

FINNEY OF THE FORCE

By F. O. Alexander

Snoop's Revenge

INSIDE STUFF!

READERS WHO WANT TO KNOW HOW TO WRITE ON THE WHITE OF AN EGG WITHOUT MARKING THE SHELL, WRITE TO YOURS TRULY, IN CARE OF THIS PAPER! I'LL SEND THE DOPE!

A WHIZ THERE

"What experience have you had in writing 'business getter' letters?" asked the boss of the young man applying for a job. "Well," he replied, "my father is a Scotchman and while in college I wrote him letters persuasive enough to pry him loose from money every time I wanted it." "You'll do, name your own salary," said the boss.

Also a Cash Discount

The burglar had knocked the merchant unconscious. By the time the victim opened his eyes all the most expensive goods had been taken outside and the burglar was standing beside him. "You've got everything," groaned the merchant; "what are you waiting for?" "What about trading stamps?"—Boston Transcript.

SHOULDN'T CREAK

Old Soak—"My, my, but my joints are still—they fairly creak." Friend—"That shouldn't be—you're always pretty well oiled."

Psychoanalysis

He was well psychoanalyzed, A shorter path they cut, And presently we were apprised "That he was just a 'nut'."

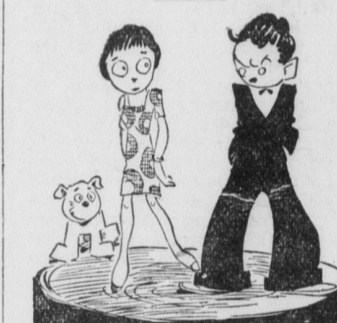

Prepared for Emergency

"What makes you keep giving me fish for dinner day after day," he inquired. "Are you particularly fond of it?" "No," she replied, "I was wholly unselfish. I read a lovely recipe about how to remove a fish bone when it sticks in your throat and I wanted to try it."

An Inexpensive Substitute

Mrs. Pester—Titus Wadde may be stingy, but he's good to his family. I never see him out in his car without his baby. Her Husband—That's to save the price of a horn. All he has to do is to pinch the kid and it lets out a howl.

CIRCULATING AGAIN

She—I don't think it's fair for you to keep such a lovely girl as Bessie away from all the other men. He—Well, she's back in circulation again—I've given her up.

Melancholy Contrast

Creation's proudest work we see In man, philosophy affirms, And yet, at times, man seems to be A playground for all sorts of germs.

Taking Ways

"How is your Emmy?" "Dreadful! Last week she took the veil." "But I didn't know she was so pious." "No, I mean the veil that was stolen at the drapers."—Cologne. Lustige Kolner Zeitung.

His Clever Refusal

Poet—I think I shall call my new collections of poems "Secrets." Publisher—Fine. An excellent idea! But please keep it to yourself.

Helped Swell the Total

Knutt—Look, there's something about me in the paper. It says that in June there were 15,738,526 passengers carried on the street cars. Mrs. Knutt—Well, what of it? I don't see where you come in. "I was one of those passengers."—London Answers.

Helping Him Out

He—There was something I wanted to say to you, but I forgot what it was now. She—Was it "good night"?

