bread is of course cut very pressed, it might have stretched the thin. To avoid waste spread the fillspeed up a few miles an hour. The ing with regard to the part of each race continued for perhaps a quarter slice that will be used. If the sandof a mile, when the fox seeing a gap wiches are to be rolled it is best to in the fence, went through it in two spread them on the loaf and slice each

Parsley butter is similarly made, with the addition of two tablespoenfuls of lemon juice to each cup of ground parsley and each half cup of Old London bridge, begun about creamed butter. Carrots, raw cabbage, 1170, was completed in 1209. It carsoned, and mixed with butter for fillings in about the same proportionstwo parts of the vegetable to one of Open-face orange sandwiches are made by spreading a mixture of equal stood the chapel of St. Thomas of Canterbury and a tower on which the on thin sandwich bread, cut in fancy

When these butter mixtures are stored in a cold place, they must of

Split Pea Soup

Wash and pick over half a pound of split peas and soak them overnight. Cook with four cupfuls of water, a pinch of baking soda, two tablespoon fuls of bacon cubes, one small onion sided and a tiny pinch of summer savory. Cook slowly for about three hours, or until the peas are very soft. Press through a sieve and slightly to each helping. Serve with toasted and brittle. Use only enough oil to

VARNISHED FLOOR WITH WAXED COAT

Reconditioning Should Be Done Three Times a Year.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

To recondition a waxed floor, it should occasionally be given a very thin coat of wax, put on with a woolen cloth, and polished, if possible, with a weighted brush. This is a good job for which to call in one of the boys in the family or the neighborhood. Pushing one of these weighted polishers around is fairly heavy work, Mr. Grouch. but it requires just the sort of mus cular effort a boy likes to use. Needless to say, the room should be prepared for a waxing of this kind by having the furniture moved out, and the walls, woodwork, and floor completely cleaned and dusted. Waxed floors, says the United States Department of Agriculture, should be swept with a soft brush or waxed floor should be given a more thorough cleaning with a cloth wrung out of warm, soapy water, or moist ened with turpentine or gasoline. Applying too much wax is a common mistake. Rub white spots with a woolen cloth or weighted brush, applying a little wax if necessary. Keep a slip-on cover on the weighted brush when it is not in use. Never allow it to come into contact with oil.

Get the Schoolboy to Help Wax the Floor.

Varnished floors may be swept with a soft brush, a mop, or a broom covered with a cotton-flannel bag, and then rubbed with a cloth or mop slightly moistened with floor oil or kerosene. The oil gradually dries out of varnish after it has been applied to wood, and unless restored by an occasional rubbing with an oiled cloth the varnish becomes exeedingly hard moisten slightly the cloth or mop.

CRYPTIC ENOUGH

Educated Egyptian-You have no wonderful hieroglyphics in America, no mysterious inscriptions, no indecipherable relict of an ancient literature whose secrets the wise men have tried in vain to discover.

American Tourist (humbly)-No. we haven't any of those things, I admit. But (brightening up)-we have our railroad time-tables.

A Loony Couple "They say Boggs is crazy on the subject of golf and his wife is equally crazy over auction sales." "Yes, and the funny part of it is they both talk in their sleep. other night a lodger in the next flat heard Boggs shout 'Fore!' and immediately Mrs. Boggs yelled 'Four and a quarter."

WHY MINDS ARE CLEAN

She-Women's minds are so much leaner than men's. He-Yeh! Because they change

> Chiggers Bite Ashes to ashes,
> Dust to dust;
> If the tourists don't bite

The chiggers must.

Wasted Efforts Mrs. Wells-Yes, siree, the cook refused to drive out in our car when I Hubby Wells-What excuse did she Mrs. Wells-Said she wouldn't ride unless it was a self-starter, as cranking it reminded her so much of a washing machine.

Be Swamped With 'Em "Too bad you ladies are not giving rummage sale right now," remarked

"Why?" asked his wife, suspiciously. "Because I know a lot of men who gladly would contribute smoking jackets, bathrobes, bed-room slippers and boxes of cigars to it," he growled.

WANTED TO LEARN

Instructor-So you want to learn how to run your car? does that. I want to learn how to guide it, if you please.

