

CAMBRIA COUNTY A. O. H. CONVENTION

Hibernians Hold Biennial Gathering at Nanty-Glo on Saturday.

Nanty-Glo, Pa., Thursday, Oct. 3.—The 35th biennial convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and its Ladies' Auxiliary of Cambria County, will be held in Nanty-Glo on Saturday, the 5th. The convention will open with a solemn high mass in St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock, after which the delegates and others will meet in open session in the Slovak hall where Burgess Martin McDermott on behalf of the town, will deliver an address of welcome. Responses will be made by County President P. J. Mash of the A. O. H., and Annie M. Keating of the Auxiliary, both of Nanty-Glo. Remarks will also be made by the county and state officers present.

Following the open meeting the L. A. A. O. H. will hold their business session in the Moose hall, while the men will retain the Slavish hall as their meeting place. Dinner and supper will be served in St. Mary's hall to the delegates, and will also be open to the general public. Meals will be served at 75c cents per plate, which will include dessert.

An after-dinner program of unusual interest will be given following the evening banquet in the church hall. Rev. Father M. J. O'Connor of Renovo will act as toastmaster. This in itself will be a great treat, as Father O'Connor is pleasantly remembered for his happy faculty in this role. The following program is announced:

CHILD AGENCIES IN JOINT CONFERENCE

Miss Mary S. Labaree, director of the Bureau of Children, State Welfare Department, recently presided over a meeting of fourteen representatives of the State-wide child caring agencies when matters of liaison between the work of the State Welfare Department and the individual agencies were discussed.

Frequent meetings of this type have been found to be successful in saving money both for the State and the agencies and in bringing about the speedier handling of many cases, representatives of both agreed.

Save! EVERY WEEK. Save on the Budget Plan. Ask any man who has made a financial success in life how he accomplished it. His answer will be, "By Saving." He did not spend every cent he made, but built up a fund which was available when he needed it for business purposes. He is no different than you, except that you must learn the saving habit. Save on the budget plan—a certain amount each week going into your savings account. You will be surprised how it will grow and earn more money for you.