THE FEATHERHEADS

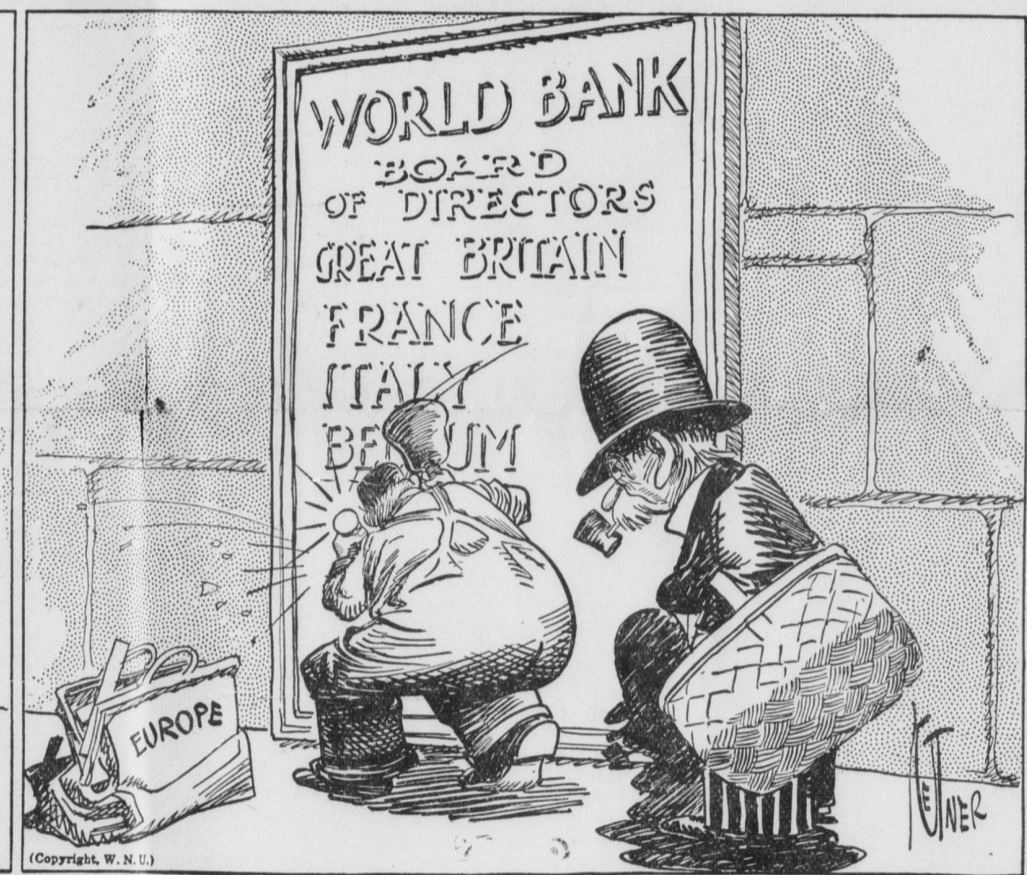

By Osborne

Along the Concrete

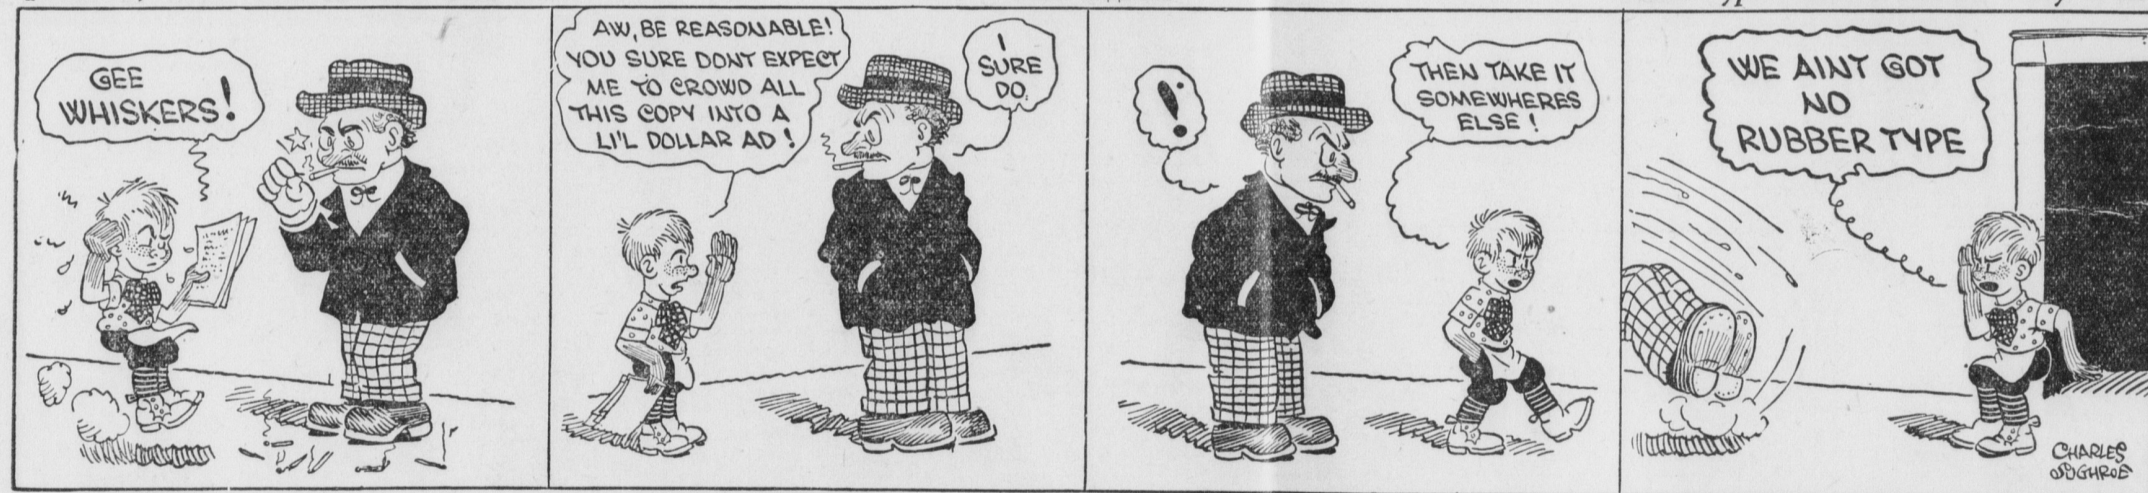

Getting Ready for Business

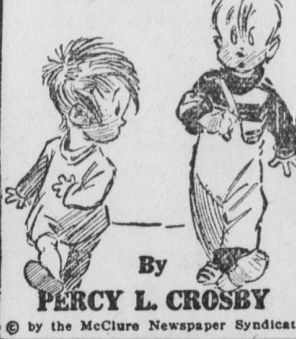

MICKIE, THE PRINTER'S DEVIL

By Charles Sughroe

Lead Type Doesn't Crowd Very Well

The Clancy Kids' Dropping In On A Sick Friend

By PERCY L. CROSBY
© by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate

Who Hides Under Sofa

There is a young chap who probably has now that he must be in the profession. He broke in the fashionable section some days before he completed his introduction by the list of the occupants. His only means of cut off he sought a divan. He remained through-ly. Hour followed 14 of them had about that time the star's patience gave decided to make a try. His dash ended of the housekeeper. The difficulty holding the police arrived.

WIDOWED CHILD AND SELF

Over Invalid Daughter.

...s, Minn.—A sorrowing g over the hopeless in-birth of his seventeen-er has ended with his mercy and then ending

John A. Barton, presi-vo Harbors First Na-is village's wealthiest pected citizen, is the and seventeen-year-old, deaf, dumb and like despite her seventeen is victim.

the surviving family, the father grieved tion of his daughter. ry care on her, sought medicine and science. nion was pronounced g the past few months tude entered deeper sion over his daugh-Sunday morning he belle and Audrey, two s, in the family car or the Presbyterian ces.

