More Modernism

Jack-Why did you break with Alice, I thought you were crazy about her?

Jim-I am, but I decided I couldn't stand it to live with her folks.

A Few Little Smiles

HIS DIFFICULTY

Little Billy, returning from dancing school, was asked by his mother, "How was the lesson?" to which Billy replied, "Not so good, Mummy." "How do you mean, 'not so good'?" "Well," said the contemplative four-year-old, "I couldn't get the step the teacher showed me." "Oh, so that was it. What do you think was the trouble?" "Well, Mummy, I've been thinking about it, and I think it was my feet."

GOOD AT HISTORY

He-Are you good at history? She-Indeed I am! I never forget a date.

No Unemployment

Though compensation is not great When politics goes dizzy, There's work in every state To keep large numbers busy.

Nothing to Worry About

Gentleman (buying a cigar)-By Jove! If I haven't left my pocket-book at home.

Saleswoman-That's all right; you can pay me tomorrow.

Gentleman-Yes, but suppose I should get run over or get hit by a falling brick?

Saleswoman-Well, it wouldn't be any great calamity, anyhow.

Quo Vadis?

Policeman (to motorist who nearly collided)-Don't you know that you should always give half of the road to a woman driver?

Motorist-I always do, when I find out which half of the road she wants. -Boston Transcript.

Results of the Fray

"Say, old man, you are a sight! Why, you are pasted with fudge and smeared with chewing gum. Get mixed up in a candy store!"

"Worse than that. I attempted to umpire a basketball game between two girl teams."

WOULDN'T TRY IT AGAIN

Diner-Let me see-I had a steak yesterday.

Waiter-Yes, sir. Will you try it again today?

Diner-No, I think not. If you will bring me a different one I'll see what I can do.

The Fickle Public

How many a man of genial style Who can't see when to stop Is entertaining for awhile And then proves just a flop.

Poor Papa!

He-My dear, you talked in your sleep a long time last night.

She-What did I talk about?

"Well-er-it seemed to be mainly abuse of me."

She-I wasn't asleep.
