

ASHVILLE

Last Thursday evening, a very large crowd attended the school play. Minstrel and Commencement exercises held in the St. Thomas Church hall. Everyone seemed to enjoy the evening very much. The graduating class were as follows: Esther Tollern, Alma Colbert, Anna Benevat, Mary Hancherick, Anna Mair, Churdon, Leroy Johnson, Paul McKinney, Edward Kawolzi, and Robert Krug.

Leroy Johnson in behalf of the graduating class paid a fitting tribute to the good Sisters and Father Denny for the interest shown in the education and also to the whole school. He also thanked the general public for their attendance. Father Peters gave a very fine address he asked the graduating class to keep on with their education.

Memorial Day the American Legion of Cresson attended the Memorial Services at the St. Thomas Cemetery, to decorate the graves of the deceased Soldiers.
