REPUBLICAN WOMEN OF COUNTY HEAR MANY CANDIDATES FOR OFFICE

Approximately 250 Assembled for Pre-Primary Meeting; Questions Answered

Approximately 250 persons from all sections of the county attended the pre-primary meeting sponsored by the Republican Women's Club of Ebensburg held in the Courthouse yesterday night. The meeting was presided over by Miss M. Vashti Burr of Ebensburg, Deputy Attorney General and was held for the particular purpose of giving to the candidates for the various elective offices of the county an opportunity to express their respective views on a number of important questions affecting Nation and State.

Some days previous to yesterday meeting a committee composed of members of the club prepared and sent to all of the candidates a questionnaire which contained the issues they would be expected to discuss and upon which they were to state their respective positions. Candidates for the General Assembly from the Second Cambria County District were allowed six minutes each to state their views, while the candidates for Congress were allowed ten minutes each. Of the 12 candidates for Assembly from the Second Cambria District, nine were present and responded when their names were called for speeches; all four of the Congressional candidates were present, and likewise responded. Other candidates who could not be present addressed communications of regret of their inability to attend the meeting some of the absentees briefly stating their positions on the issues involved.

The candidates for Assembly from the Second Cambria District were first called upon to express their views and the following responded with brief addresses: James B. Swan, of Glasgow, Reade Township; Charles Leventry, of Getstown; Victor D. Mulhollen, of Portage; Harry E. Simmons, of Southmont; Thamar B. Williams, of Westmont; Thomas C. Evans, of Portage; David T. Michaels, of Beaverdale, Summerhill Township; T. W. Evans, of Nanty-Glo and John R. Musser, of Barnesboro.

NEED TAX LEGISLATION TO BETTER CONDITIONS

Secretary of State Association Is Speaker at Ebensburg

Reiterating the old principle that only in union is there strength, John A. Riley of Sugar Run, Luzerne county, secretary of the State Tax Collectors' association, told members of the county unit of the organization, in a meeting at Ebensburg recently, that much tax legislation was needed to better condition for the tax collectors, but that nothing could be accomplished unless every county organized united in support of the proposed measures. Upwards of 50 members of the county association were in attendance at the meeting, over which Justice of the Peace W. F. Ribblet of West Taylor township, the president, presided. A detailed explanation of the provisions of the new tax law enacted by the last legislature and the manner of making returns to the county commissioners under it was explained by George E. Kerby, chief clerk of the county commissioners, together with instructions for making returns on delinquent taxes.

The association will hold its next meeting at Ebensburg this coming Monday, when a luncheon will be held at the New Ebensburg Inn.

WOMAN ARRESTED WHILE TOTTING WHISKY BOTTLES

Mrs. E. J. Hall Taken in Custody in Altoona, After Trip to Gallitzin

Mrs. E. J. Hall, of Juniata was arrested recently by Sergt. Hyman Goldberg, shortly after she had left a train at the Altoona passenger station. She had in her possession two bottles which were filled with what is alleged by the police to be moonshine liquor. The police were apprised that the woman had been making regular trips to Gallitzin and learned that she would be aboard a train which arrives at Altoona in the afternoon. A charge of being a suspicious person was placed against her and she was lodged in the city jail at Altoona. A Commonwealth of transporting liquor was preferred against the woman.

THREE PLACES RAIDED BY COUNTY DETECTIVES

County Detectives G. E. Whited and Howard W. Huether, Constable Dean Whited, of Barnesboro, and a detail of State Police from the Ebensburg barracks raided a hotel conducted by Mike Salone, at Lilly, Saturday evening and found a quantity of moonshine liquor and home brew beer and wine. Salone was placed under arrest taken before Justice of the Peace F. W. Veil, of Cresson, and gave bail in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance at the June term of court. The officers also raided a store conducted by John Oleslar, at Lilly, where a quantity of liquor was found. Oleslar was also arraigned before Justice Veil and posted bond in the sum of $1,000 for appearance at the June term of court.

