Don't Be A "Wished-I-Had" Act!

Pick Your Favorite From These Ambitious Hustlers And Back Him Or Her With Your Subscription For Five Years!

MRS. FRANK CALLAHAN East Carroll

Perhaps one of the most active and aspiring women in Patton and the surrounding community is Mrs. Frank Callahan, who is leading the race for the Grand Capital Prize in The Courier's "Travel Club." Of all the entrants entered in the campaign to date there is no one more deserving of the first prize than she. Working from morning till late at night, getting subscriptions from every section of the county, Mrs. Callahan has a host of friends who are backing her morally and with their subscriptions, to grab off the top prize. If you are in doubt as to whom to give your subscription you will make no mistake in turning it over to Mrs. Callahan. By the way, her husband, whom σαουη Απολασας as "Frank," has also been mighty active and productive in the campaign. Give her a helping hand in the form of a subscription!

E. W. ("BUD") WINSLOW PATTON

It would be a big surprise if one should, in the course of a day's travels, come in contact with someone who did not know "Bud" Winslow. "Bud" is perhaps one of the most popular young men throughout entire Cambria County, counting among his acquaintances men in all walks of life and many of whom are backing him to win the major award in The Courier's Subscription Drive. If acquaintances and friends are to be a determining factor in this campaign "Bud" will carry the honors within the next two weeks—BUT—promises are not subscriptions; dollars are what make subscriptions and credits and it is CREDITS that win. Fulfill that promise today—don't hold it back any longer!

MRS. HARRY STOLTZ PATTON

Riding along with the support and best wishes of a large number of friends, Mrs. Harry Stoltz, wife of the popular Ford dealer, came along in rapid strides the first week of her entry but since that time has fallen off a bit. If those people who had promised her their support would only fill their promises she says that she would be leading the race now. Aggressive from the word "go" we expect her to give the other club members a good race. Give her your subscription TODAY and help her along! You'll find that she will appreciate it!

HARRY C. WARNER PATTON

Covering practically the entire north Cambria county Harry C. Warner, better known as the "Maytag Man," has been making a quiet and unobtrusive race but he has been doing what the others have failed to do and that is—GET RESULTS! If anyone will bear watching for the next few weeks it is Harry. Keep your eye on him! Mr. Warner is kept pretty busy these days and if you have promised him your subscription send it to him before the week passes. Do your bit to put him "over the top". Every subscription, large or small will be received with thanks—and now!

MRS. SYLVIA KUHNLEY PATTON

Here is another of the busy women of Patton—and entered in the campaign to earn that First Grand Capital Prize. She carries with her the best wishes of a large group of acquaintances and a big bunch of boosters, but boosters are of no value unless they will help her out with SUBSCRIPTIONS. Moral support, she says, is a mighty good thing, but it doesn't get me any CREDITS—and CREDITS are what count towards winning the big prizes. "I am taking this means to appeal to all my friends with whom I will be unable to reach for a week or two. If you will all send me your subscriptions directly or to The Courier office I will get full credit for it. I am depending on YOU—and YOU—and YOU to help me win and win big," says Mrs. Kuhnley.

MRS. M. M. SCOTT PATTON

Up and down, down and up—seems to be the way with Mrs. Scott in this campaign. With the large number of relatives that both she and her husband have, together with their numerous friends in the Westover section there is NO GOOD REASON why she shouldn't be leading the race within the next week or two—and she will if those relatives and friends would only show their loyalty and sportsmanship in the form of subscriptions to The Courier. Come on, you kinfolks, back one of your own TO WIN THAT FIRST PRIZE! If you don't support her, who do you think will? Give her your five-year subscription TODAY!

T. H. WIRTNER PATTON

Popularly known as "T. H." among the sportsmen and farmers of Patton and surrounding territory, Mr. Wirtner has been running a fine race up to a week ago when some of his best prospects fell down on him and failed to fulfill their promises of subscriptions. "T. H." wants everyone to know that he is still in the running and is going to be a real contender for high honors within the next few weeks. What do you say, Patton Sportsmen's Association, why not get behind your secretary in the form of subscriptions to The Courier? With your help and assistance we can WIN one of the BIG prizes. Back him to the limit!

MISS JANET HARROWER (Bruneau) PATTON

It is a mystery to us why a young lady with the tremendous following that Miss Harrower has, is not up higher in the race. Is it because when she asks for a favor they turn their backs on her? That actually seems to be the case up to now and as the old saying goes: "What is the use of having friends if you can't use them?" As a friend or acquaintance of Miss Harrower's, are you going to stand by and see her lose a valuable prize when your subscription to The Courier for one, two or five years would be of untold value to her now? Surely your friendship is a little deeper than that—why don't you PROVE that in the form of a subscription TODAY—before you forget it? She will appreciate it from the bottom of her heart.

MRS. ANNE JACOBS PATTON

We are at a loss for words to explain, or rather, describe such a personality as is the possession of this active, hustling, busy and energetic woman. Interested in everything and anything, on the go from morning until night with a helping hand for everyone, Mrs. Jacobs has decided to do something for herself for a change and therefore she has entered The Courier's subscription drive with an eye on the Willys-Knight automobile, which is one of the first prizes. If you haven't decided on or picked a favorite in the race yet and you want to help the winner, give your subscription for as many years as you wish to Mrs. Jacobs—maybe you know her better as "Anne." Her telephone number is 58-R.

MISS JULIA TOBER PATTON

Here is a young lady with the ambition and desire to make her spare moments count towards winning one of the beautiful automobiles that The Courier is offering in its subscription drive. By her own efforts and with the co-operation and support of everybody employed in the Patton Clay Works, there is no reason in the world why she couldn't be in First Place within the next two weeks if the employees of the clay works would only get behind her 100% in the form of subscriptions. What do you say, friends in the Clay Works, are you going to stand idly by and see one of your "family" go down to defeat merely for the sake of YOUR subscription? Give her a helping hand NOW—TODAY!

MISS LAURA MERRILL PATTON

In Miss Merrill we have an example of a real American girl. The type that is trying to improve herself and get ahead. It was with a desire to further her education that "Dotty" took a hand in the Courier's campaign—to turn her spare moments into cash. If you are one of those who like to help young people advance themselves there is no other person in the campaign whom we could recommend that you support other than Miss Laura. Your subscription will be greatly appreciated—give it today!

MISS MARIE JACKSON GLASGOW

An active church worker with a host of friends who are just about ready to help her get up into the big money class, Miss Jackson is bound to spring a few surprises within the next few days. Take a tip from us and keep an eye on her—she will bear close watching just as soon as her acquaintances get lined up. Situated in a section that needs a real HOME newspaper, one that is a part of the community itself, The Patton Courier will be well entrenched through that section. Miss Marie says that with YOUR help she will bring that first prize to Glasgow. Get behind her, friends, and help her come through flying colors.
