SALESMANSHIP PLUS

The new salesman, although very enthusiastic, could not be described as altogether convincing.
 "This," he said, "is one of the finest blankets produced today. In material and in construction it is far above anything present on the market. For the price there is nothing to touch it."
 "What is the price?" his customer inquired.
 "Just a minute and I will inquire," was the reply.—Veterans' Service Magazine.

EXPERIENCE NEEDED

She—You say Tom, who has just returned from Africa, is going to open a beauty parlor? Why?
 He—Well the tales he tells of his experiences makes their hair curl naturally.

Monotonous Repetition

Life is a gloomy grand parade
 Of bills sent by the score,
 And even when you have them paid
 You merely get some more.

Ample Proof

He had been the victim of a tar and feathers party.
 "Did you recognize any of the men?" he was asked.
 "Well, they were all masked," he said, "but I know that one of them was Jenks, the barber."
 "What!"
 "Yes; when they had finished with the feathers he asked me if I would like a sinige."

WHY HE MARRIED HER

She—What would folks say if they saw me in tights at that amateur performance?
 He—Probably say I married you for your money.

Useless Effort

You may paint, you may powder
 The face as you will,
 But the back of the neck
 Will show the age still.

Much Less Pay for It

A visitor to the small town was chatting with the small-town editor. "Do tell me," he said, "why did you ever call your paper The Pleasantville Blame? Why the Blame?" "Because," said the editor with a sigh, "nobody seems willing to take it."

Serves for Two Parties

Ishka—They say a fat person may reduce by dancing the modern fast dances.
 Bibble—Yes, and a thin person may put on weight laughing at fat people trying to do them.

Explained

Mrs. Benham—I notice that the farmers always have a man for a scarecrow.
 Benham—That's because they couldn't afford to dress a woman scarecrow.

A Complete Alibi

The Captain—I hear you arrested Buffalo Mike and then let him go.
 The Patrolman—That's not so. I had the wrong man. He showed me conclusively that he wasn't from Buffalo. He'd just come from Troy.

Double Trouble

"A mother flying fish must have her worries."
 "Why so?"
 "Has to teach her little ones to fly as well as swim."
