Nettled Burglars Hide Their Victim

COSTIGAN, MAINE.—A note of thanks for the goods stolen, with an added line stating the thieves were "sorry you couldn't have left some money for us," featured one of the two breaks investigated by deputy sheriffs. The note was left on the cash register of the store of C. V. Burr in Costigan, which also serves as the town's post office.

PIONEER CALLS AIR RIDE GREAT THRILL

80-Year-Old Woman Says She Wasn't Bit Scared.

SALT LAKE CITY.—In her younger days she gave "Billy the Kid" a real "tongue lashing," but when Mary J. Farnsworth, 80-year-old Utah pioneer woman, stepped from a plane here after her first air jaunt she was "thrilled speechless."

An encounter with the Western bad man didn't hold nearly so many thrills as a 20-minute ride through the clouds over Salt Lake valley, which she first entered behind a covered wagon as a girl of 10 years, Mrs. Farnsworth declared.

"The Kid" came to Mrs. Farnsworth's home and threatened to search the residence for weapons during one of his flights from posses.

But he never got inside. "I sent him on his way with a tongue lashing he would never have taken from any man," the pioneer woman recalled.

"The Kid" episode and the dangers and experiences of frontier life can't compare with thrill-packed aviation, she declared.

Stepping from a plane at Salt Lake City municipal airport after her first flight, Mrs. Farnsworth admitted:

"It was the greatest thrill of my life—and I wasn't scared a bit."

Hermit Hears of His 'Death'; It's Good News

PHOENIX, ARIZ.—It took his own obituary to bring Frederick B. Jones from self-exile, two years after he disappeared from his home and work here.

Recently a weathered skeleton was found in rugged mountains 50 miles north of here. Sheriff's deputies estimated it had been exposed two years, and said it might be the bones of Jones, a druggist, who disappeared in August of 1936.

Dental work resembled Jones', and an automatic pistol found near the skeleton was said by a friend to be his. The person whose skeleton was found had apparently been slain.

But it wasn't Jones. Hearing that he was thought to be dead, Jones, 63, emerged from his desert wood-cutter's camp 25 miles from Phoenix just long enough to assure old friends he was alive and happy.

He then heard for the first time that there had been a strained situation, almost war, between European nations and that he had been left $10,000 by his mother-in-law, who died some months ago.

But Jones did not like what he saw in the city and he went back to his hermit life, to which he fled in an escape from "domestic difficulties."

Sword 'Gargling' Stops Throat Ills, Actor Says

HOXIE, KAN.—John G. (Lucky) Ball, who turned from lion taming to sword swallowing for a "soft" job, believes there's no better way of avoiding throat ailments than "to gargle a sword now and then."

To prove his assertion, Ball cites the fact that not once since he started swallowing swords five years ago has he been bothered with a sore throat. His wife, one of the few women sword swallows in the country, likewise has not suffered from throat trouble, although she has unusually large tonsils.

Ball quit taming lions and started swallowing swords after a lion severely injured him. There is no danger of being injured by swallowing a sword, Ball said, unless there are jagged edges on the weapon. For a chaser, Ball eats fire.

Ball has appeared in several motion pictures and now is under contract. He came to Sheridan county, Kan., years ago to put on his lion taming act, married a local girl and since then has claimed this as his home county.

Marriage Now Makes Him Stepfather of Grandson

PITTSBURGH.—John H. Rolls, 56, of West View, married his own daughter-in-law in Cumberland, Md., after the couple had twice been refused a license in Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

The marriage to his son's widow will make Rolls the stepfather of his grandson. Both Pennsylvania and West Virginia have laws against such a marriage.

Rolls' son, the former husband of his present wife, was drowned while on a vacation in Bala, Ont., eight years ago, and left a four-month-old son. The widow went to live with her mother and the child stayed with his grandfather.

A year ago the wife of the elder Rolls died of a heart ailment.

DRUNKEN PEDESTRIAN GREATER MENACE THAN THE DRUNKEN DRIVER

Harrisburg.—The intoxicated pedestrian rather than the drunken driver is more responsible for fatal motor vehicle accidents an analysis made by the statistical unit of the Department of Revenue's Bureau of Safety reveals.

