

PATTON BRIEFS

Don't fail to attend the Fire Company's bingo party this Friday evening in the Municipal Building. A good time is assured all.

On page two of this issue will be found a letter written from India by the Rev. Father Aquinas Lieb, T. O. R., one of the Franciscan band of missionaries who left Loretto last summer. It is well worth reading. Don't overlook it.

Tomorrow evening, from 5 P. M. a penny cafeteria, will be conducted in the dining room of the M. E. Church. Come and get your supper.

Work is progressing rapidly on the the razing of the Hotel Patton on 5th avenue, recently purchased by the Walter McCoy Post, American Legion. Patton is preparing to put a good community ball team on the field this summer, and the support of the general public should be forthcoming.

Don't forget the Boy Scout Court of Honor to be held in Patton Thursday evening of this week.

The Northern Cambria Kiwanis Club is engaged in an attendance contest with the Ebensburg club, and the loser will entertain the winners.

A class was organized on Tuesday evening under WPA auspices in the Legion building, for free educational courses which include English, American citizenship, Community Civics, American Government, Reading and writing; also questions and answers for naturalization work, and filling in naturalization papers.

A meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Walter McCoy Post No. 614, American Legion, will be held on Monday evening, April 3rd, at eight o'clock in the Legion home. All members are urged to attend. A card party, admission 10 cents, will be held after the meeting.

At a recent meeting of the Patton Chamber of Commerce discussions again were held in the interests of a community swimming pool for Patton, and it is hoped that the venture can be pushed through this summer. Three miners were injured in accidents in mines in the northern part of the county on Monday and all were removed to the Spangler hospital. Frank Rodgers, 53, of Hasings, suffered a fracture of the right ankle when he was injured in an accident in the Lanark Coal Company Mine at Hastings. William McCombie, 20, of Spangler, suffered lacerations of the right hand when he caught the member in a motor at the Red Top Mine at Spangler. Ernest Kitchen, 24, of Belsano, had his right leg injured in an accident in the Monroe Coal Company mine at Revloc.

Don't fail to attend the Fire Company's bingo party this Friday evening in the Municipal Building. A good time is assured all.

Progress on the road between Harry Hoover's farm in East Carroll township and Baker's Cross Roads, is noted. Construction of this highway is a WPA project, and work has continued on the project all through the winter months.

Services at the Trinity Episcopal Church next Sunday (Palm Sunday) will begin at 9 a. m., instead of 9:15 a. m., which is the regular time.

Saturday is April Fools Day—so be careful!

The money box of the Old Ebensburg Inn was rifled on Monday morning and the thief got away with $21 in bills and change.

Next Sunday is Palm Sunday. The Lenten season ends with next week. Special services will be held in the local Catholic churches on Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday. Easter next year will be several weeks earlier.

A sale of baked goods for the benefit of St. George's Catholic church will be held on Saturday of next week, April 8th, in the Haluska Motor Co. building. Cakes, cookies, pies, rolls, colored eggs, salad, baked beans and other foods will be sold.

Mr. and Mrs. Ames Ritters of Baltimore, Md., announce the birth of a son on March 18th at the Johns Hopkins hospital. Mrs. Ritters, before her marriage, was Miss Margaret Whiteford of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cunningham of Spangler, announce the birth of a daughter on March 23. The Cunninghams are former local residents.

Pat McLaughlin, Bob Petteroni, Jim Biebel, Misses Pauline Wert, Celestina Ropp, spent Saturday with friends in Pittsburgh.

Miss Beatrice Cunningham of Media, Pa., spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Frank Cunningham. Miss Catherine Cowher, student at Drexel College, Philadelphia, is visiting her mother, Mrs. M. B. Cowher. Mrs. Helena Overberger, who has been seriously ill at her home for the past five days, is somewhat improved. Ross Leary, of Struthers, Ohio, is spending some time at the home of his brother, Harvey Leary, of Terra Cotta avenue.

Don't fail to attend the Fire Company's bingo party this Friday evening in the Municipal Building. A good time is assured all.

MAN FOUND DEAD NEAR CASSANDRA

Cassandra — Joseph Foytek, 43, was found dead last Friday in a shanty at Rock Heading, near Cassandra, where he had been residing alone for several months. Foytek's body was discovered sprawled on the floor of the cabin by Mike Carbine, a miner residing in the vicinity.

