

CARMELITE NUNS PLANNING NOVENA

A public novena in preparation for the holy nativity of the Infant Jesus through the powerful intercession of St. Therese of Lisieux, the Little Flower of Jesus, opened at the Carmelite monastery on Tuesday, Dec. 16, at 4 p. m. and will continue for nine days closing Christmas eve, Wednesday, Dec. 24, at 4 p. m.

All those who are unable to attend the services in the chapel are requested to mail their petitions to the Rev. Mother Prioress, Carmelite monastery, Loretto.

It is anticipated that many graces and great blessing will be received from heaven through the hands of the Infant Jesus and His devoted servant, St. Therese of the Child Jesus and the holy face, during the coming nine days for friends of Carmel and clients of the Little Flower.

In preparation for the holy nativity of the Infant Jesus, as well as the feast day of Little Flower, Dec. 25, all are requested to join with the Carmelite nuns in praying for all spiritual and temporal favors during this fervent novena.

All who send petitions to the Carmel for prayers during this novena will share in the holy masses. Holy Communions and special prayers of the sisters for the remainder of the year.

On Sunday afternoons devotions will be at the same hour 4 p. m. in the Carmelite chapel and following the novena prayers, there will be Benediction by Rev. Father Finn, T. O. R., of St. Francis seminary, Loretto, after which the valuable first class relic of the Little Flower which the Reverend Mother Prioress brought from France will be offered for veneration. Also there will be the blessing of babies and little children.

HOFFMAN EMPLOYEES TO ASSIST IN AIDING NEEDY

To Donate One Day's Pay Monthly; Company and the President Take Part.

Employees of the W. E. Hoffman Ice Cream Company, both at the Barnesboro plant and at the seven other plants of the concern, will set aside one day's pay each month during the entire winter to be turned over to their charitable organizations for the assistance of those in distress because of unemployment.

While the plan is not new in the present depression, it is unique in a three fold arrangement of contributions which will materially swell the amount given for relief. J. H. Leher, of Altoona, president of the company, will add dollar for dollar to the amount subscribed by the employees, and, in addition, the company itself will contribute ten per cent of its sales during the holiday season.

Under the arrangement adopted by the Hoffman Company, three sources will contribute toward the relief fund. Employees of the local plant at Barnesboro, according to Manager Simler, are heartily in accord with the plan which is already in effect, and from time to time the funds will be turned over to local authorities for charitable purposes.

GRAHAM ORDERS TRIO TO SERVE SENTENCES

Defendants in Emmerling Brewery Case Called by U. S. Attorney

Three men who have been at liberty for four years while under sentence to jail from federal court, will be called on to surrender about the first of the year, United States Attorney Graham said at Pittsburgh, Friday.

The men—E. W. Hardison, J. E. Hunter and J. L. Simler, all of Johnstown—have been under $5,000 bond since June 2, 1926, when they were sentenced to six months in the Cambria county jail after being found guilty of conspiracy to violate the prohibition law in the Emmerling brewery plant.

Graham discovered the men had never served their sentences in checking up old records in his office and began in investigation to determine the cause of the delay.

"I discovered one of the men was used as a witness in the second trial of Daniel Shields, another defendant in the case, and for this reason they were not ordered to surrender until the disposition of the Shields case."

Massing the imposing ranks of central Pennsylvania's Shrine, upward of 1,800 members of the order gathered at Altoona Friday for the Decem-ber ceremonial, feast and business meeting of Jaffa Shrine. Hundreds of visiting Shriners found a cordial welcome as they arrived to participate in the colorful ceremonies at Jaffa's new beautiful home.

Job Selecting by Petition Not Popular with Pinchot

Governor-Elect Also Shows No Interest in Patronage Now

Cabinet selection by petition is not popular with Governor-elect Pinchot. He also made it known last week that he will not bother with patronage until he has completed his Cabinet positions.

Letters beseeching Capitol jobs have been received at Milford by the thousands since Election Day, and if Pinchot did nothing else he could not read them all as they arrive. They are classified for him in groups, but it is doubtful if he gets much enthusiasm out of looking at even the bundles.

Supporters of W. J. Stitzler, Jr. who was an ardent Pinchot district chairman in that part of the State conceived the idea that the petition form of indorsement was the most effective way to land him at the Capitol. A few of his friends had Congress from the central part of the State launch boom for Stitzler for Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Stitzler's abilities are known to Pinchot and if there is to be local recognition of politicians under the next Administration it will be among those Republicans who were loyal in the primary and did not hold off until a few days prior to the general election.

JOHN A. CIBULKA, BARNESBORO MAN, EXPIRES IN FLORIDA

John A. Cibulka, aged 63 years, for the past 20 years a resident of Barnesboro, died on Friday night in the Mount Park Hospital at St. Petersburg, Florida. Mr. Cibulka had been engaged in the tailoring business in Barnesboro until his health failed a few months ago. He and his wife left Barnesboro on Wednesday last week, arriving in St. Petersburg on Thursday, where Mr. Cibulka was taken directly from the train to the hospital.

Mr. Cibulka is survived by his second wife, Mrs. Sara Byers Cibulka, and a son by his first marriage, John D. Cibulka.

The body was brought to Altoona. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lucy Byers. Interment was in Rose Hill Cemetery.

Will Rogers Picks A Story For This Spot

By WILL ROGERS

I GUESS it was in Chicago that there was a gunman that had been doing a hard night's work down Cicero way. He was all tired out, but he didn't want to go to bed till he'd looked up some friends.

So he went to the high-class apartment that was the town house of his friend Bill. Bill's doorman showed the gentleman in, and directly Bill himself came into the drawing room where his pal was waiting.

"Hello, Bill," says Two-Gun Frank, kindly. "I was afraid you'd been bumped off. They found a guy down by the lake, all full of machine gun bullets, and he answered your description, the cops tell me."

"Yes, all that."

"Even' clothes?"

"Right-o."

"Plain black socks without any labels?"

"Yes, that too."

"What size shoe?"

"Number eights."

"Oh, well, 'twan't me then. I wear eight and a half."
