"TARZAN FINDS A SON" IS ATTRACTION AT THE GRAND SUNDAY, MONDAY

Thrills, drama and tender romance, told amid the jungles of Africa, will enthral the audiences at the Grand Theatre, Patton, on Sunday and Monday next, where "Tarzan Finds a Son" reuniting Johnny Weismuller and Maureen Sullivan, will play. A new character comes to the screen in the fourth of the stories based on Edgar Rice Burroughs characters in a "Tarzan Junior," played by John Sheffield, an amazing five year old athlete who played the boy in "On Borrowed Time" on the New York stage.

The story deals with the finding of a plane wreck in the jungle. Tarzan and his mate raise the boy Action and thrills are in every portion of the sequence, and it is a show you should not miss.