At Benecreek the officers raided the hall of the Slovak Sokol Society of America, where a dance was being held. A quantity of liquor and home brew beer was found and John Kuntz and Mike Tucksock were placed under arrest. They were taken before Justice of the Peace Charles P. Rowland, of that place and posted bond each in the sum of $1,000 for appearance at the June term of court.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Lambert E. Weakland, of Carrolltown, at the Miners' hospital, Spangler, last evening—a son.

GAME VIOLATORS GET JAIL TERMS

Indiana County Men Were Boiling Pheasant When Arrested; Egg Found

Monroe Fair and his son, Irvin Fair, of Buffington Township, near Strongstown, charged with violations of the Pennsylvania game laws in two separate instances were sentenced to pay fines of $50 and costs and $25 and costs, respectively, when arraigned recently before Justice of the Peace C. C. McLean, of Indiana. In default of payment, the father and son were remanded to the Indiana County Jail to serve sentences of 75 and 25 days, respectively.

The men were arrested last week by Game Protectors George Litzinger, of Indiana County and Elmer B. Thompson, of Cambria County, when they visited the Fair home and found a pheasant in a pot on the stove and a pheasant egg on the table, where the bird had been dressed and prepared for broiling a short time before.

Irvin Fair was charged with possessing game birds out of season, while his father was charged with the same offense and with disturbing the nest of a game bird.

MUSICAL PROGRAM SPANGLER HIGH STUDENTS TO PERFORM

Under the direction of the Simpson Studios of this place the music pupils of the Spangler High School will present a concert in the Auditorium of the Spangler High School next Tuesday evening commencing at 8:15 P. M.

An outline of the program is very interesting and seldom does an audience have the opportunity to hear such a varied and diversified group of numbers as this concert. The fine Spangler High School Orchestra of 30 pieces will take an important part in the program while a 30 voice mixed chorus will do several selections. A girl's trio which is the representative of Section 5 comprising 3 counties at the State Capitol will be heard as well as a girl's quartet and a boy's quartet. Small instrumental groups will include one of piano and two instruments piano and two groups a string quartet and a group of four instruments without accompaniment. The last two of these will also represent Section 5 at the State contest at Philadelphia next week.

The concert is held during Music Week in keeping with the National observance and all music lovers are cordially invited to attend. There will be no charge for admission but voluntary contributions will be received at the door. The money taken in will be used to defray music expenses of the year at Spangler High School.

The Patton High School is entered in practically all events at the County Track and Field Meet at Ebensburg on Saturday next.

TWO GOOD SHOWS COMING TO GRAND

THE CASE OF SERGEANT GRISCHA, WITH CHESTER MORRIS

HERBERT BRENON, daring adventurer of the films, has tossed precedent to the winds again and delivered another dramatic creation to thrill and startle the world's playgoers.

Brenon's new achievement is Radio Pictures' "The Case of Sergt. Grisch" an almost literal translation into film of Arnold Zweig's devastating novel of war. It will be presented for the first time, here on Monday and Tuesday.

Knitted closely into the story of Grisch's clash with the war machine is his romance with the girl outlaw leader, Babka, played by Betty Compson. Jean Hersholt plays the radical officer, Poshanski; Alec B. Francis, the kindly general, Von Yschow; Gustav Von Seyffertitz, the iron-handed commandant of Eastern forces, Schiefenzahn.

Daring innovation in theme, treatment and mechanical technique are introduced by Brenon in the production, upsetting many of the oldest and most substantial prejudices of the screen. It is viewed from any angle, a drama without single precedent.

JOAN CRAWFORD IN DRAMATIC FILM "UNTAMED"

Joan Crawford—a restless flame of a girl, flaring high one moment and dying down to a flicker the next—is appearing Friday and Saturday at the Grand Theatre in "Untamed," her first all-talking starring vehicle directed by Jack Conway.

Miss Crawford is one of the interesting enigmas in pictures. A girl who is expected to be gay and hilarious, coveted for parties because she can be depended upon to add to the occasion with a whirlwind dance or smart line, and yet who sometimes breaks under the strain of trying to be "the life of the party."

People think her happy-go-lucky, frank, wholeheartedly independent. Yet she is so sensitive that a blunt opinion often sends her into a dark, moody spell which she has to fight for hours.
