TWO ARRESTED BY STATE POLICE AS ROBBERS OF BUS

Arrested within less than two hours after one of the most daring robberies ever staged in Cambria county. John Hartman and Mike Zurba, both of Trenton, N. J., were lodged in the county jail at Ebensburg Sunday night by state police, who say they have been identified as the bandits who held up and robbed the driver and a passenger of a Southern Cambria bus near Twin Rocks at 8:45 o'clock Sunday evening.

The men were arrested near the scene of the holdup by a detail of state policemen, led by Private John R. Regna, and Chief of Police Jack Butala of Vintondale shortly after 10 o'clock Sunday night. Taken to the Nanty-Glo borough jail, they were said to have been identified by their victims and were brought to the county jail at Ebensburg for safekeeping.

Ranks With Daring Crimes

The robbery was committed at the top of a slight grade on the highway between Twin Rocks and Vintondale just a short distance from Twin Rocks and, for sheer boldness, takes rank with the most daring crimes ever perpetrated in the county.

According to Driver Angus, from whom upwards of $30 in cash was taken, the men boarded the bus at Nanty-Glo and paid their fare to Twin Rocks. Upon arriving there, the chief Butala was taken to Vintondale, where he told that the bus did not go to Vintondale on that particular trip. Drawing guns, the pair renewed their demand, meeting with success the second time.

As the bus neared the top of a slight grade a short distance out of Twin Rocks the bandits ordered the driver to stop the bus and robbed him of the money he was carrying. A male passenger was relieved of an amount of an amount of money believed to have been about $20, but a young woman, the only other occupant of the bus, was not molested. The bandits then left the bus, running toward the side of the road, where they disappeared into the bushes.

Driver Angus hailed a motorist and asked that the authorities be notified, and state police from the sub-station Ebensburg arrived on the scene shortly afterward and joined with Chief Butala in the search for the bandits, which culminated in the arrest of the suspects within a short time.

FIREMEN INJURED WHILE BATTLING FLAMES

Three firemen and one spectator were injured, none seriously and damage estimated at between $5,000 and $6,000 was caused by fire of undetermined origin which gutted the rear of a two-story building at Lilly Sunday afternoon.

The fire was discovered at 4:30 o'clock by a 13-year-old boy, from his home just across the alley, noticed smoke issuing from the kitchen at the rear of the building.

The injured were: Kenneth Prethy, 22, cut on the left knee when he fell while ascending a stairway; Robert Jones, 22, whose right shoulder was hurt when he slipped and fell on the second floor of the house, and Orval McGonigle, 25, whose right hand was cut as he was dragging a hose through a barbed wire fence near the scene of the fire. These men are members of the Cresson Volunteer Fire Co., which was summoned to assist the Lilly firemen. Louis Campagna, 14, of Lilly, also was cut on the left arm as he was assisting McGonigle in handling the hose line.

FOUR UNDER ARREST NOW ON CHARGES IN HOFFMAN CASE

With the arrest in Chicago early Saturday of Tony Palumbo, one more defendant has been added to the list of persons charged with complicity in the shooting of Louis Hoffman at the home of his father near Salix almost two years ago.

Carl Crow, Frank Powell and Frank Cantilla already are under indictment for the slaying, having been arrested in January as the culmination of an investigation by the state police which was started in April of last year and lasted for nine months before an arrest was made. The trio were scheduled to come to trial in county court last Monday, but, on motion of the district attorney, the trial was continued until the June term.

At the time the continuance was requested, the district attorney announced that recent evidence which had led that recent evidence only a day or come to light, made it unwise to proceed with the trials as originally scheduled and Palumbo's arrest comes as an answer to the question as to the exact nature of the evidence so recently discovered.

PATTON HIGH SCHOOL

As Reported to the Courier by Jim Shannon of the Student Body.

On Monday afternoon the Senior Class gave a very interesting St. Patrick's Day program to the rest of the school, and many visitors from outside. The program was entirely original and one of the best given in the school for many years. The Senior Class wish to thank Mrs. Greene for the wonderful assistance she gave toward making the program a success.

