

PATTON BRIEFS

Thomas Quinn, formerly proprietor of the Hotel Patton, and for forty years a resident of our community, and Dr. J. E. Fox, of Osceola Mills, Pa., were recently in Philadelphia for several days, and were in attendance at the reception of their cousin's daughter, Miss Peggy Blythe, a member of the D'Oyley Opera Company, of London, England, now touring in the United States. The company spent several months in New York City before starting the Philadelphia engagement, and will visit a number of other key cities before returning to England. Miss Blythe arranged a hearty welcome for her American kinsmen, and Mr. Quinn reports an enjoyable visit.

The regular weekly bingo entertainment of the Patton Fire Company again will be resumed on Friday night of the week at 8 o'clock in the Firemen's hall, after an intermission last week because of the Good Friday holiday. Don't fail to patronize the firemen. You'll find it enjoyable and profitable.

The Northern Cambria County Republican Club will hold its regular monthly meeting in the church hall at St. Lawrence on Monday evening, April 17th at 8 o'clock. This meeting will be open to all. Prominent speakers will be present and discourse on topics of interest to everyone, and an hour of entertainment will follow the meeting. The program of entertainment will be in charge of the members from the St. Lawrence section. To become a member of the club you are required to be a registered Republican. The membership fee is twenty-five cents a year. Application blanks will be on hand at the St. Lawrence meeting. Come and join the club. The last meeting of the club was held at Van Orner on March 6th, at which time 76 new members were admitted. The people of that locality furnished an entertainment program.

The Geography Club of Cambria County will hold its third annual meeting at the Carrolltown high school at 7:30 p. m. on Thursday of this week. Miss Beatrice Collins, geography expert of New York City, will give a demonstration lesson to the intermediate grades. After the demonstration she will officiate at a Round Table discussion. The meeting is the last of the club's meetings for the 1938-39 term, the first having been a luncheon meeting held at Johnstown; the second was held at Cresson.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Democratic Club will be held in the Moose Hall, Patton, on Friday evening, April 14th, at 8:00 P. M. All members are requested to attend.

The annual Easter Monday dance at Sunset on Monday of this week was the largest in point of attendance ever at the Park. Patton was well represented. Jan Garber and his orchestra featured.

A benefit dance will be held on Thursday evening of this week in the Eagles' Hall, this place, sponsored by the Episcopal Church. Paul Flynn and his orchestra will furnish the music. Admission 50 cents per person. The committee in charge is leaving no stone unturned to make the affair a successful and enjoyable event, and they cordially solicit your patronage.

Rev. and Mrs. James A. Turner left Tuesday for York, Pa., where Rev. Turner is attending the annual M. E. Conference. His parishioners, as well as the local public generally, hope that Rev. Turner will be returned to the local charge.

The annual luncheon for the National President of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held in the Hotel Schenley, Pittsburgh, on May 1st, 1939 at 12:00 Noon. Mrs. James Morris, the National President, is the wife of Judge Morris, of the Supreme Court of North Dakota, and has served on many of the major committees of the Auxiliary. Mrs. Morris is a charming woman and has a magnetic personality. All members of the Auxiliary are cordially invited to attend this luncheon being planned by the Department of Pennsylvania with Mrs. Leroy Beidelman, Western Vice President as chairman. Reservations are to be sent to Mrs. Beidelman, 579 Hershberger Road, Johnstown, Pa., as soon as possible. The Legion Auxiliary wishes to make this event the biggest affair of the year and urges all local members who can, to attend. The price for the luncheon has been set at $1.35.

The floor show and entertainment program presented to the members of Patton Aerie No. 1244 and their ladies last Saturday evening was well attended and proved enjoyable. Because of the success of the venture, another entertainment of like nature again will be given this coming Saturday night, and probably each Saturday in the immediate future. A group of talent from Altoona will provide entertainment this week.

The members of the American Legion Auxiliary of Walter McCoy Post, No. 614, of this place, will hold their regular monthly meeting next Monday evening, April 17th, in the Legion home, at 8 p. m. As there are business matters of importance to be transacted the attendance of the membership is urged.

The second of a series of cinch and bingo parties will be held Sunday, April 16th, at 8 o'clock in the St. George Church hall. Lunch. Admission 35c.

The following were numbered among out of town young people who spent their Easter vacations at their homes here: Martha Way, of Washington, D. C., with her father, William Way; Rosalia Bigos, of Washington, D. C., with her father, John Bigos; Irene Micklick, a student nurse at the Phillipsburg hospital, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Micklick; Andrew Choby, a student at the University of Pittsburgh, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Choby; Dr. George E. Dvorchak, with his father, John Dvorchak; Fnyllis Yeckley, who is employed at Media, Pa., with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Yeckley.

