Adrift With Humor

KISS FOR THE PRESENT. "My firm is sending me to Canada," said the young commercial traveler, calling on his young lady. "Oh, Jack," she cried, "does that mean that you want me to go with you?"

THEY'RE BEAUTS. She—The West has wonderful mountains—so beautiful. He—Yes, lots of them are buttes.

Shifting Opinion. Our old impressions we deny, How often have we seen it! We make a law and then we try To say we didn't mean it.

Expensive Upkeep. The indignant lady had just recognized the street beggar she habitually patronized. He was climbing into an expensive automobile. "What!" she gasped. "You own this! And beg?"

Hopeful. "Do you think your son will forget all he learned at school?" "I do hope so," replied the father. "I don't see how he can earn a living as cheer leader."

And Still He Paid. Dubhson—You paid court to that chorus girl once, didn't you, old man? Fluhson—Yes, and I'm still paying the court.

Eggsactly. "Dan always was a bad egg." "Yes, but the world in general didn't notice it much until he went broke."

LOVED THE RING

"Having broken your engagement to George because you hate him, why don't you send back his ring?" "Well, you see, dearie, I don't hate the ring."

I'll Let You Drop, Too. Self-esteem is very well. And there is naught can stop you. But though conceit may puff you up It surely will not prop you.

First Catch Your Man. The Visitor—Is your oldest sister married—the one who was so proficient in all branches of domestic science? Philippa—No, nor likely to be. She was so busy fitting herself to be the wife of a good man that she neglected to go after the man.

That's Different. Father—Did you see me shoot that woodpecker on the wing? Son—You never shot him on the wing. You broke his leg.

For Literary Uses. The Author—Can I get $2 advance on a story I'm writing? The Editor—It's unusual. But why? The Author—I've got to a point where the hero sits down to a square meal and I want to get the right atmosphere.

All His Fault. Wife—John, I'm so disappointed. John—What's the matter now, dear? "Here it is your birthday and you forget to bring me home a present to give to you."—Stray Stories.