The program was as follows:
March ..... Senior Class
Senior Day Is Here Again, Senior Class
The Hat My Father Wore, Senior Class

Singing A Vagabond Song ..... Senior Class.

Senior Day ..... Senior Class.
March ..... Senior Class.
With this week's edition of the Courier, we bring you very sad news: The death of our ex-graduate and friend John Fitzpatrick. Although ill for only a short while, he passed to the beyond on Monday evening. The news of the death of John, come as a great shock to the high school, as only very few of the students knew of his weakened condition. John is survived by his mother, James of Detroit and Mabel at home. Mabel is also a member of the Junior class of this high school. The high school as a body, wish to extend their heartfelt sympathy to the Fitzpatrick family during their recent bereavement. The members of the high school feel that they have lost a true friend, and one that could never be replaced by another.

The Patton Boy's Basketball squad has been entered in the Fourth Inter-scholastic Basketball Tournament at St. Francis College starting on Thursday, and last Friday and Saturday of this week. The first game will be played with Blacklick. Should the Patton boys defeat Blacklick, they will then play Richland Township. Each team continues in the Tournament until they are defeated. It will be remembered that Blacklick defeated us on their floor, and we defeated them on our floor. The Tournament is for boys only.

Betty Greene is on the sicklist this week with a very severe cold.

Our classmate Albert Crooks is back in school again following an attack of pneumonia.

The topic discussed in the Mathematics Club on Wednesday morning was "Mathematical Recreations." The topic took in the field of problems as well as discussions, and it was handled by the class as a body.

In continuing our series of classroom descriptions, this week, we will describe the Junior and Senior English classroom. The room occupies a prominent position on the main floor of the building, at the left hand side to the front.

Miss Marion Hamilton teaches the subjects. There are thirty-four seats in the room, and five windows which face the front of the building. On the other side of the room, is a small bookcase, where the textbooks are kept during the vacation months. Many important books of reference are also kept there. A large teacher's desk is at the front of the room. Next week we will describe Mr. Bosserman office, and we trust that this description will prove interesting to our many readers.

Many of the teachers of Senior subjects are working out schemes to the class, so as to prepare those who will have to take the final examination. The students are taking advantage of the fine books in the library, and more books are expected to arrive at any time. While the number of books of fiction is not as large as those of reference work and history, it is hoped that the new shipment will be books of fiction, so as to even up the different kinds.

A short meeting of the Senior class was held on Tuesday evening to determine the number of students who are taking the trip to Washington. Since a few have definitely made up their minds, it is not known whether the trip will be made or not.

Quite a few of the students are planning to attend the Tournament at St. Francis College on Thursday. The members of the Junior Book-keeping Class have begun work on their third practice set. This set will probably be the last one for the class this year.

All of the Seniors taking Shorthand passed the O. G. A. test and have received their certificates. Eleanor Colberg receives a pin for having the best written paper. Marie Williams, Miriam Whitehead, Lorraine Tarr and Tessie Aaronson have passed their O. A. T. tests and have received their certificates. These certificates are given by the Gregg Publishing Co. This is a very fine record for Patton High, and we'll have to tell the Seniors to keep up the good work.

Basketball Games
The class games are at an end, and the Seniors won the pennant. Last Wednesday evening the Seniors and Sophomores played and the Seniors won by a score of 22-12, and "copped" the pennant. The numerals and the pennant have not yet arrived, but Mr. Fleming assured the players that they would receive them.

Freshman Class Notes
Mary Cassidy spent the week-end in Johnstown with relatives.
Clara Otto spent Sunday at her home in St. Lawrence.

Emilio Merolla intends to leave us by moving to Ohio. We are sorry to lose one of our bright boys.
Mr. Forsythe has several traps in the Science class room for mice, and it has proven to be very successful.
The Freshman Class was invited to the Senior's play given on St. Patrick's Day, which they enjoyed very much.
