

PATTON BRIEFS

Mrs. John A. Dickson and son, Billy, returned Monday from a two weeks' visit with the lady's mother, in Columbus, Ohio.

Charles Crowell of this place was honored by the State Convention of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, in Wilkes-Barre, this week, by being elected inside guard for the state organization. Mr. Crowell has long been an outstanding Eagle.

Mrs. Justus Tpel of Ebensburg was principal speaker at the June meeting of the Patton Garden Club Monday evening. Her talk, "Through the Seasons With Perennials" was very instructive. Members from Patton, Hastings, Carrolltown and Spangler attended. Next meeting will be July 18 and the program will be furnished by Geo. O. Simon of Johnstown. The club is planning a flower show in September.

Miss Rachel Gregg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gregg, of Cresson, former local residents, and Kenneth E. Shlutz, of Cedar Rapids, Ia., were united in marriage last Saturday evening at the bride's home.

Margaret and John Tinick of this place and John Saswa of Barnesboro, have returned to their homes after a week end at Lopez. They were accompanied home by Miss Olga Fedorchak who will spend a few weeks here.

Mrs. Brath Young, Mrs. Mary Farabaugh Mangus, Mrs. Kathryn Maurer and Miss Hilda Swope, were hostesses on Sunday afternoon to members and guests of the Allied Artists at their June sketch party held at Pleasant Hill Farm near town. Charcoal pastels and water colors featured. At 5 p. m. the party assembled in the farm dining room for tea. The next meeting of the group will be held at Somerset July 2.

Dr. Frederick E. Arble, local physician, returned Sunday from an intensive week's post graduate work on diseases of the paranasal sinuses and disorders of the circulatory system. The course was conducted at the graduate school of the Osteopathic Hospital, Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lisnard and children and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cochran were Johnstown callers Sunday.

Mrs. Raymond Rhue and Mrs. Snyder Yergler were Altoona shoppers on Monday.

The ladies' aid of the Presbyterian church will hold a strawberry, ice cream and cake social in the Social Room of the Church Thursday, June 22nd, at 7:00 P. M. Tickets are on sale and can be secured from any of the ladies.

Mrs. Elizabeth Sager's condition is unchanged. She has been bedfast at her home on Third avenue for several months.

Paul, the 16 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert McConnell of 3rd avenue, underwent an appendicitis operation at the Spangler hospital, Monday.

Mrs. Henry Thorbauer has as her guest her sister, Jean, of Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Clark Heist and daughter, Audrey, are visiting relatives in Detroit.

Mrs. Joseph Lodge is seriously ill at her home on Lang avenue.

Jack Bone, CCC enrollee, son of Mrs. Marie Bone of this place, is a patient at Walter Reed hospital, Washington, D. C., suffering an infected leg.

The regular meeting of the Patton R. D. 4-H Club was held at the home of "Toots" Crowell June 19. Officers elected were: President, Eleanor McGonegal; Vice president Marie Westrick; Secretary, Peg Shambaugh; Song Leader, "Toots" Crowell; Game Leader, "Babs" Westrick; Reporter, Ruth Colberg; Other members are Cecelia Hoffman and Mary Louise Deschamps. At the meeting, plans were completed for a camping trip from June 21 to 24 at Camp William Penn near Indiana. Miss Erma Williams, Patton, won the cash prize chanced off by the club.

P. M. Weimer, of Somerset, who has served as receiver for a number of banks in Somerset and Indiana counties has been appointed to serve as receiver of the Second National Bank of Altoona and the First National of Patton, succeeding Robert Henderson.

Dancing and a program of entertainment followed a dinner given by the Ebensburg and Northern Cambria Kiwanis Clubs at the New Ebensburg Inn last Thursday night.

The marriage of Miss Edna McCoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert McCoy of Colver and Francis Huber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent A. Huber of Russell Avenue, Patton, was solemnized in the Holy Family Catholic Church in Colver last Thursday morning at nine o'clock. Rev. J. J. Gura, pastor, read the wedding service and sang the nuptial high mass. The bride wore all white. Her dress was white chiffon over satin, with a veil of shoulder length. She carried a bouquet of white roses and snapdragons. Mrs. Thomas Shannon of Carrolltown, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore blue lace with blending accessories and carried pink roses. Anthony Huber was his brother's best man. A wedding dinner was served to about forty guests, relatives of the Huber and McCoy families. Mr. and Mrs. Huber spent their honeymoon in Ohio and other states. They will make their home in Patton.

The marriage of Miss Mary Storm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Storm of Chest Springs, to Leo Sherry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pius Sherry of Ashville, took place at a ceremony performed last Wednesday morning in St. Monica's Church at Chest Springs. The Rev. Father James Padden, rector, read the service and officiated at the following nuptial high mass. Attending the couple were Miss Jane Storm, sister of the bride, and John Sherry, brother of the bride, and Rosemary Storm, niece of the bride, were flower girls. The bride was attired in a white satin gown with tulle veil, with long train. She carried a bouquet of white roses and peonies. Her attendant wore a pink chiffon gown with matching accessories and carried pink roses and peonies. After a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, the couple left for the New York World's Fair.