Coroner Patrick McDermott conducted an investigation and said death probably was due to a heart attack. Foytek formerly was employed in the mines in Indiana County. The deceased had no relatives in this section so far as authorities have been able to learn.

SPANGLER MINER'S FACE IS CRUSHED IN CAVE-IN

Roy Stratton, 24, of Spangler was to be removed to a Johnstown Hospital last Friday for treatment of injuries sustained while he was at work last Thursday night in Mine 22 of the Pennsylvania Coal and Coke Corp'n at Marsteller.

The young man was admitted to Spangler Hospital at 10:30 o'clock last Thursday night, suffering from a crushed face and lacerations of the head. He was said to be in fair condition.

It was reported Stratton was injured when caught in a cave-in as he was setting a prop in the mine. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Stratton of Spangler.

FORTY HOURS DEVOTION AT LORETTO CARMEL

The Forty Hours to begin at the Loretto Carmel Easter Sunday at the Carmelite Monastery of Loretto, Pa., the usual services will be held each day during Holy Week, at 7 A. M. The Devotion of the Forty Hours will open on Easter Sunday at 7 A. M. A Solemn High Mass will be celebrated. There will also be Solemn High Mass on Easter Monday and Tuesday, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament each afternoon at 4 P. M., with the closing of the Forty Hours on Tuesday afternoon. The many friends of Carmel are invited to attend these services. All persons sending donations of flowers, plants, and ferns for the Repository on Holy Thursday and also for the Forty Hours will have a special remembrance and the flowers placed on the Altars for their intentions.

PLAN 4-H GIRLS CLUB YEAR WORK

Planning work for the ensuing year, 31 women leaders of Cambria County girls' clubs met last week at the home of Mrs. Thomas Estep, Ebensburg. Mrs. Louise Everett, assistant director of 4-H club work of the Penna. State College discussed the proper manner of conducting the club meetings and keeping of club records. Miss Mabel McDowell, clothing specialist of State College, stressed proper garment construction and wise selection of materials and colors.

Miss Emma H. Estman, county home economics extension representative, outlined plans for the 4-H Girls' Club Camp, the 4-H Club Roundup and the 4-H Club cooperation with the Cambria County Fair. Supper was served and a short social period was held.

"A born organizer chooses his subordinates with great care, having chosen them, he delegates certain duties to them, and as long as they perform these duties to his satisfaction he does not interfere with them."

BOY IS KNOCKED FROM HIS SHOES BY AUTO

Cresson — George L. Williams, 13, of 902 Main St., Lilly was actually knocked from his shoes last Friday morning when he was struck by an automobile while crossing the William Penn Highway here.

The boy was picked up from the side of the road in an unconscious condition and removed to Mercy Hospital in Altoona, where he regained consciousness Friday afternoon. Both of his shoes were found some distance away.

At the hospital X-ray pictures were taken to determine the extent of head injuries. His condition was listed as fair. The name of the driver of the car was not immediately learned.

LABOR PROTESTS AGAIN HOLD UP ACT HEARINGS

Washington.—Organized labor and liberal protests again brought a halt to the tory attempt to rush hearings on Wagner act amendments this week with the announcement that the Senate Labor and Education Committee would postpone setting a date for another week.

Senator Elbert D. Thomas, chairman of the Committee, announced that hearings were held off in the interests of CIO and AFL negotiations for unity. He said that a large number of messages had been received from CIO and AFL unions demanding delay in the hearings and expressing opposition to amendments.

THOMAS M. GRAY QUILTS AS DISTRICT FORESTER

Thomas M. Gray, of Southmont, Saturday resigned as district forester to the Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters. The resignation is effective on March 31st.

Gray said he resigned to enter the landscape contracting business. He indicated he would open a business in the near future near Geistown.

MAN HANGS SELF NEAR BEAVERDALE

The badly decomposed body of John Sankovick, 51, of Beaverdale, was found hanging from a tree in a lonely patch of woods about three miles from Beaverdale on Saturday by two 12-year-old boys. Deputy Coroner Conway attributed death to suicide by hanging. He said the noose was made from a piece of wire. The man had probably been dead a week.

If a little salt is sprinkled on the cut side of an onion, and it is scraped with a spoon, onion juice can be obtained without tears.

White clothes should be hung in the sun to dry whenever the weather permits. It helps keep them white.
