

DEATH NOTICES

LAWRENCE VOLK

Lawrence Volk, 79, well-known Susquehanna Township farmer and father of 12 children, 10 of them living, died at 9:15 o'clock last Friday morning at his home.

Mr. Volk's health had been impaired for several months. A native and lifelong resident of Cambria County he was born in West Carroll Township, February 24, 1860, a son of Benedict and Elizabeth (Schimp) Volk.

He was married three times, his first two wives having preceded him in death. His first wife was Jennie (Dunegan) Volk. Three children were born to the union. They were Bernard and Mary Volk, deceased, and Joseph Volk, whose whereabouts are unknown.

In January, 1900 Mr. Volk married Mrs. Barbara (Keefer) Weaklan in St. Benedict's Catholic Church, Carrolltown. Three children born to that union are Miss Mary Volk, New York City; Raymond Volk, at home, and Michael Volk, Carrolltown.

In June, 1906 he and the former Alice Kirkpatrick were married in St. Joseph's Church. Surviving are his third wife and these children: Minnie, wife of Paul Rice, Portage; Charles Volk, whereabouts unknown; James, Elizabeth, Lawrence and Genevieve Volk, all at home.

Mr. Volk was a brother of Mrs. Catherine Bertram and Miss Margaret Volk, both of Loretto; Mrs. Minnie Means, Miss Regina Volk and Sister Mary Vincenza of the Sisters of Charity, Pittsburgh. Two brothers, Frank and Henry Volk, preceded him in death.

Funeral services were conducted at 9 o'clock Monday morning in St. Benedict's Catholic Church, Carrolltown. Rev. Father Roman Nibbler, O. S. B., assistant, officiated at the mass. Interment in the church cemetery was directed by H. J. Easley of Hastings.

MRS. ELLA McCULLOUGH.

Funeral services for Mrs. Ella (Storm) McCullough, aged 89, a native of Chest Springs, were conducted from St. Patrick's Catholic church, Carlisle, last Thursday morning. Interment was in a Newville cemetery.

Mrs. McCullough was born in Chest Springs on June 1, 1849, a daughter of Lewis and Marg. Storm. She resided in Cambria county for forty years prior to her marriage to ohn Brady McCullough, when she moved to Newville. Her husband passed away a number of years ago. He was the last surviving member of her immediate family.

Surviving are these children, Horace Philadelphia; Mrs. William Williams, Rochester, N. Y.; Denna, Iowa; Tabitha and Brady, both of Newville. Mrs. McCullough was well known in Chest Springs.

CYRIL P. RHODY.

Cyril P. Rhody, aged 65 years, former resident of Ashville, died Saturday night at his home in Pittsburgh, following an extended illness. He was a son of James and Margaret Rhody, both deceased, former residents of Ashville. Cyril Rhody left Ashville twenty-five years ago and has since made his home in Pittsburgh.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Marie (Murphy) Rhody, and three children: Mrs. Earl Derberding, Chicago; Marie and James Rhody, both at home. He also leaves two grandchildren.

The remains were brought to Ashville, and funeral services were held Wednesday morning in St. Thomas' Catholic church, with interment in the church cemetery.

MRS. MINNIE SCHMIDT.

Mrs. Minnie Schmidt, 80, died suddenly last Thursday afternoon at the home of her stepson, Earl Winnings, of Emigh. Coroner Patrick McDermott said death was due to a heart attack.

Mrs. Schmidt was born in Germany on November 10, 1858, and came to the United States in 1882. Her husband preceded her in death. Surviving are a son, Charles Schmidt, Pittsburgh, and a step-son, Earl Winnings, mentioned above. Funeral services were conducted at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Winnings home by Rev. G. C. Patterson, pastor of the Cherry Tree Methodist Church. Interment was in the East Ridge Cemetery under the direction of Killins & Long, Barnesboro morticians.

JOHN WESLEY DEYARMIN.

John Wesley Deyarmin, 61, for the last 37 years an electrician employed by the Peale Coal Company at Emigh, died Sunday at his home at Emigh Run where he had resided since 1906. Mr. Deyarmin had been in ill health for several months. Born Oct. 30, 1877, in Montgomery township, Indiana county, near Cherry Tree, he was a son of Robert and Mary (Ripple) Deyarmin, both deceased. Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Anna (Shaner) Deyarmin, and a foster daughter, Miss Dorothy Montgomery. The funeral services were held Wednesday in the Stiffertown Evangelical church, with interment in Thompson cemetery, near Hillsdale.