Tony Zacosky spent the week end with his mother in Sitesville, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brown, Mrs. Winifred Fitzpatrick, spent Tuesday in Blandburg.

Mr. Peter Grozanich is seriously ill at his home suffering an attack of pneumonia.

Miss Joan Thomas, a student nurse at St. Francis' Hospital, Pittsburgh; John Thomas, a student at Lafayette College, Easton, Pa.; and Poul Thomas, a seminary student at St. Francis College, Loretto, Pa., spent Easter vacations with their mother, Mrs. Emma Thomas, in East Carroll township. Miss Anna Thomas, an instructress nurse at the Windber hospital, was also a guest at the Thomas home.

Mrs. Barth Young entertained her grand-daughter, Patty Young, and 12 of Patty's girlfriends at her home on Saturday from five to eight o'clock, the affair being an Easter party. The table was beautifully decorated in colors to suit the occasion. The entertainment was bingo, bean throwing and other games, and prizes were given.

Robert Lesko returned to his home Saturday, after having been a surgical patient for several weeks at the Children's hospital in Pittsburgh.

BLIND MAN AND HIS DOG BURN TO DEATH

Clearfield — A chubby blind man, too large to crawl through a window to safety, and his faithful dog burned to death last Wednesday as fire swept the man's small, frame home near Clearfield.

Three brothers and a boarder at the home squeezed through the window and tried futilely to pull the victim, Charles Heeman, 32, after them. His mother, Mrs. Umada Heeman, 65, fled to the outside and several times attempted to reenter the house to save her son.

Roaches feed on almost any animal or cereal foods, and will also eat or gnaw woolens and leather.

BOBBY BREEN IN NEW FILM AT THE GRAND

Bobby Breen's new picture "Fisherman's Wharf," which will show at the Grand Theatre, Patton on Saturday, April 15 as one of the double features, possesses all the ingredients which go to make palatable screen fare.

A simple, human story, artistically told, songs stepped in the rich romance of the Mediterranean atmosphere to be found in San Francisco Bay; and a locale that for beauty and uniqueness has seldom before been equalled, combine to lift the vehicle to a position among the better pictures of the current season.

Basically, the story is a father-son tale — a simple theme which pictures the great love of the widowed Leo Carrillo for his adopted son, Bobby Breen. Carrillo falls in love with Lee Patrick, and the parent-son angle is momentarily stifled. However, in a glorious scene at the end

In spite of the dramatic element to the plot, "Fisherman's Wharf" is heavily laden with grand, human comedy. Musically, the film is of superior type. However, the singing and music are so effectively submerged that they do not interfere with the plot, and only after the final scene has been projected, does one appreciate the beauty, the subtlety and the artistry that has been put into it.

The second of the double feature attractions is a picture crammed full of action and suspense from beginning to end, showing the lives of secret service men, the picture is titled "Secret Service of the Air."

Finding the ideal actress to play Queen Victoria was one of the problems faced by Production Chief Darryl F. Zanuck during the filming of Shirley Temple's newest starring picture, "The Little Princess." 20th Century-Fox's Technicolor version of the great classic, which comes to the Grand Theatre, Patton on Sunday and Monday, April 16th and 17th.

For the scene in which Shirley meets Queen Victoria is one of the highlights of the famous Frances Hodgson Burnett stories, which has been read and loved by millions.

After a wide search, the role was finally given to Beryl Mercer, the noted actress who had played Queen Victoria on the stage with signal success.

Shirley's first full length Technicolor production offers her her best role to date as the little daughter of a wealthy officer in the Grenadiers.

When he sails for Africa to fight in the Boer War, he leaves Shirley in Miss Minshin's Exclusive School For Girls, where her lovely clothes immediately cause the children to name her "The Little Princess."

Miss Minchin, played by Mary Nash, turns out to be a cold, heartless woman, and when Shirley's father is reported killed, she takes away all of Shirley's lovely clothes, dresses her in rags and sets her to work doing all the drudgery around the school.

Shirley refuses to believe her father is dead, however, and whenever she can, slips away to make a secret trip to the hospital, to search for him among the wounded soldiers.

One day Miss Minchin accuses Shirley of stealing and calls in the police. This time, the innocent child runs into the hospital to elude the officer. Rushing into the arms of a kind-looking old lady for protection, Shirley is amazed to discover that her new friend is Queen Victoria!

Richard Greene and Anita Louise head Shirley's great supporting cast as the romantic leads in "The Little Princess," while others prominently featured are Ian Hunter, Cesar Romero, Arthur Treacher, Mary Nash, Sybil Jason, Miles Mander and Marcia Mae Jones. Walter Lang directed the film.
