SHOTS ARE FIRED IN THEFT ATTEMPT

An exchange of shots following the theft of a calf is being investigated by county detectives. Edward Warfield of White township, reported that at 3 o'clock a. m., Wednesday a neighbor, Ralph McConnell, awakened him and declared there was some one in the Warfield barn. Warfield asserted that he and McConnell went to the barn where they heard someone prowling around, but the invader escaped.

The two men then entered a car and went in search of the intruder. Warfield asserted that he and McConnell heard a shot from a nearby woods. Leaving the car he found the calf with its right leg shot off.

Warfield, went on the trail of the culprit. McConnell, then according to the story told the county detectives, saw two men, who fired at him and he returned the fire, firing four times from a .25 caliber automatic pistol. No one was injured.