MRS. CATHERINE D. COLLINS

Mrs. Catherine D. Collins, a native of St. Augustine, died unexpectedly on Sunday afternoon at her home in Altoona. She was a daughter of Edward and Mary Ann Dunegan. Her husband, Michael Collins, preceded her in death. Surviving is a daughter, Mrs. Francis M. Durbin of Altoona. She also leaves these brothers and sisters: Edward F. Dunegan, Cresson; George P. Dunegan, Ebensburg; Miss Annie Dunegan and Mrs. Stella Douglass, both of Altoona; and Mrs. Margaret Brooks and Mrs. Hortense Adams both of Cresson.

GRAND PATTON THEATRE

Friday One Day Only "PRAIRIE JUSTICE" starring BOB BAKER

Saturday - Double Feature

The Funniest FILM FEUD of the CENTURY!

You Can't Cheat an Honest Man

Edgar BERGEN and Charlie MCCARTHY "MORTIMER" Constance Moore, Mary Forbes, Thurston Hall, Princess Baba

Added Attraction

NANCY DREW Reporter with BONITA GRANVILLE - John Litel - Frank Thomas, Jr. - Mary Lee

Sunday and Monday

Matinee Sunday at 2:30

Tuesday, Bargain Night

"THERES ALWAYS A WOMAN"

MELVYN DOUGLAS VIRGINIA BRUCE BACK AGAIN! THAT DAFFY HUSBAND-WIFE DETECTIVE TEAM THAT DELIGHTED YOU IN 'THERE'S ALWAYS A WOMAN'

Wednesday and Thursday

WELCOME SPRING SMILING

A Big Smile of Satisfaction is Yours When You Buy SHARBAUGH & LIEB'S

SUITS $18.50 $22.50 $27.50

- MICHAEL STERN JOSEPH & FEIS

In all Popular Stylish Colors and Patterns!

SPRING is a happy season. To best enjoy it, go into it feeling in high spirits. We suggest you see one of our fine suits, wear it and enjoy the season as it is meant to be enjoyed.

"VALUE FIRST CLOTHES" SHARBAUGH & LIEB BARNESBORO, PA.

GEORGE BASANDI.

Funeral services for George Basandi aged 68 years, who died on Friday night last at his home in Barnesboro, were conducted on Tuesday morning in St. John's Greek Catholic church, Barnesboro and interment was made in the church cemetery. Mr. Basandi was born in Europe in 1870. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Mary (Vasilko) Basandi, and these children: Mrs. Margaret Bednar, of Youngstown, Ohio; Misses Mary and Ethel Basandi and Joseph Basandi, all of New York City, and Michael and George Basandi, at home.

MRS. MARY C. BARTO.

Mrs. Mary C. Barto, a native of Carrolltown, died on Saturday night at her home in Altoona. She was born in 1870, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Feighner. Surviving are her husband, William G. Barto and two daughters, Misses Viola and Lelia, at home. She also leaves these brothers and sisters: Ambrose, John, Joseph, Albert and Edward Feighner, all of Carrolltown; Mrs. Rose Young of Chicago and Miss Annie Feighner of Nantyglo.

JOHN BITTERS.

John Bitters, aged 80 years, of Barnesboro, died on Sunday afternoon at the Cambria County Home Hospital, Ebensburg, where he had been a patient for several months. He was formerly employed as a coal miner. His wife died about eight years ago, and a son about a year ago. Funeral services were conducted on Wednesday morning with a high mass in St. Edward's Catholic church, Barnesboro. Interment was made in St. Nicholas' Catholic church cemetery at Nicktown.

CHARLES YANESKI

Funeral services for Charles Yaneski, 58, of Colver, who died last Wednesday morning in Colver Hospital, were conducted at 9 o'clock Saturday morning in Holy Family Catholic Church, Colver. Rev. Father J. J. Gura, rector, officiated. Interment in the New Catholic Cemetery, Ebensburg, was directed by the Doerr Funeral Home, Ebensburg.

ROBERT HAMMOND JR.

Robert Hammond Jr., five-week-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hammond Sr., of 800 Sample Street, Ebensburg, died last Thursday at the parental home. Burial took place at 2:00 Friday afternoon in the New Catholic Cemetery, Ebensburg under the direction of Duke J. Rosensteel.

HASTINGS

Mrs. Maude Brandt and Mrs. Joseph Elder of Altoona spent Sunday here with relatives.

Mesdames Albert Gill, A. J. Dillon, Walter Elder, John Bills and W. H. Yeager were Sunday callers in Bakerston.

Mrs. A. J. Dillon and daughters, Betty and Mary Ruth, were Saturday shoppers in Altoona.