he told the other two shed to drive Beatrice r the air. That was ere seen alive. The :00 a. m. searchers r car on a lonely side ods a short distance rs with the bodies of nter in it. Beatrice once through ounded himself in the s the heart and the eed the heart. The his hand told the motive than that of r talking matters in end the suffering of ghter after medicine falled could be ad-

Men Burn in Farm Home

Mich.—The three Mr. and Mrs. Frank est of Thompsonville, ere burned to death unknown origin de-y home, from which ts were absent at the ere Lulu, four; Len-eylin, one.

shell shocked World d been all morning ne farm out of sight hile Mrs. Eddy had our at the home of s discovered by two men on the Thompoad.

ren were completely few scattered bones of burned flesh at-ad.

is the second of such on Mrs. Eddy's fam-go the three children rge Peters, residing south of Thompsond to death in a fire umstances.

on Way Shows Up Later

—Although Sam President of St. Louis became lost in the n station and missed t unusual for travns but Sammie con-ell chaperoned for of a party of fed- g taken to the coun- Mo. The following cked on the "out and asked admittance six months. He had rain.

Too Much Can't Get Out

sh.—Illustrating the adage, a tiny mouse, pacity of popcorn in ght and power con- w, ran around the n hour in agony of w of amused Satur- . The mouse had ern that it was un- xt through the tiny entered.