Mrs. Bunnell's maiden name was Sara McKee and she was united in marriage to William Bunnell 33 years ago. She is survived by her husband, six sons and one daughter. Mrs. Bunnell was well known to many Patton folks who will be sorry to learn of her death.

ENTERTAINMENT IS GENUINE IN "SYNTHETIC SIN"

There is certainly nothing synthetic about the entertainment offered in "Synthetic Sin." Colleen Moore's newest comedy, which will open on Monday and Tuesday, at The Grand Theatre.

On the contrary, it is decidedly of the 100-proof variety, as the mirth of a large audience clearly indicated at different showings in the cities.

A clever story, an excellent cast and Colleen's bubbling personality have been woven into a picture that ranks among the most humorously entertaining films to be seen in months. "Synthetic Sin" is a big triumph for Spangler as the star, William T. Seiter as the director, and Frederic and Fanny Hatton, authors of the play which the picture was derived.

The characterization in which Miss Moore appears is perfectly suited to her ability and personality, her role being that of an innocent Southern girl who masquerades as a Philadelphia woman of the world in order to obtain experience that will suit her for a career as a dramatic actress.

The story follows the adventures of this synthetic little sinner in New York's underworld, where she becomes involved in both romance and hilarious melodrama that carry this interesting story to a whirlwind finish.

Possibly the most amusing of many laughable situations is one in which Colleen's apartment is invaded by a gang war. Believing her friends have played a joke on her, Colleen refuses to take the desperate characters seriously, and treats them with the most amusing lack of respect, despite their weapons and threats.

Miss Moore makes a particular hit in the burlesque and ridiculous moments of Topsy, in which she gives a hilarious performance of a dance that is a superb bit of comedy. A number of stars are in the cast.

CHARLES N. CROUSE

Charles N. Crouse, aged 72 years, proprietor of the Crouse Hotel at South Fork for many years, died of a complication of diseases at his home later on Friday afternoon. His health had been impaired for some months.

Mr. Crouse is survived by his widow, Mrs. Margaret Horner Crouse; a daughter, Mrs. John Schroyck, of Baltimore, Md.; and five grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on Monday morning at St. James' Catholic church and interment was made in St. Bartholomew's cemetery at Wilmore.

MRS. JANE LEWIS

Mrs. Jane Lewis, aged 93 years one of the oldest residents of Ebensburg, died at her home in that place at 4 o'clock Thursday morning. She had been ill a long time. Mrs. Lewis was the widow of Thomas Lewis, who died in 1893. Mrs. Lewis was the mother of Philip Rodgers, who died in Oakland, Pittsburgh, last Friday. Two other daughters preceded her to the grave, Annie, in December, 1893, and Margaret, in 1924.

Mrs. Lewis is survived by a son, Albert Lewis, of Pittsburgh, and four daughters—Ella, wife of Edward Bowler, of Cambria Township; Clarinda wife of Dayton Jervis, of Ebensburg; and Belle and Louise at home.

Mrs. Lewis was a sister of Mrs. Eliza Griffith, of Pittsburgh, and was a sister-in-law of Mrs. Margaret Hughes, of Westmont, and Joseph D. Lewis, of Wilkensburg, Pa.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon in the Congregational Church at Ebensburg, and interment was in Loyd Cemetery.

MRS. ELLEN E. DELOZIER

Funeral services for Mrs. Ellen E. (Stiger) Delozier, widow of Joseph A. Delozier, who died of a complication of diseases at Hoguetown, near Cresson, on Thursday last, were held on Saturday morning in St. Aloysius' Catholic church at the Summit and interment was in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Delozier's husband passed away five years ago. They were married 43 years. She is survived by these children: Mrs. Elmer Burns, Cresson; Mrs. Charles Bowman, Ashville; Leo Delozier, of New York City; Charles and Lloyd Delozier, of Cresson; and Joseph Delozier at home. She is also survived by several brothers and sisters.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish through the columns of the Courier to thank our many friends for their sympathy during our recent bereavement, the illness and death of our mother, Mrs. Mary Cihan, for the floral offerings and for the use of cars at the funeral—THE FAMILY.

BLAZE AT BEAVERDALE

Five presumably caused by crossed electric wires, broke out early Saturday night in the dwelling of George Robinson at Beaverdale, but prompt work on the part of Mr. Robinson prevented any great damage. He succeeded in extinguishing the blaze with a garden hose.

Clearfield American Legion Band Comes To Grand Theatre

A Treat Is In Store for Patton People When the Finest Musical Organization of Its Kind in the Country Comes Here By Auspices of American Legion and The Music Club.

When May 6th ushers in Music Week, with all the glories and melodies of Spring, the people of Patton and vicinity will find awaiting them a musical treat which in all our local history probably has no precedent. Through the combined efforts of Walter McCoy Post No. 614 and the Patton Music Club, the services of the American Legion Band of Clearfield, Pa., has been procured for one night only.

This band of skilled musicians, under the leadership of Prof. Schaffer, needs no recommendation from us. The record of its past events is one of glowing tribute, telling of honors won and of prizes carried home. In 1927, when Paris opened wide her arms to receive again those who had so valiantly defended her, the Clearfield Post was very glad to take as her escort this same Legion Band, and well they might be, for with their quiet dignity, and their jaunty little airs they captured the hearts of both the American and French alike. Since their return they have been giving a series of Country wide concerts and only recently came trotting home with the prize from "way down in New Orleans." The variety of their program is simply amazing.

In fact, when you've heard them you'll wonder just what you liked the best. The overture for those who prefer; simple little melodies for the ear so inclined; saucy bits of popular hits for those whose tastes they suit, and a hanging melody of overcast airs, especially arranged by Mr. Schaffer, just to remind the boys that they are still of "em" and with "em."

Their special features alone are worth the price of admission. Harry Bridg, that veteran band man, who plays a wonderful gold cornet, which was presented to him by the people of Clearfield, as a token of their esteem and friendship, and the Rev. Father Simpson, who will sing for you, the songs you like, with a voice you'll love.

So, don't forget the night—Monday, May 6th, at 8:30 o'clock at the Grand Theatre, Patton. Don't forget to come and bring your friends and your friends' friends. Let them enjoy with you this thrill which comes only once in a lifetime.

The admission will be 50c. Reserved seats will be 25 cents extra. Seats will be on sale after May 2.

HARRY JENKINS, AGED 76, DIES AT MINERS HOSPITAL

Complication of Diseases Claims Life of Well Known Local Man at Spangler Institution

UNDER-PRIVILEGED CHILD SUBJECT OF DISCUSSION

Cambria County Kiwanis gathered at the Brandon hotel Monday evening for a joint dinner meeting sponsored by the inter-relations committee of the Northern Cambria Kiwanis club. Thirty-six members of the Johnstown club were in attendance and the Ebensburg and Northern Cambria organizations were represented by large and enthusiastic delegations.

Maurice J. Hamilton, warden of the Blair county jail, proved to be a capable speaker for the evening. His address dealt largely with work among under-privileged children, one of the major projects of Kiwanis International. The warden also touched upon the relation of the under-privileged child of today to the criminal of tomorrow.

Short addresses stressing the maintenance of friendly relations between the clubs, were made by J. Ross Home, president of the Johnstown club; H. C. McWilliams, representative of the Ebensburg club; William Denlinger, president and F. R. Maurer, chairman of the inter-club relations committee of the Northern Cambria club. The Rev. Father Quinn also was a speaker.

Dan Aughtenbaugh, of the Johnstown club, entertained with a group of piano numbers. Miss Colletta Luther of Patton, was accompanied by Miss Hattie M. Sharbaugh as accompanist.