Rev. James A. Turner, pastor of the Patton Methodist Church, was presented with a five passenger sedan recently by member of his congregation as an expression of appreciation and regard. The work of the church had prospered to such an extent, it was said, that members of the church felt such an expression of appreciation would be appropriate. Rev. Turner in his response assured the congregation of his gratitude and heartfelt appreciation.

To make others happy, who are less fortunate is a treasure well preserved, and the results will be happiness in return for those responsible. The management of the Cresson State Institution, solicitous of the happy welfare of those in their care, afforded the summer guests of the Children' Department, a real treat in a high class entertainment staged by the Simpson Studio entertainers. This, their third performance by these dancers, at their auditorium, merited a desire for a return engagement in the near future. Among special request numbers were Billy and Carol May Blatt in their hilarious number of "Raggy Ann and Andy." Jean Anne Blatt went over big in a gorgeously gowned toe tap number of Varsity Sue. Euvone Maurer, in an attractive cadet costume, as the Campus Baton Twirler, merited much interest from the audience. Gloria March, in her hand-walking feat, always captivates her audience and Jimmy Blatt and Janet Stephens as Mr. and Mrs. Mouse have a very promising future to anticipate.

Four Patton People graduated into full American citizenship at the Commencement exercises held on Friday evening, June 16th, at the Point Stadium in Johnstown. The program which was sponsored by the Citizens' Council of Greater Johnstown and the Business and Professional Women's Club and aided by the U. S. Department of Labor and the American Legion, was the occasion of the graduation of several hundred aliens into American citizenship. Those from Patton who received their papers were Mr. Thomas Simpson and Mr. Andrew Bennett. Miss Miriam Holland Rogers and Mr. Jean Marie Jancour of Patton also got their papers but were unable to attend the graduation services. These four persons are pupils in the local Literacy and Citizenship School being conducted twice weekly in the American Legion hall by the WPA Division of Education. Some of the other members of the Patton and Hastings Literacy and Citizenship classes also attended in a body. The program started with a gigantic parade which formed in Somerset Street and passed through Haines, Bedford and Main Streets to the Point Stadium.

Miss Olive Bender, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bender, became the bride of Albert Johnson, of Frugality at a nuptial high mass on Saturday morning at nine o'clock, by Rev. Father Pollard Farran, pastor, in the St. Augustine Catholic church. The attendants were Rita Ohnson, sister of the groom, and Joseph Bender, brother of the bride. The bride was attired in a gown of white satin and wore a long veil an carried a bridal bouquet of white flowers. A wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride. The newlyweds will reside in Loretto, Mr. Johnson being employed there.

A strawberry festival will be held Tuesday, June 27, on the St. George Church lawn. Strawberry short cake, ice cream, sandwiches and coffee etc. will be served. The Festival will begin at 5 o'clock. Lunch tickets 25c. Everybody is cordially invited.

Miss Margaret Dunlap of Ohio is spending a two weeks' vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Dunlap of East Carroll township.

George Patrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Patrick, is a surgical patient at the Children's hospital in Pittsburgh. He was taken there last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Modestus Yahner of New York City, are spending some time at the home of the former's father, William Yahner, in East Carroll township.

Election of officers marked the last meeting for the summer months of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the American Legion at the Legion home on Monday, when Mrs. Elizabeth Sheehan was re-elected president of the unit. Other officers chosen were Mrs. Marion Schwab, first vice president; Mrs. Margaret Long, second vice president; Mrs. Aileen Swab, recording secretary; Mrs. Margart Litzinger, reflected financial secretar; Mrs. Laura Campbell, reelected treasurer; Mrs. Dorothy Burkey, reelected sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Ann Jacobs, chaplain, and Mrs. Mary Weakland, historian. Delegates to the Cambria County Council Meeting this week in Carrolltown are Mrs. Elizabeth Sheehan, Mrs. Mary Weakland, Mrs. Margaret Long, Mrs. Aileen Swab and Mrs. Ann Jacobs. The Patton unit will make a contribution at this meeting to the Veterans' Hospital in Aspinwall. Delegates to the state convention to be held in Williamsport, in August are: Mrs. Elizabeth Sheehan, and Mrs. Ann Jacobs; alternates are Mrs. Mary Weakland and Mrs. Margaret Litzinger. A social hour and lunch followed. Mrs. Elizabeth Sager and Mrs. Sarah Lodge, gold star mothers of the unit, are seriously ill.

SELLING POULTRY BY PIECE IS UNLAWFUL

"The law states clearly that all meat products must be sold or offered for sale by net weight," the Department of Internal Affairs said in the first bulletin issued under the direction of William S. Livengood, Jr., new secretary.
