Income tax payments will be due on March 15th. Every single or married person not living with husband or wife, who had net income of $1000 or more, and married man with income of $2500 or more, must file returns. If in doubt, obtain forms and printed instructions from the collector of internal revenue.

Quite a number of subscribers in the Patton area are delinquent in their subscriptions to the Press-Courier, and we really do need the money. These accounts, while small in themselves, mean a great deal to us in the aggregate. If it is convenient for you, won't you drop in and pay us anything you can on account?

Mrs. R. H. Sharbaugh, of Carrolltown was a visitor in Patton on Tuesday afternoon.

Out of town people who were in attendance at the funeral of Hugh Whiteford, Sr., on Monday afternoon, included: Mrs. Mary Whiteford and children, James and Doris, Mrs. Edward Collinson and daughter, Patricia, and Mrs. James Pitten, all of Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Howard Bennett of Johnstown; Mr. Albert Greenway, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Butterworth of Pittsburgh; Mr. Jacob Beechman and Mrs.

Charles Strittmatter, two-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Xavier Strittmatter, of Brewster avenue was taken to the Spangler hospital on Sunday for mastoid treatment.

Cinch and pinochle at St. George's Church hall on Sunday, Jan. 29th at 8 o'clock. Prizes and lunch. Tickets 35 cents.

Dr. George E. Dvorchak of McKeesport hospital, spent the week end at the home of his father, John Dvorchak.

An ordinance of the Borough of Patton setting the speed limit at 25 miles per hour for vehicles within the borough, as well as other traffic regulations, appears elsewhere in this issue.

There will be a cinch and bingo party in the St. Lawrence hall on Sunday evening, January 29th, and the general public is cordially invited to attend.

Washington's birthday, February 22, is also Ash Wednesday and the beginning of the Lenten season, this year.

Patton and Coalport-Irvona high schools divided honors in a basketball twin bill at Coalport last Friday evening, with the Patton boys winning a 30 to 14 triumph and the Coalport girls defeating the local lassies by a score of 21 to 4.

A representative of the State Personal Property Bureau will be at the First National Bank at Patton today (Thursday), to take individual state property tax returns.

The annual banquet of the Patton Lodge, No. 488, Loyal Order of Moose, will take place on Tuesday evening, February 14th. This will be the 28th anniversary occasion of the order, and the committee in charge plan for a gala time. The ladies will be guests and entertainment and cards will follow the dinner. Reservation cards will be mailed members shortly.

The marriage of Miss Anna Bank of Hastings, and Andrew Harcharik of Mt. Union, was recently solemnized in St. Bernard's Catholic church, Hastings.

Patton firemen Sunday night answered two alarms, one of which was false. The false alarm came within the borough and the second call was from St. Augustine, where an overheated flue ignited the walls in the St. Augustine church hall. The blaze was discovered by the crew of a passing snow plow and the firemen were called.

UNITED DISTILLERY WORKERS LOCAL INDUSTRIAL UNION, NO. 857, MANOR, PA.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER:—

We, the members of United Distillery Workers Local No. 857, Manor, Pa., are proud of the fact that our employer, Fry & Mathias, Inc., has the distinction of being the first distillery in the United States of America to voluntarily organize its workers under the banner of the C. I. O. And an equally important fact which we want you and all other union men to know is that we are a 100 pct. closed shop. Union men everywhere should know that Fry & Mathias, Inc., cooperates to the fullest extent with the C. I. O.

The products of Fry & Mathias, Inc., are known throughout Pennsylvania for their fine quality. To those of you who purchase and use liquor we suggest that you always ask for our brands which are listed on this advertisement and are on sale at your favorite tavern and all Pennsylvania State Liquor Stores.

We solicit your cooperation to spread the news among all union men that when they buy liquor they should show their loyalty to the C. I. O. by purchasing products of Fry & Mathias, Inc.—a 100 per cent C. I. O. Company, operating a closed shop. Fraternally yours,

A. NALEY, PRESIDENT, United Distillery Workers Local Industrial Union, No. 857, Manor, Pa.

Beck theatre in New York City, is Miss Margaret Blythe, of London, a cousin of Thomas Quinn, of the Hotel Patton, this place, and of Dr. E. J. Fox, of Osceola Mills. Gifted with a talented voice, Miss Blythe, known to her friends as "Peggy", has been in correspondence with Mr. Quinn prior to and since her arrival in America. It is the plan of Dr. Fox and Mr. Quinn to visit Miss Blythe while in this country. The D'Oyly Company, upon completion of the New York engagement will appear in Philadelphia, Chicago and other cities.

Members of the Northern Cambria Kiwanis club at their regular meeting on Monday in Spangler celebrated the 2th anniversary of Kiwanis International in a fitting manner. Joann Foreman, President of the club, presided, and the anniversary address was delivered by Ira C. Gross, of the Southmont schools. An interesting program was presented in charge of William J. Ellick of Spangler.

The Try-Hy-Y Club of Patton High School, held a meeting at the home of Renalda and Margaret Lacue on January 23rd. A business meeting was held. Plans for a Valentine dance, to be held in the Patton High Gym, on Feb. 2nd, were discussed; also plans for a sleigh ride on February 2nd. A lunch was served. Those present were: Renalda and Margaret Lacue; Mary Louise Deschamps, Rita Hazenstab, Ann Smith, Rita Viscovi, Viola Schirf, Ruth Colberg, Margaret Steir, Kathleen Crowell, Martha Jan Dunbar, Betty Weakland, Marjorie Morrow, Barbara Weakland, Helen Maurer, Euvone Maurer, Helen Evans, Barbara Westrick, Lillian Finet, Ethel Lesnak, and Miss Green, sponsor of the club.

Undeafated Patton High School scored its third straight triumph in Section 2 of the Northern Cambria County League on Tuesday evening, in the local school, by smothering the Hastings tilters under a 29 to 11 tally. This marks the seventh win of the local boys for the season. Don't forget the annual Roosevelt ball, under the sponsorship of the Patton Eagles and the Kiwanis Club, to be held in the Eagles Home, Patton, on Friday evening of next week, February 3rd. Your purchase of a ticket will aid our local crippled children.

A successful and enjoyable banquet to honor the local high school football team, was given on Wednesday evening of this week by Patton folks, sponsored by the Patton Chamber of Commerce. Because of our press time, we are unable to give particulars in this issue.

Lest you forget. The Patton Firemen are holding bingo parties every Wednesday evening in the firemen's hall. Attend them.
