

PATTON BRIEFS

NOTICE:—The Patton Fire Company will clean the local streets on Thursday evening of this week, beginning at nine o'clock, and in order to facilitate their work, all citizens and others are requested to keep their cars off the streets. Don't overlook this. Chief Blake asserts that parked cars are a great hindrance to the firemen, and at night, if they are locked, there is no way of moving them.

A retreat for Catholic boys between the ages of 12 and 17, will be conducted this summer at St. Francis College at Loretto under the auspices of the laymen's retreat league of the Altoona diocese. Dates are set for July 21st to 24th.

Fred B. Buck, president of the First National Bank of Bakerton, and D. A. Westover, cashier of the First National Bank at Hastings, are among the members who are attending the 45th annual convention of the Pennsylvania Bankers Association at Atlantic City this week.

Alban Jones, Jug Dietrick and Ray DiBello of Cambria county, will collaborate with famous song writers on the Write-a-hit-song Writer project sponsored and approved by the New York Song Hit Guild. They will represent Cambria County to cooperate with talented writers interested in this national project to give the amateur song writers of America their first big break.

Theatre patrons are asked to note that the picture originally scheduled for the Grand theatre next Sunday and Monday, will not be shown, but that instead, the outstanding historical classic of Cecil B. DeMille, "Union Pacific," will be screened instead. This epic film of the building of the first railroad from coast to coast has won the unlimited praise of the critics and should not be missed.

A collision of a truck and an automobile near Belsano Tuesday night claimed the life of Miss Ella Peiller, 42, of Bucks county, who died in the Memorial hospital, Johnstown, as result of injuries received.

Help show your patriotic sentiments by turning out for the Memorial Day program next Tuesday morning.

The Junior-Senior Prom of the Patton High school, held last Friday in the Eagles' home was an unequalled and outstanding success. Hal Curtis' orchestra furnished the music.

In observance of the twenty-fifth birthday anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Stoltz of Mellon avenue, a large number of friends helped them celebrate in the I. O. O. F. hall in the Bank Building on Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Stoltz received many presents in honor of the anniversary.

The Lutheran church of Patton will commemorate the day of Pentecost with a special festive program next Sunday evening at 7:30. The service will be conducted in the English language of Rev. J. J. Younggren, of Greensburg, who has charge of the Patton church. Special music will be furnished. This will prove to be a real home-coming service, to which the members and friends in Patton and in surrounding towns are most cordially invited.

Paul D. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Miller of this place, has been promoted to Cadet First Lieutenant in the ROTC battalion of Gettysburg College, it was announced this week. He previously held the position of cadet sergeant.

Mrs. P. J. Kelly, Mrs. George Leiden and the Misses Cora and Gussie Leiden left by automobile on Wednesday morning of this week for St. Paul, Minn., where they will be present at the wedding on Saturday morning of the Misses Leiden's brother, Walter Leiden of New York City, to Miss Bernice Hansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo R. Hansen, of St. Paul. The wedding will take place in St. Luke's Catholic church and a reception at the Hansen residence will take place at 2:30.

Members of the Ebensburg Kiwanis Club will eat a chicken dinner at the Brandon hotel on Monday evening, June 5th. The dinner will be furnished at the expense of the members of the Northern Cambria Kiwanis Club, as the result of an attendance contest, in which the Northern Cambria men came out second best.

The regular meeting of the American Legion Ladies Auxiliary was held on Monday in the Legion rooms, when the sale of poppies, sponsored annually by the auxiliary, was set for Saturday, May 27th. Members of the organization are requested to meet in the Legion rooms at 7 p. m. on Sunday night, May 28, to attend the Memorial services to be held this year in St. Peter and Paul's church. Transportation will be provided for Gold Star Mothers who wish to attend.

The next meeting of the Legion Auxiliary will be held on June 9th when nomination of officers will take place. Election of officers will occur at the June 19th meeting. Cinch and bingo party will be held for the benefit of St. George's church in the church hall on Monday, May 29. Lunch and prizes, including door prize will be given. Admission 35 cents. All are cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Kirsch of Clarion announce the arrival of a daughter at Brookville hospital on May 20th. Mrs. Kirsch was formerly Miss Ruth Feighner of East Carroll township.

Banns of matrimony were published in St. Monica's Catholic church at Chest Springs on Sunday between Miss Marie Weakland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Weakland of Chest Springs, and Gerald Eckenrode, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Eckenrode of East Carroll township.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kuntz and children of Pittsburgh, spent the week end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Reig of East Carroll Township.

Mrs. J. K. Gorman of Coalport, and son, Kenneth, of Clearfield, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Feighner.

The road from Luther's Corner, at the south end of Carrolltown, to the Chest Springs road near Loretto, is now nearing completion. It was started last fall.

Miss Ruby Fink, daughter of Mrs. Wray Fink and George Mills, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Miller of St. Benedict, were married on April 19th at 12 o'clock noon, by Elder Levi G. Gorsuch, at the Gorsuch home. A wedding dinner was served at six o'clock at the home of the groom's parents, to the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Mills are residing in St. Benedict, where Mr. Mills is employed.

An organization meeting of the Patton Garden Club will be held on Friday evening, May 26th in the Music Club Rooms in the Bank Building. The business session will be held at 8 P. M. The speaker, County Agent H. C. McWilliams, will address the club at 8:30. All persons who are interested in the Garden Club are cordially invited to attend.

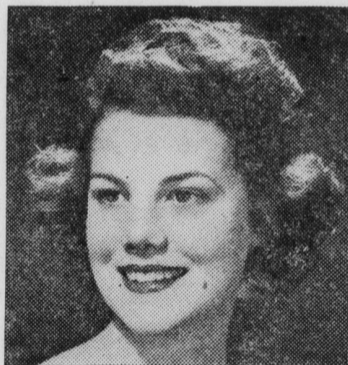

Jack Fink passed the Naval Examination at Pittsburgh on May 15th and is stationed with Company C., Naval Training School Barracks at Newport, Rhode Island. Mrs. Fink wishes to extend her thanks to those who helped Jack along.

A Memorial day bingo and supper the latter a chicken meal, will be held in the St. Augustine hall next Sunday, May 28th. Bingo at 2:30. Supper at 5:00. The committee invites you all.

Miss Holes is a graduate of the Cherry Tree High School, and at present is attending Shenandoah College, at Dayton, Va. Miss Holes is the grand-daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Elmer M. Smale of Patton. Mr. Sellers is a graduate of Roanoke College, Va.

FAIR HOSTESS

Miss Rosemary Best, University of Illinois junior, whose home is in Edinburg, Ill., was the first girl chosen from a group of 10 coeds from the Big Ten colleges who will serve as hostesses at the New York World's fair this summer. The hostess will greet midwestern visitors at the Elgin observatory during July and August.

HI ANDREWS IS VOTED MOST INDEPENDENT LEGISLATOR

Representative Hiram G. Andrews, Johnstown Democrat, was voted most independent member of the House at Harrisburg in the biennial poll of the newspapers the tabulation reveals. In winning the title from the press galleries, Andrews was practically with no opposition. He received the biggest majority of votes given to any title winner. The Johnstown assemblyman received all except five votes, which were scattered among other legislators.