Stephen Kicklock was a business visitor in DuBois recently.

Mrs. Ben Effinger and daughter, Pauline, spent Friday at the Albert Gill home on Harvey street.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl McKillop and son, Earl, spent Sunday at the L. S. Yeager home in Patton.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McKillop and grand-daughter, Rose Marie, and Jno. McKillop of Philipsburg, were with friends here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Paterna and children and Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Wagner motored to Johnstown Saturday.

Messrs. Clarence Johnson, Barney Beunier, Bernard Trinkle and Metro Bobby of Patton visited friends here Saturday evening.

Paul Menchlof Altoona spent the week end with his father, L. C. Menchio.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Allison and son, Bobbie, of Ebensburg were Sunday callers here.

L. C. Menchio was a business caller in Altoona on Monday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Niebauer were callers in Ebensburg on Monday of this week.

Six members from the Ladies' Bowling League: Agnes Bills, Cecelia Gunther, Thais Bearer, Esther McKillop, Gene Gunther and Margaret Kelly, emerged victorious last Friday night when they bowled the Carrolltown alleys.

Miss Catherine Fongheiser of Akron, Ohio, returned to that city Monday of this week after having spent the past two weeks at the B. J. Niebauer home.

John Kiklak of Cleveland, Ohio, is spending some time at the Kiklak home in East End.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Niebauer and daughter, Eleanor, and Mrs. Catherine Fongheiser attended the funeral of Wm. Jancour in Houtzdale recently.

Mrs. A. J. Houck entertained the members of her bridge club at her home last Thursday evening. Prizes were awarded and a tasty lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Constanzo and children of Martinsburg, were week end guests at the Philip Constanzo home.

Don't forget about the bake sale on Easter Saturday at Easley's store.

A "Ham Bingo", benefit of St. Bernard's Church, will be held in the Municipal hall on Sunday, April 2.

Miss Helen Holtz spent Sunday at the Lane home in Ebensburg.

Mrs. B. J. Niebauer was hostess to a number of friends Sunday evening at the Niebauer home on Third avenue, the occasion being Mr. Niebauer's birthday anniversary. Cards, with prizes to the high scores featured. At the close of the evening the hostess served a delicious lunch. The following were in attendance: Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Westrick and daughters, Callista Ann and Lakada, Miss Nell McElhaney of Colver; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Feighner and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Westrick of Patton; Mr. and Mrs. North Rodgers and son, Jimmie, of Johnstown; Maurice Strittmatter of Carrolltown, and Mrs. Catherine Fongheiser of Akron, Ohio.

Mrs. P. O. Holtz and daughters, Helen and Monica, were recent callers in Barnesboro.

Sunday guests at the F. L. Soisson home were: Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Soisson and children of Cresson; and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Hoppel and children of Nicktown.

Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Yahner and grand-daughter, Emily Jane, and John Yeager motored to Oil City, Saturday, and spent the week end at the Phil Runzo home.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Buck spent several days last week in Pittsburgh at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Steward.

Mrs. Jane Rowley and niece, Marie Deconna, were Thursday shoppers in Altoona.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Huether, Jr., of Harrisburg, were recent guests at the Huether home on Cinder street.

Dr. J. F. Rutherford, well known as "Pop," celebrated his 73rd birthday anniversary on Saturday, March 25th. Dr. Rutherford was honor guest at a turkey dinner served at the Portal Saturday evening at six o'clock. The guest list included the following: Mr. and Mrs. Ted Tarr of State College; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Nagle and children of Erie; Miss Ethel Cross of Girard, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Commons of Nanty-Glo; Mr. and Mrs. Emil Ballet of Ehrenfeld; Prof. and Mrs. D. R. Lovette of Spangler; George and Miss Jean Dahlin of Houtzdale; Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Shue, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Commons, Dr. F. C. Peters, Miss Anna Marie Cronauer, Miss Helen Keffer, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Binder, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Ulrich; Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Westover, all of this place.

Miss Patricia Houck acted as hostess to the members of the Girls' Bridge Club at the Houck home last Friday evening. Miss Helen Mancuso was awarded the prize for the best score. The hostess served a very tasty lunch. Besides the above mentioned, the guest list included the following: Misses Thelma Strittmatter, Vermita Bearer, Jane Holtz, Dorothy Robinson, Phyllis Strittmatter and Betty Niebauer.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Buck and children were Sunday guests at the F. C. Sharbaugh home in Ebensburg.

Irvin Bearer, Beaverdale high school teacher, spent the week end at the home of his parents.