Bargain Blisses

We cannot make bargains of blisses, Or keep them like fishes in nets; But sometimes the things our life misses Help more than the things that it

Zero in Cars

Blinks-He's always boasting about what his car can do. Jinks-Huh! I've been out with him in that old tub and any car ahead has as much chance of being passed by him as a full-length mirror has by a pretty girl.

Meticulous

"They seem very particular on your paper.' "I should say so. I believe if they found a colon upside down, it would have to be altered."

Clever Boy

Percy-A new dance?

Reggie-Bah jove, you know Ferdy has an accomplishment I would I could do.

Reggie-No, but the clever chap can actually yawn without taking his cigarette from his mouth. Discharged by the Whale

Mrs. Jonah-1 want to know what you were doing in the whale? Jonah-Laboring. Mrs. Jonah-Then you were thrown out of work.

NICE WORDS WON'T DYE a dress or coat...

Neither pretty pictures nor colorful adjectives will dye a dress or coat. It takes real dyes to do the work; dyes made from true anilines.

Next time you have dyeing to do, try Diamond Dyes-See how easy it is to use them. Then compare the results. Your dealer will refund your money if you don't agreethey are better dyes.

You get none of that re-dyed look from Diamond Dyes; You get none of that re-dyed note from passional pyes, no streaking or spotting. Just fresh, crisp, bright new color. And watch the way they keep their brilliance through wear and washing. They are better dyes because they contain plenty of real anilines—from three to five times more than other dyes.

The white package of Diamond Dyes is the original "all-purpose" dye for any and every kind of material. It will dye or tint silk, wool, cotton, linen, rayon or any mixture of materials. The blue package is a special dye, for silk or wool only. With it you can dye your valuable articles of silk or wool with results equal to the finest professional work. When you buy—remember this. The blue package will dye every kind of goods, including silk and wool. Your dealer has both packages.

Diamond Dues AT ALL DRUG STORES Easy to use

Subject to Change "Are you on a diet?" asked the com mercial traveler's acquaintance when he saw him having milk and biscuits. after the "new" second-hand flivver "No; on commission."-Tit-Bits.

Hoxie's Croup Remedy for croup, coughs, and colds. No opium. No nausea. 50cts. Druggists. Kells Co., Newburgh, N. Y., Mfrs.—Adv.

Clever Salesmanship Customer-Would you call these col-

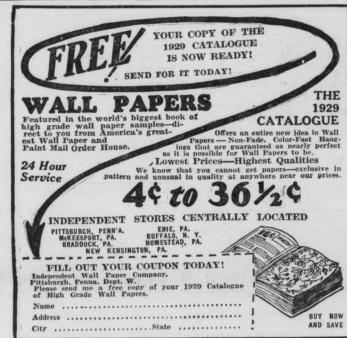

Clerk-Well, not exactly fast, but perhaps a little bit skittish!

Mere Amateurs "What the deuce are you laughing at?" growled the guest on the ride had developed a new trouble and stopped for the 'steenth time.

"I'm just laughing," explained the owner, "to think how those old-fashioned horse traders posed as the great-est liars and skinners of all time."

An apple a day keeps the doctor away, but Adam and Eve found that an apple was just an invitation to Old Man Trouble.

His Specialty The Investigator—I'm looking up the Well Taken Dick-The points in Bob's speech taken, don't you think?

standing of Tom Torporson of your at the banquet last night were well Harry-Yes, most of them from

How many people you know end their colds with Bayer Aspirin And how often you've heard of its prompt relief of sore throat or tonsilitis. No wonder millions take it for colds, neuralgia, rheumatism; and the aches and pains that go with them. The wonder is that anyone still worries through a winter without these tablets! They relieve quickly, yet have no effect whatever on the heart. Friends have told you Bayer Aspirin is marvelous; doctors have declared it harmless. Every druggist has it, with proven directions. Why not put it to the test?

The Perfumed Touch that makes your toilet complete

Cuticura Talcum Powder

The finishing touch to the daintiest toilet. Cooling, refreshing, and de-lightfully perfumed and medicated, it imparts to the person a delicate and distinctive fragrance and leaves the skin sweet and wholesome.

