BOMB DAMAGES INDIANA HOME; PROBABLY MEANT FOR COUNTY DETECTIVE

The residence of R. E. Wildermuth, district manager of the Maytag Machine Co., was bombed about 3:30 o'clock yesterday morning in what Indiana and state police believe to have been an attempt on the life of Chief County Detective Harry Koozer. None was injured, but the house, owned by Mrs. Clara Kessler of Cleveland, O., and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Wildermuth for a few months, was damaged to the extent of $2,000.

The theory that someone was in the vicinity of the wrecked house shortly before the explosion is borne out by the fact that Mr. Koozer's dogs awakened him by barking and upon starting downstairs to investigate, he heard the explosion of the bomb which had been placed near the side entrance to the Wildermuth home.

Persons residing within a radius of three blocks were awakened by the explosion and immediately a search was instituted, but today no arrests had been made.

About two months ago the residence of Dist. Atty. L. Earle Miller was badly damaged by a dynamite explosion.
