Porcupine Shown to Be Much Maligned Animal. One of the most unaccounted-for denizens of the woods and one about which has been woven many a fantastic tale is the porcupine.

It is the marksman of the forest, as the story goes—the bowman that shoots barbed arrows at those it sees fit to attack. One in imagination can almost see a cloud of quills winging their way toward some enemy, ready to pierce any unprotected skin and, once beneath the skin, presenting the problem of the fish-hook imbedded in a luckless angler's finger.

If ever a more unfair picture of the character of an animal has been painted, a grave injustice has been done. The porcupine, as a matter of fact, is mostly intent on minding its own business and hopes that other animals will do the same.

Printers Absolved of Charge of Irreverence. An average layman, fairly familiar with his Bible, hastily opened the Good Book to verify the statement of the Literary Digest's lexicographer that in the Scriptures the personal pronoun representing our Lord did not begin with a capital letter.

And if the reader turned back to the Old Testament, he discovered also that the pronouns referring to God were in the same style. The reason for this, the lexicographer explains, is that early-day printshops had inadequate upper cases (capitals) and that the rule was invoked, not because of a lack of reverence, but of necessity.

This Frank Decade. Mary Elizabeth has just started to dancing school and on the occasion of her second or third lesson her mother, sitting by as an interested spectator, was glad to see that she and her boy partner seemed to be holding a conversation.

Catfish Peculiar. Catfishes are called catfishes because they have feelers on the head, like cats' "smellers." They have no scales, their bodies being naked and smooth, or mottled with longplates.

Swedes Made History. Sweden's international relations were kept alive by the contact between the home country and Swedish emigrants and settlers abroad. Thus in the year 375 Swedes penetrated as far south as the Black sea and founded an Anglo-Gothian dominion.

MAGNETIC MILKER PLEASES COW; SAVES WORK, MONEY

The Milking Job Made Easy and Pleasant by the Magnetic Milker.

New York—The milking machine, which has saved labor, reduced expense and increased production on countless farms, is about to make the milking job still easier and more profitable.

This is indicated from an announcement made here of an invention to milk the American cow by magnetic force.

After exhaustive research and tests, a device has been perfected, according to Ralph Stoddard of the De Laval Engineering Laboratories, which will triple the speed of milking the dairy herd, provide pulsations that will always be the same, and actually milk cows better than they can be milked in any other way.

"Through the use of the electro-magnet, railroads operate complicated signal systems that assure safety and swift operation of trains," said Mr. Stoddard. "In the great pipe organs, electro magnets control the hundreds of valves in the telegraph, telephone, steel and ore cranes—wherever positive control, lightning speed and dependability are needed—the electro magnet is used.

We have now applied this same principle to the mechanical milking of cows in a way that will increase efficiency on the farm, save money and make cows happier so they will yield more.

"It is a well-known fact that a cow is more contented, will give more milk and quicker, if it is milked by the same man every day. It is necessary to please the cow to get the most milk, and it has been found that certain stimuli or methods of milking are most pleasing. The new magnetic device will milk the cow with the same touch the year round and will speed up milking operations, for one man with a magnetic milker will do the work of three hand milkers.

Among the benefits to the farm, Mr. Stoddard pointed out that generally speaking, the magnetic milker saves half the time of milking, which in the aggregate will mean the saving of millions of dollars, or millions of extra hours for doing other farm work and for rest and recreation.
