

PATTON BRIEFS

Ye daring Patton Fishermen have returned home from the Atlantic. Last year this group did bring back a nice collection of blue fish to back their harrowing stories. This year they only brought home the stories. Last year, the group didn't take "Rummy" Buck along. This year they did. This year the balance of the gang told "Rummy" how to fish, and to follow their example. And this year, too, "Rummy" is said to have caught the biggest fish of all—a nine foot marlin. The balance of the group were not so hot in spite of their experience—although Charlie Snyder has a "big one" get away. But the group are bluefish experts, and the bluefish weren't running. Buck is apparently in a higher class. Next year he will act as instructor and tell the boys how to do it. Who went? Well, some just went for the trip, and to bear part of the expenses, but they were: Charles Snyder, who had the "big one" get away; Harry Stoltz, who only went along; Raymond Buck, the hero; Russell Little, who proved absolutely worthless; Ralph Litzinger, who was some good, because he knew how to clean fish; and Harry Nehrig, who is reported to have caught a small fish, and likewise proved his fine mettle in saving "Rummy" from toppling overboard. However we poor folks who didn't go will hear lots about all of the fiasco until the outfit returns to the mighty Atlantic next summer. However, the people at home are entitled to know the truth of the entire trip, and so, we wired Ocean City, Md., and in a box on the front page our readers have a bonafide news-dispatch, covering the highlights, and obtained at considerable expense to us, but we DO want the truth to conquer.

LINCOLN" AT GRAND THEATRE SUNDAY AND MONDAY The thrilling, romantic eventful youth of Abe Lincoln makes Darryl F. Zanuck's production of "Young Mr. Lincoln," a complete screen surprise and excellent entertainment according to advance reports based on screenings of this unusual film. Ignoring the great Lincoln with whom everyone is familiar, this Cosmopolitan production for 20th Century Fox is a photoplay stirring with its drama, action and emotion; it depicts young Abe, wrestling, fighting, telling funny stories, falling in love. The highlight of the original screen play by Lamar Trotti shows the young lawyer defying a frenzied lynch mob and defending two innocent boys in the famous "moonlight murder" trial—the first challenge of young Lincoln. This is a Lincoln few people are familiar with. At the age of 28 he was a gangling, brawny armed youth, a shy young lover and a regular fellow. Covering approximately seven years of his youth the film culminates in the frontier trial. Re-enacting the best of the famous Lincoln anecdotes, the film is highlighted by such lines as: To the lynch mob: "I am not going to make any speeches. All I've got to say is: I can lick any man here hands down!" To Mary Todd, on the dance floor: "I'd like to dance with you in the worst way, Miss Todd; but any dancing I'd do would be the worst way!" And during the famous "moonlight murder" trial: "How can a mother choose which son shall live, which shall die?"

Directed by John Ford, the film features Henry Fonda in the title role, Alice Brady as the mother of the accused boys, Marjorie Weaver as Mary Todd, and Arleen Whelan. Included in the cast are Eddie Collins, Pauline Moore as Ann Rutledge, Richard Cromwell, Donald Meek, Doris Bowdon and Eddie McQuillan. Kenneth Macgowan served as associate producer. "A MAN TO REMEMBER" THE PICTURE THAT CAUGHT THE HOLLYWOOD CRITICS OFF GUARD AND SENT THEM AWAY SINGING ITS PRAISES IS COMING TO THE GRAND Theatre JULY 4 PATTON