Records to date showed that in 808 fatal pedestrian accidents 135 involved intoxicated pedestrians while only 44 intoxicated drivers were involved in fatal accidents.

In 14 per cent of all accidents according to the report made by Deputy Secretary of Revenue Otto F. Messner, the operator of the car was apparently intoxicated.

This condition also was reported to be the condition of 2.2 per cent of all operators involved in fatal accidents.

On the other hand the survey shows that 8.5 per cent of all pedestrians involved in accidents were drunk as were 15 per cent of all pedestrians involved in fatal accidents.

Last year 69.5 per cent of all operators involved in motor smash ups in Pennsylvania were reported as having been in an apparently normal condition at the time.

A break down of this group shows that 7.3 per cent of the operators in fatal accidents, 71.8 per cent in non-fatal accidents and 67.2 per cent in property damage accidents were likewise reported as being in an apparently normal condition.

A further analysis indicates that 20.5 per cent were inattentive at the time. This same condition was found in 17.5 per cent of the operators in fatal accidents, 18.3 per cent of the operators in property damage accidents.

In comparison to this condition on the part of the operator is the fact that 6.9 per cent of all pedestrians involved in accidents were also reported as inattentive.

In this group 61.2 per cent of all pedestrians involved in fatal accidents were inattentive.

"In view of this information," Mr. Messner said, "it is apparent that both operators and pedestrians must be made conscious of the necessity of keeping their minds on traffic."

In addition to inattentiveness, operators were reported as being confused in 4.3 per cent of the cases. This same element of confusion was reported of 3.2 per cent of the operators in fatal accidents and 4.0 per cent and 4.6 per cent of the operators in non fatal and property damage accidents respectively.

The pedestrian was reported as being confused in 12.4 per cent of the total pedestrian accidents and 10.6 per cent of the fatalities.

Of all operators involved in accidents 3.2 per cent reported their view as having been obstructed, and 4.7 per cent of the operators in fatal crashes reported this condition. The pedestrian was similarly influenced in 4.9 per cent of the pedestrian accidents and 4.3 per cent of the pedestrian fatal accidents.

The balance of the operators included in the report are classed as being asleep or having a physical defect. The former condition applied to .85 per cent of all operators involved and 1.5 per cent of those in fatal accidents, while the latter condition existed in .28 per cent of all accidents and .54 per cent of the total accidents.

ALBERT WRESH.

Albert Wresh, aged 58 years, died suddenly on Wednesday of last week of a heart attack at his home in Coupon. He is survived by his widow and a number of children. Funeral services were held in St. Joseph's Catholic church on Saturday and interment was in the church cemetery.

TAX COLLECTORS ASK COUNTY FEE OF TWO PCT. ALLEGED OWING

Asserting that the county owes them two per cent commissions on delinquent taxes paid into the county treasury, a committee of the Cambria County Tax Collectors' Association will meet soon with County Commissioners John Thomas Jr., Frank P. Hollern, and Lillian D. Keller and County Controller Henry L. Cannon in an effort to obtain payment. This action was decided at a meeting of the association.

CAMERA SUBJECT

The beauty contest season in southern California got off to a flying start recently when Jane McClure won first place in the Long Beach candid camera beauty competition. Camera addicts had a field day, according to reports.

held Saturday in the court house.

W. F. Ribblett, president of the association, appointed the following committee to meet with the county officials: John J. Whalen, Spangler, chairman; Earl Price, East Taylor township, Telford C. Gill, Patton; Mrs. Lulu Lohr Ferndale, and Harry T. Rodgers, Westmont.

The collectors claim that they received two per cent commission on taxes paid into the various borough, township and school district treasuries and that under the same law the county is bound to also pay a two per cent commission. Payment has been refused by county officials in the past. It was indicated that unless favorable action is taken by the county officials, that the collectors may take court action.

Mr. Ribblett was reelected President and Mr. Whalen secretary-treasurer of the association.
